Questions About the Catholic Church?

Do you know a Catholic who now feels separated from the Church?

The "Returning Catholics" ministry is designed to help you or your friend(s) feel at home in the Catholic Church once again, to answer questions, and to explain changes in the church that may have taken place since the participants were last active.

The series of six sessions will be held on Thursday evenings in the St. Elizabeth room starting Oct. 6.

The "Coming Home" team, many themselves Catholics who returned after a long absence, is planning a special program to help you regain direction in your faith, sacramental preparation or just provide support for the journey.

Use the Contact Us feature on the parish web site under Returning Catholics for questions or if you plan to attend or write garyp@smdpyl.org

Moments of Mercy

October 2, 2016 Twenty-seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jubilee of Marian Devotion begins next Saturday "How long, O LORD?" (Habakkuk 1:2). With Habakkuk's question echoing across twenty-six hundred years, Respect Life Sunday finds all life claiming sanctuary in our hearts: unborn infant, senior citizen, immigrant and refugee, imprisoned and addicted, people burdened with illness and disabilities of body, mind, or spirit. Even Mother Earth, Pope Francis notes in Laudato Si', bears scars of disrespect for the life she nurtures and sustains. Life is still threatened, as in Habakkuk's day, with ruin and misery, "destruction and violence, . . . strife and clamorous discord" (see 1:3). Since our efforts so often seem ineffective, we "unprofitable servants" cry with the apostles, "Increase our faith" (Luke 17:10, 5). But Jesus' reply might be paraphrased, "Not quantity—quality." Next weekend marks the Jubilee Year of Mercy's special devotion to Mary, whose willingness to shelter Jesus in her womb and stand at the foot of his cross bears witness to the qualities that Jesus expects our faith to manifest: the willingness to trust, to risk, and to dare to speak up for life.

Annual Day of Prayer for Care of Creation & Feast of Patron, St. Francis

Join us October 4
after the 8am & 6:30pm
Masses

For rosary and prayer. Pope Francis wishes to remind us that Christians are called to "an ecological conversion whereby the effects of their encounter with Jesus Christ becomes evident in their relationship with the world around them." Thus, "living our vocation to be protectors is not an optional or secondary aspect of our Christian experience." (Laudato Si, 217)

Dear Parishioners,

The Catholic Cemeteries is providing a pre-need planning program for Catholic families in Orange County. Family burial arrangements are among the most important and inevitable decision a Catholic must make. Because of the many emotional and financial savings that result by planning these arrangements in advance of need, the Diocese of Orange urges all Catholic families to learn about their burial options. The apostolic and administrative work of Catholic Cemeteries truly reflects the corporal and spiritual works of mercy.

I thank Bishop Brown for his work with Catholic Cemeteries here, it is my turn now to support the efforts of the Catholic Cemeteries and invite you to ask questions about the information you will be provided.

Bishop Kevin Vann
