Our Advent pilgrimage with Jesus, our Savior and Lord

Richard and Danelle Borgman have been missionaries for 34 years, most of which they spent in Africa and Europe. Richard, an Evangelical pastor for 25 years, entered into the Catholic Church with Danelle on February 2, 1999. They belong to the Emmanuel Community and, when not traveling, live with their family in Gainesville, Georgia. They are the parents of Rev. Scott Borgman.

Question:

With Christmas fast approaching, can you give me some practical tips to prepare myself and my family that will help us stay grounded in what this holiday is really about? With all the commercialism, it's easy to stray.

Answer:

Happy times and events bring fond memories and a renewed sense of love and kinship with others. The anticipation is half the joy of the event itself. The coming of the Lord is that kind of event that people have been looking forward to for generations with fervent hope and desire. It gave them strength and courage as they waited for the coming of the Lord.

We know that Christmas is rushed. Sales begin in August and carols blare long before the season begins. Everyone laments the commercial aspects of the season, but as Advent begins, do something to help you be more mindful of the Lord's coming. Use an Advent wreath, or enthrone the Bible prominently, or read the readings from the Bible assigned to each day. Postpone the tree and decorations until closer to Christmas. Establish new family rituals, customs and prayers that help remind everyone that we are preparing to celebrate the birth of Jesus. Fasting, daily Mass, a special celebration of reconciliation, reaching out to those alienated from family or society, and visiting the homebound manifest the love of the Christ Child and the Holy Family. Resist the temptation to rush the season. In his own time and in his own way, God will come. Our task is simply to be watchful and ready.

SERVICE & OUTREACH

SKID ROW MINISTRY WORKING HARD TO FEED AND CLOTHE THE HOMELESS

Participant Testimonial

We were excited to participate, once again, in a LA Skid Row visit 3 weeks ago. It was our first visit in many months and we were shocked that conditions appeared to be worse than ever. We saw more people living on the streets, more garbage, more misery. We were able to help a few dozen with clothing and food, but the need is overwhelming. We are anxious to assist again, while we pray for a permanent solution.

- Deacon Denis and Peggy Zaun

Skid Row Ministry had a great weekend being of service to the folks down on Skid Row. On Saturday, November 13 the ministry met in the Parish Hall with over 50 volunteers. Everyone worked hard and had fun making over 300 sack lunches and organizing and collecting donations. A special thank you to Sunsations Inc. for their generous donation of 300 quarts of Tampico juices. On Sunday we had a caravan of 15 cars and 30 volunteers that made the trip to Skid Row. This was our first time back to Skid Row after almost 2 years. We had 10 first timers with us and after seeing their smiles and tears, compassion and empathy for the people that were living on the streets, we knew we doing the right thing.
