THE EPIPHANY of the Lord

THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD—SUNDAY, JANUARY 2

1st Reading: Is 60:1-6

Rise up in splendor, Jerusalem! Your light has come, the glory of the Lord shines upon you. See, darkness covers the earth, and thick clouds cover the peoples; but upon you the LORD shines, and over you appears his glory. Nations shall walk by your light, and kings by your shining radiance. Raise your eyes and look about; they all gather and come to you: your sons come from afar, and your daughters in the arms of their nurses. Then you shall be radiant at what you see, your heart shall throb and overflow, for the riches of the sea shall be emptied out before you, the wealth of nations shall be brought to you. Caravans of camels shall fill you, dromedaries from Midian and Ephah; all from Sheba shall come bearing gold and frankincense, and proclaiming the praises of the LORD.

2nd Reading: Eph 3:2-3a, 5-6

Brothers and sisters: You have heard of the stewardship of God's grace that was given to me for your benefit, namely, that the mystery was made known to me by revelation. It was not made known to people in other generations as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit: that the Gentiles are coheirs, members of the same body, and copartners in the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel.

Gospel: Mt 2:1-12

When Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, in the days of King Herod, behold, magi from the east arrived in Jerusalem, saying, "Where is the newborn king of the Jews? We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage." When King Herod heard this, he was greatly troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. Assembling all the chief priests and the scribes of the people, He inquired of them where the Christ was to be born. They said to him, "In Bethlehem of Judea, for thus it has been written through the prophet: And you, Bethlehem, land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah; since from you shall come a ruler, who is to shepherd my people Israel." Then Herod called the magi secretly and ascertained from them the time of the star's appearance. He sent them to Bethlehem and said, "Go and search diligently for the child. When you have found him, bring me word, that I too may go and do him homage." After their audience with the king they set out. And behold, the star that they had seen at its rising preceded them, until it came and stopped over the place where the child was. They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary his mother. They prostrated themselves and did him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they departed for their country by another way.

RETURNING CATHOLICS MINI SERIES LEADER NEEDED!

Each Christmas and Easter, we have the opportunity to invite those who have been away from the church to come to a "Returning Catholics" series. We are in need of a couple to LEAD this mini series (4 nights, 1/week) at church that explores the very basics of coming back into the church after being away for a year or a lifetime. Ideally, our facilitators will be inspiring and welcoming and see this opportunity to evangelize as a life-changing, real gift. Day of the week and time to be determined, based on facilitators' availability. The Returning Catholics mini series will hopefully begin in mid-January. Please contact Kirsten King at Kirstenk@smdpyl.org for more information on leading this mini series.

Question: What happens to a consecrated host if it accidentally falls to the ground?

Answer: This a very practical question because, as we all know, accidents happen, even during the most careful celebration of the liturgy. The short answer to this question is that nothing happens to the consecrated host. The Real Presence of Jesus remains in the consecrated host or any consecrated wine that might accidentally be spilled.

Another question we might ask is: How should the ministers respond if the Eucharist is dropped or spilled? If this happens, the priest, deacon, or extraordinary minister of holy Communion should immediately pick up the dropped host and consume it. If it is a case of the Precious Blood being spilled, the minister would use the purificator (and additional purificators if needed) to clean the spill and then the area should be reverently washed as soon as the Mass is over and the water poured into the sacrarium (a special sink that is located in church sacristies for reverently disposing of holy water, the water used to clean sacred vessels, etc.).

LENTEN

STUDY GROUP

Small Christian Communities

This is a busy time of year for everyone as we pause to catch our breath after the celebrations of Christmas and New Year's. As you reflect on all that has transpired in 2021, you may be considering what you can do this year to deepen your spiritual journey. The Small Christian Communities (SCC) ministry will be launching a number of groups that will be meeting during Lent 2022, and we invite you to think about whether this is something you would want to join.

Small Christian Communities provide a comfortable forum for you to reflect on the upcoming Sunday readings and share your ideas with a group of 8-14 other persons. Groups meet in homes on various days/nights of the week. Many of our SCC groups meet throughout the entire year, but we will also have a number of seasonal groups that will just meet for the six weeks of Lent. Ash Wednesday is March 2, so we will have "SCC Sign-Up Sundays" on February 13 and 20 after all the Masses. We will also host a "SCC Information Night" on February 13, following the 5:30pm Mass. This will be an opportunity for you to get more information about Small Christian Communities and consider if you are interested in signing up for a dynamic and faith-filled Lenten experience.

Check out the SMdP bulletins in January and early February for more information on how to sign up for a Lenten SCC Group.

If you are interested in: serving as the facilitator/lead for a Lenten group; hosting a Lenten group in your home; or participating in one of these groups, contact mark.jablonski@stjoe.org or Kristine Jablonski at 714-514-7982. May the New Year bring you growth and peace.

SERVICE & OUTREACH

FIREFIGHTERS OF YORBA LINDA DONATES TO ST. MARTIN OUTREACH CENTER

Deacon Denis received over 1,500 pounds of donated canned goods from the Orange County Fire Authority Yorba Linda and Air Operations Reserve Firefighters for St Martin's Outreach.

A HEARTFELT THANK YOU!

On December 18 & 19, your local representative of Bethlehem Christians brought hand-carved religious articles to St. Martin's. Once again, St. Martin parishioners generously supported their effort to remain in the Holy Land by purchasing unique gifts and hand crafts.

The sale of these olive wood items is their only source of income due to the political situation and lack of tourism, so purchases allow them to improve their lifestyles, promote their indigenous hand crafts, create work, and encourage them to stay in the Holy Land. We are very happy and grateful to Our Lord and to Fr. Sy for making this possible. Thanks also to all clergy and parishioners for supporting the Christian Families living in the Holy Land.

MARY, MOTHER OF US ALL—HERE OUR PRAYERS

O Mary, Mother of Jesus and Mother of us all, we turn to you today as the one who said "Yes" to Life. "You will conceive and bear a Son," the angel told you. Despite the surprise and the uncertainty about how this could be, you said yes. "Be it done unto me according to your word." Mary, we pray today for all mothers who are afraid to be mothers. We pray for those who feel threatened and overwhelmed by their pregnancy. Intercede for them, that God may give them the grace to say "Yes" and the courage to go on. May they have the grace to reject the false solution of abortion. May they say with you, "Be it done unto me according to your word." May they experience the help of Christian people, and know the peace that comes from doing God's will. Amen
