FAREWELL MESSAGE FROM KIRSTEN KING

Thank you St. Martin de Porres, for one of the most enriching experiences of Parish life that I have ever had. A little over a year ago, I joined the SMdP Parish staff as your Director of Faith Formation. Grateful for the opportunity, I was tasked with rebuilding a faith formation staff after many transitions, and re-envisioning what the next generation of Catechesis and faith formation would look like at our parish. We have had a remarkable year, a strong new foundation and faith formation team to build on for years to come. Our mission is centered on Christ, but engages and empowers the entire family. Praise the Lord!

A few months ago, my husband and I began a deep discernment about our own children and family in light of all that is going on in our culture today.

Wrestling with and discerning our ability to live fully within our vocations, we began truly asking the Lord where He was calling us to be to find the most peace. He made it profoundly clear that he was leading us to relocate to Hendersonville, Tennessee after the school year ends. Even though parts of us wanted to bury this prompting given the tremendous loss it will be to leave our local lifelong family and friends and ministries, it became abundantly clear that He was calling us to take a leap of faith. So we have. My time on staff is coming to a close and I just wanted to say thank you for your trust, support, prayers and continual generosity. I will be keeping the entire parish community in my prayers and look forward to hearing about all the good things St. Martin de Porres will be doing in the years to come! I hold the fondest, most joyful memories of this time with all of you and know God's favor rests on all of you! I will be bragging about SMDP to everyone in Tennessee!

Please keep us your prayers, too and I pray someday our paths cross again!
God bless you all!

In Christ's Love,

Kirsten King (Zach, Ryder, Zoe, Kennedy and Nixon too!)

Dear Parishioners,

As my time here at St. Martin de Porres concludes, I am asked for my thoughts on a going-away gift from the parish for me. Since you are the most generous people I know, I will ask for the sky. I am asking you for a gift that is comprehensive and containing in it things that you already know that are close to my heart as a pastor:

- That you dress up for Mass and not come late or leave early
- That you visit our beautiful church throughout the week for brief moments of quiet prayer before the Blessed Sacrament
- That your prayers will always include intentions for vocations to the priesthood and religious life

I am deeply grateful to you for such a meaningful gift.

Father Sy

P.S. It would also be nice to leave knowing that 1000 of you have participated in the PSA appeal this year. Go to rcbo.org/psa to participate.

6TH ANNUAL CORPUS CHRISTI PROCESSION

Join Us in a Parish-Wide Celebration of Our Catholic Faith

NEW DAY
& TIME

SAT, JUNE 18, 2022
AFTER 5:30 PM MASS

St. Martin de Porres Catholic Church | Yorba Linda

Corpus Christi celebrates the actual presence of Christ in the bread and wine. For over 700 years, Catholics have marked this solemnity with a procession of the Most Holy Body of Christ to demonstrate our faith to others and remind us that we are the Body of Christ. Join our procession around the church grounds to continue this tradition!

Ministry members are encouraged to participate in the procession (in ministry attire/shirts, if possible) as a visible reminder that we are the body of Christ. First Communicants (in First Communion attire) are especially encouraged to participate in the procession as a visible sign of our journey to the Eucharist.
