REREDOS ARTWORK FOR MARCH

ANNUNCIATION

Feast—March 25

The Feast of the Annunciation, one of the principal feasts of the Christian church is celebrated on March 25, nine months before Christmas. It is known as the Solemnity of the Annunciation, the Feast of the Incarnation, Conceptio Christi, or Lady Day. It commemorates the visit of the Archangel Gabriel to the Virgin Mary, where he announced that she would conceive a Son by the power of the Holy Spirit to be called Jesus. The angel's announcement is met with Mary's willing consent.

"Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord; let it be done to me according to your word" (Luke 1:38). Through this yes, the Savior of the human race entered the world, and death was defeated.

JOSEPH, HUSBAND OF MARY

Solemnity—March 19

Joseph was the husband of Mary, mother of Jesus. After marrying Mary, he found her already pregnant and "being a righteous man and unwilling to expose her to public disgrace" (Matt 1:19), decided to divorce her quietly, but an angel told him that the child was the Son of God and was conceived by the Holy Spirit. Obeying the angel, Joseph took Mary as his wife.

The Gospels tell us that Joseph was a "just" man, meaning that he was faithful. He was faithful to God and said "yes" to God's plan for him to be Mary's husband and Jesus' foster father. He was faithful to Mary, caring for her while they waited for her baby to be born. He was faithful to Jesus, protecting Him, when he learned of King Herod's plan to kill Him. And when the danger passed, he helped Mary to raise Jesus with love in the small town of Nazareth. We honor St. Joseph on March 19.

FROM OUR PASTOR— Monsignor Stephen Doktorczyk

"Repent, and believe in the Gospel"

Those of us who attended Mass or came to a Liturgy of the Word service on Ash Wednesday would have heard the above words said when the minister imposed ashes on our forehead. The other option is "remember that you are dust and unto dust you shall return." The message contained in both of these formularies is intended to be an aid to the recipient in order that he/she might be guided along and even encouraged during the entire 40 day sacred and penitential period.

While on the one hand we don't want to be pessimistic during Lent, on the other we want to strive to "be perfect as your heavenly Father is perfect," to quote Jesus' words. The Lord uses various ways to purify us, and the season of Lent can be one of those ways if we enter into it fully and with devotion. If our disposition is one of repentance for our sins and a realization that "but for the grace of God go I," we should find ourselves ascending to the mountain of holiness, so to speak. When we take note of organic development in our spiritual lives, we should be grateful to God. But as with everything else in life, if we don't invest ourselves in spiritual practices, we should not expect results. God is not going to force us to grow closer to him and to invite him into our lives.

May the words of St Peter, "Lord, it is good that we are here," be on our lips as we praise the Triune God at Holy Mass today, and may anytime we spend with the Lord call those same words to our mind. Yes, there could be a hundred other activities competing for our time, but spending a reasonable amount of time with the Lord (considering each one's state in life) might be the most fruitful.

I wish you all a blessed second week of Lent!

Msgr. Stephen Doktorczyk

Why I want to be Catholic

We have asked each Candidate and the Elect (previously called Catechumens) to share a few sentences on why they want to become Catholic. Although if you sit with them or talk to them their responses are much more elaborate. Please enjoy reading their responses and allow their "fiat" to inspire you to grow in your appreciation for the great gift of our faith. Journeying alongside these 13 beautiful disciples has been an extraordinary experience as they are preparing for full initiation into our Catholic Church.

I have too many reasons why I want to be Catholic, but the main reason is that I feel closest to God when I am here. I've experienced a lot of encounters that I don't believe are a coincidence and have led me to the RCIA program. I'm thankful to be a part of this all loving community and I look forward to what God has for me next."

Tina Chen

I believe Catholic values align with my morals and that the Catholic faith can be documented from the start. St. Martin de Porres Church has made me feel at home!"

Nichole Bustamonte

I want God to be the center of my marriage."

Ernie Garcia

Life is God's gift to us, and what we do with it is our gift back to God. I'm a realist and have struggled to believe in what I couldn't see, but I've learned that if you can't accept faith, then you live a life dominated by doubt. I'm ready for faith and more ready to give my life to God with an appreciation for what He has given me."

Alex Hernandez

I want to grow my relationship with God and raise my family in the Church. I began attending the Catholic Church with family and was drawn by its truths and how God was moving in my life."

Katie Ledesma

I want to become Catholic for myself, my marriage, and my children. I want to be able to grow my spirituality and lean on God's guidance. It's the process of learning and growing in the faith that I am excited for."

Shelby Gruebele

FAITH FORMATION

I want to become Catholic to strengthen my relationship with my fiancé and with God. I want to spend eternity with my loved ones.

Sean Feazell

I believe in Jesus Christ and that He institutes His Church upon St. Peter."

Christopher Cable

I want to become Catholic because before learning more about the Church's faith, many events happened in my life, and being a part of RCIA, I could see God's kindness and love in my life and others."

Lee Nguyen

I want to become Catholic because I feel in my heart it is the true Church. I will lean on the sacraments to stay on the right path."

Lindsey Hyer

I want to give glory to God, make it to Heaven, and lead those around me to faith."

Brett Weekley

I am convinced of the truth of the Church and its doctrines."

Cole Stefanon

To live the faith through love, practice, and service dedicated to family, community, and fellowship."

Jim Swiney

Throughout the rest of the Lenten Season, there will be baskets at the back of the church with slips of paper with their names on them. Please take one and keep this person in your daily prayers. If you see them at Mass or at church, please welcome them and let them know you are praying for them by name!

May God bless each of these men and women, now and always!

RECYCLING IN MEETING ROOMS

The effort to recycle is not a habit, historically, but we are getting into the routine. The more correctly we do it, the more effectively we minimize landfill emissions. Christian happiness means knowing how to limit some needs/habits which only diminish us, and, being open to the many different possibilities which life can offer.

Keeping all the recycles dry is a big need. If you see a bottle or can with liquid still in it, please empty it. Dry paper can be recycled 5-7 times and then, composted.

The Church's Laudato Si Action Platform offers guidance. Visit: smdpyl.org/careforcreation to explore ideas.

Our next Care for Creation meeting is March 18 at 9am in the St. Matthew Room. More info? careforcreation@smdpyl.org
