STATIONS OF THE CROSS

7:15pm—Fridays of Lent

The Stations of the Cross are a 14-step Catholic devotion that commemorates Jesus Christ's last day on Earth as a man. The 14 devotions, or stations, focus on specific events of His last day, beginning with His condemnation. The stations are commonly used as a mini pilgrimage as the individual moves from station to station. At each station, the individual recalls and meditates on a specific event from Christ's last day. Specific prayers are recited, then the individual moves to the next station until all 14 are complete.

Question:
What can I do to help our family practice our faith each day?

Answer:
Some families practice their religion together as just another event on their schedule: go to church, observe Lent, help at the parish picnic, go to a meeting, volunteer time, make your confession, use your envelope... But the focus needs to be on who we are—God's people, in relationship with him, loved, forgiven, and redeemed, and called to live and proclaim the Gospel. Our awareness of God's presence and our sense of mission are supported by the daily rituals, celebrations, and traditions that help us stay focused. Sharing our faith strengthens us and clarifies the beliefs and values of Christian living.

Daily family practices include time for prayer—before meals, before bed, before important meetings and activities. Attend Sunday Mass together and discuss the homily afterward. Create family celebrations for holy days and holidays. Make religion a regular part of your discussions. Include others, especially the elderly and the less fortunate, in your activities and charitable efforts. By applying the virtues of faith, hope, and love to each day, faith becomes part of who your family is. It influences how you act towards others, what you value, and how mindful of God you are. Faith is the leaven of life that helps all of us rise to our calling and dignity as God's people.

ENHANCE YOUR LENTEN EXPERIENCE. PRAY WITH OUR LORD IN ADORATION!

"Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament has His hands full of graces and He is ready to bestow them on anyone who asks for them"
- St. Peter of Alcantara

Schedule a personal Heart-to-Heart Holy Hour or a Couple's Date Night or a Family Hour of Power in Adoration of the Lord. Time spent adoring the Blessed Sacrament is the best time spent on earth. The Lord will never be outdone in His generosity as it will change your life. He waits for you to come to Him to share your joys and sorrows, to find peace and rest in Him.

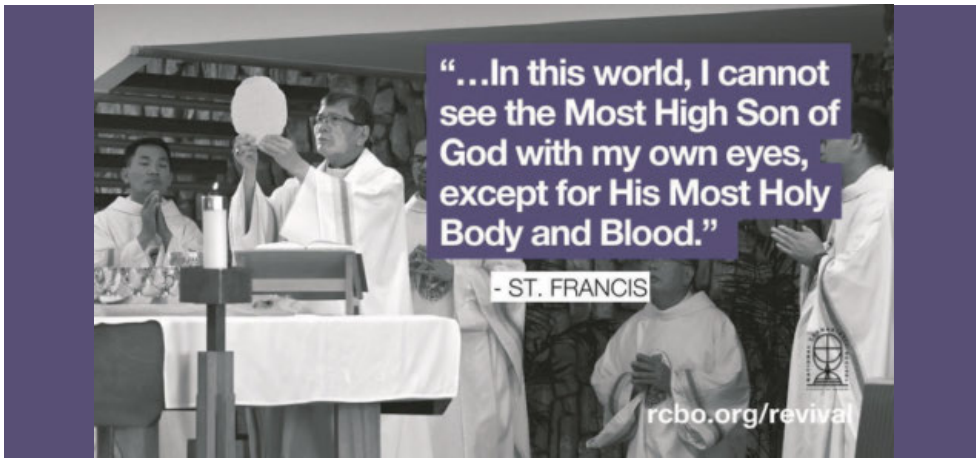
Religious Vocations Holy Hour Thursdays 3pm



From Our Deacon Denis Zaun

The readings for this Sunday are all about light – about seeing and not seeing, about light and darkness, about eyes opened and blindness.

In the 1st Reading, Samuel sees the sons of Jesse, but does not see them fully as he looks only at their outward appearance. The Lord instead looks "into the heart" and sees a king in the youngest son, David.

Saint Paul, in the 2nd Reading, says that Christians are not only in the light, but that they are light itself. That relates to Matthew 5, when Jesus addresses to His disciples, "You are the light of the world."

In today's gospel from John, Jesus opens the eyes of a man blind from birth. The Jewish leadership assumes this blindness is the result of his sin, or the sins of his parents, but Jesus strongly rejects this thinking. When Jesus tells the blind man that he has seen the Son of Man, Jesus is speaking both physically and spiritually. The man born blind now sees Jesus with his eyes, but also sees the spiritual truth of who Jesus really is.

Let us be like the man born blind who is healed by Jesus and then proclaims that healing to our community. He testifies that Jesus is the light of the world, and that we, as Baptized Christians, are called to be light and make God visible in the world to others. May we be the hands and feet and voices of God to those struggling around us.

FEAST OF DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

April 16, 2023 | Holy Hour 3:00 - 4:00 pm

Livestreamed on parish YouTube Channel

Eucharistic Adoration, Benediction, Divine Mercy Chaplet
and Veneration of St. Faustina Relic

Divine Mercy Sunday was established by St. Pope John Paul II in the year 2000.

- Free 8 x 10 Blessed image of Divine Mercy
- Refreshments will be served following the Holy Hour

St. Faustina recorded Jesus' promise in her diary. "I want to grant a complete pardon to the souls who go to Confession and receive Holy Communion on the Feast of My Mercy" (Diary 1109). . . "Complete forgiveness of sins and punishment" (Diary 699).

How do we prepare as a parish to celebrate this Feast?

Pray the 9-Day Divine Mercy Novena. It begins Good Friday, April 7, and ends April 15. This powerful 5 minute prayer given to St. Faustina by Jesus to pray for God's Mercy, is most powerful when prayed at the 3:00 pm Hour of Mercy. We pray it in the church daily at 3:00 pm. You can also pray at home with your family. Jesus asks us to pray the Chaplet for the sick, the suffering, and the dying. You will find Divine Mercy prayer brochures in the Church vestibule.

Make the Sacrament of Reconciliation on Tuesday, April 11 at 7:00 pm, Saturday, April 15 at 4:00 pm, or some time near the Feast Day.

Attend Mass on Divine Mercy Sunday, receive Holy Communion, pray for the Pope's intentions and perform a Spiritual or Corporal Work of Mercy

Attend Eucharistic Adoration at 3:00 pm Holy Hour on Divine Mercy Sunday, April 16 at St. Martin de Porres!

Receive a Plenary Indulgence (remission of temporal punishment due to confessed sin) on this great Feast.

Visitation of Seven Churches

After the Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday, the Eucharist is placed at a temporary "altar of repose" for the faithful to spend time in quiet prayer and adoration. The revised Roman Missal now permits adoration until early Good Friday morning.

The Seven Churches Visitation corresponds to each of the seven places, or "stations," that were made by Jesus between the events of the Last Supper in the Upper Room to His crucifixion on the cross. This tradition of mindful watching is a sort of pilgrimage to various altars of repose, in different churches, recalling when Jesus asked His disciples to stay and watch with Him while they were in the garden.

The seven stations consist of:

1. Jesus in the Garden of Gethsemane (Luke 22: 39-46),
2. Jesus bound and taken before Annas (John 18: 19-22),
3. Jesus taken before the High Priest, Caiaphas (Matthew 26: 63-65),
4. Jesus taken before Pilate (John 18, 35-37),
5. Jesus taken before Herod (Luke 23: 8-9; 11),
6. Jesus taken before Pilate again (Matthew 27: 22-26)
7. Jesus given the crown of thorns and led to his crucifixion (Matthew 27: 27-31).

This devotion can be traced back to the Station Churches of Rome, where the tradition is still practiced, as well as by Catholics around the world, especially in Poland, Mexico, Italy and the Philippines.

Upon entering each church, pilgrims visit the altar of repose, kneel, make the sign of the cross, read the appropriate scripture for each station and engage in private prayer and adoration. Some may add other prayers as well. At the seventh station, pilgrims may opt to observe a Holy Hour to conclude their journey. No music or spoken prayer is included to facilitate personal prayer and adoration.

A schedule of participating parishes, to include St. Martin de Porres, will be provided by the Diocese in the coming weeks. Parishioners are invited to make their own spiritual pilgrimages during this time to delve deeper into the Paschal Triduum.

Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Not As Man Sees

I don't know Fr. Stu personally, but I've heard a fair number of his homilies. I think it is safe to assume that if he and I were to get into a discussion on any number of things, from church history to liturgical music to stand-up comedy, each of us would cringe at the opinions of the other.

But Fr. Stu happens to offer just about the only confession time within 20 miles of me that consistently works with my schedule. That means that, quite by accident, Fr. Stu is my regular confessor. For years now, he's sat patiently on the other side of the grille, listening to me pour out the details of my transgressions, from the pathetic to the embarrassing, and he absolves me of my sins.

In the Gospel, Christ links vision with humility and pride with blindness. We see again and again in Scripture how God delights in surprising us, in revealing himself through people, places, and experiences we not only didn't expect but perhaps had totally written off.

We are right to be proud of the truth, but we are wrong if the truth causes us to be proud of ourselves. The truth no more belongs to the one who believes it than sight belongs to the blind man in the Gospel. A gift does not reflect on the recipient. It reflects on the giver.

After a great deal of thought, I've decided to be grateful that God contrived to give me a confessor whom I strongly disagree with on so many things. It's a powerful reminder of how much I must receive from other people, even those I may think are wrong. In that confessional, Fr. Stu is only a priest, and I am only a sinner.

"Not as man sees does God see."
— 1 Samuel 16:7
