NO 6:30PM MASS ON MONDAY, APRIL 3

There will not be an evening Mass at St. Martin's on April 3, 2023, so our priests can attend the Chrism Mass at Christ Cathedral.

ARE YOU VISITING SEVEN CHURCHES THIS YEAR?

The Paschal Triduum—the Lord's Supper, Death, and Resurrection—is the holiest time in our church year. This year, consider deepening your personal experience by joining fellow Catholics across the Diocese in the Visitation of Seven Churches on Holy Thursday, April 6. Following in the practice of ancient pilgrims, journey to seven participating churches in our local diocese to adore the Blessed Sacrament on seven distinct altars during the night. The participating churches will be open to guests from the conclusion of the Holy Thursday Mass until 6:30am on Good Friday.

Visit: www.rcbo.org/visitation/ or our Parish Website, for participating churches, addresses, and the location of their Altar of Repose.

FROM OUR DEACON MARK MURPHY

Do you remember a time in your life when you were on top of the world? When you got the part in the school play, hit the winning home run, were accepted into your first-choice college, were awarded the big promotion at work? A time when the world applauded you, respected you, held you in high esteem? These are often our fondest memories, affectionately referred to as "the good ole' days."

We all seek the admiration (or at a bare minimum, the acceptance) of others. We are communal by our nature and it is very normal to want to belong. Sometimes, this normal need can become an obsession. Our desire to be loved, admired, recognized, and applauded can drive us in unhealthy ways. In extremes, we may even sell out our true self in exchange for an image that is esteemed by society.

Palm Sunday, more than any other day in the liturgical year, provides us with a most striking contrast. At the beginning of the liturgy, Jesus is riding triumphantly into Jerusalem among shouts of praise and symbols of homage. And by the end of the Liturgy of the Word, He is hanging, naked and dead, on a cross in utter rejection by the people. From glory to grave in an instant.

How do you suppose Jesus held the people's praise during his triumphant entry into Jerusalem? Do you think it lit Him up, got Him excited, made Him feel like He had "arrived," or in any way, "defined Him?" Or do you think His eyes remained firmly on the Father throughout all the adulation, allowing those around Him to do what they must, but never losing sight of His real identity?

Holy Week is a sacred time to contemplate what drives us, where our eyes are focused. May the noise of the world and all its allurements be calmed this week. May we walk with Jesus, from glory to grave to glory with our eyes focused with His on Abba, the true Source of our identity and all that is good about us. May you have a Most Blessed Holy Week!

PRAY WITH OUR LORD IN ADORATION!

"Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament has His hands full of graces and He is ready to bestow them on anyone who asks for them"

FEAST OF DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

April 16, 2023 | Holy Hour 3:00 - 4:00 pm

Livestreamed on parish YouTube Channel

Eucharistic Adoration, Benediction, Divine Mercy Chaplet
and Veneration of St. Faustina Relic

Divine Mercy Sunday was established by St. Pope John Paul II in the year 2000.

- Free 8" x 10" Blessed image of Divine Mercy will be available
- Refreshments will be served following the Holy Hour

St. Faustina recorded Jesus' promise in her diary. "I want to grant a complete pardon to the souls who go to Confession and receive Holy Communion on the Feast of My Mercy" (Diary 1109). . . "Complete forgiveness of sins and punishment" (Diary 699).

How do we prepare as a parish to celebrate this Feast?

Pray the 9-Day Divine Mercy Novena. It begins Good Friday, April 7, and ends April 15. This powerful 5 minute prayer given to St. Faustina by Jesus to pray for God's Mercy, is most powerful when prayed at the 3:00 pm Hour of Mercy. We pray it in the church daily at 3:00 pm. You can also pray at home with your family. Jesus asks us to pray the Chaplet for the sick, the suffering, and the dying. You will find Divine Mercy prayer brochures in the Church vestibule.

Make the Sacrament of Reconciliation on Tuesday, April 11 at 7:15 pm, Saturday, April 15 at 4:00 pm, or some time near the Feast Day.

Attend Mass on Divine Mercy Sunday, receive Holy Communion, pray for the Pope's intentions and perform a Spiritual or Corporal Work of Mercy

Attend Eucharistic Adoration at 3:00 pm Holy Hour on Divine Mercy Sunday, April 16 at St. Martin de Porres!

Receive a Plenary Indulgence (remission before God of the temporal punishment due to sins whose guilt has already been forgiven) on this great Feast.

Jesus, I trust in You!

PRAY for VOCATIONS

“Almighty God, Life is Your gift to us. You invite us to share this life in love and service to others. Inspire us to show your presence in the world each day. Give us courage and generosity to respond to Your love, to Your call to work in Your Vineyard harvesting souls for Heaven. I pray especially for priests, deacons, sisters, brothers and lay persons who work daily to witness Your Gospel to the world. Keep them close to you always. Open the minds and hearts of many other laborers to accept your invitation to build up the Kingdom of God. Amen.”

Our parish dedicates the 3rd of each month to pray for Clergy & all Religious Vocations. Please join us on Monday, April 3 after the 8am and before 6:30pm Mass, as we unite in prayer. We dedicate the Rosary intentions for this crucial need. We are blessed with those below in formation from our Parish.

MINISTRY TO THE SICK & HOMEBOUND

Have you noticed the people that go up at the end of Mass and pick up the shiny containers (pyx), then leave early? These people are Ministers to the Sick and Homebound. They have the special privilege of sharing the Word of God and bringing Holy Communion to those who are homebound and are not able to attend Sunday Mass. If you would like more information or if you want to join the ministry please call Carlyn and David Moreno 714-381-0129.

ST. MARTIN DE PORRES INSPIRATIONAL CATHOLIC WOMAN NOMINEES

Our honorees this year are Irma Saba and Pat Wong, faith filled women who serve our parish community with joy and compassion.

Those desiring to attend as part of a larger group of St. Martin parishioners should purchase your ticket by Monday, April 3, in the Parish Office. You may scan the QR code below to register for the event. Admission to the April 28, 2023 event is $150 per person and will begin at 5pm in the arboretum on the campus of Christ Cathedral and will include a silent auction and dinner.

LEGACY COURTYARD

Want to remember a loved one who passed away? A special occasion (wedding or other sacraments, etc) or just be part of the parish forever? Order your brick in the Legacy Courtyard; they'd make a great Easter gift! Forms available on smdpyl.org/bricks or in the Parish Office.

THE SHROUD OF TURIN—BACK FOR HOLY WEEK

The Shroud of Turin is a length of linen cloth bearing the negative image of Jesus of Nazareth, the burial shroud in which he was wrapped after crucifixion. The Gospels of Matthew, Mark, and Luke state that Joseph of Arimathea wrapped the body of Jesus in a piece of linen cloth and placed it in a new tomb.

The original shroud is rectangular, measuring approximately 14 ft 5 in × 3 ft 7 in. The cloth is woven in a three-to-one herringbone twill composed of flax fibrils.

The image on the shroud is much clearer in a black and white photographic negative—first observed in 1898 by photographer Secondo Pia—than in its natural sepia color. The original shroud has been kept in the royal chapel of the Cathedral of Turin, in northern Italy, since 1578. A variety of methods have been proposed for the formation of the image, but the actual method used has not yet been conclusively identified. The shroud continues to be intensely studied and remains a controversial issue among some scientists and biblical scholars. To read an article recently written on this topic, please visit: ncregister.com/interview/holy-shroud-of-turin-s-authenticity-can-no-longer-be-disputed-expert-asserts

For your individual contemplation, life-size replicas of the Shroud of Turin will be displayed in St Martin's during Holy Week.

One of Ten Women Recognized Who Paved the Way in OC Politics— Tara Campbell

St. Martin de Porres parishioner Tara Campbell has been recognized as one of ten women who paved the way in Orange County politics. Tara also made history in 2019 when she became the youngest female mayor in state history at the age of 25, and two years earlier at 23 became the youngest person to be elected to the City Council. Campbell indicated “She is proud to be a woman in elected office, and she hopes her election will help spur other women to put themselves out there to run.”

St. Martin’s is proud to congratulate Tara in her accomplishments.

NEWS FROM RESPECT LIFE

On June 24, 2022, Roe v Wade was overturned by the Supreme Court of the United States, ending 50 years of Federal Abortion "rights," consequently returning that decision to individual states. There was significant backlash around the country against this decision, much of which was directed at Pregnancy Resource Centers. Live Action News reported that pro-life pregnancy resource centers (PRC's), churches and political offices were targeted by terrorists, most suggested by the pro-abortion domestic terrorist group, Jane's Revenge.

Governor Newsom and Attorney General Bonta, of California, declared California an "Abortion Sanctuary State." In his October 2022 Newsletter, A.G. Bonta wrote that he launched a California Reproductive Rights Task Force to "protect and expand access to abortion and other reproductive healthcare." Bonta's Task Force has 15 founding members made up of D.A's and attorneys from across the state. He listed 5 areas in which they will use their "enforcement powers." Among those is "prosecuting crimes of intimidation and harassment at abortion clinics" and "enforcing consumer protection laws against deceptive or unlawful conduct concerning reproductive healthcare." At the end of this newsletter, he also issued a "consumer alert warning Californians seeking reproductive health services about the limited and potentially misleading nature of the services provided by crisis pregnancy centers" and emphasized "health apps' obligations under CA law to protect and secure reproductive health information."

On January 26, 2023, Assembly Member Bauer-Kahan, introduced Assembly Bill No.315. According to Jeanne Mancini, President of California March for Life (marchforlifeaction.org), AB315 would "empower pro-abortion activists to sue life-affirming pregnancy care centers for speech they deem to be allegedly 'false or misleading.'" There are over 160 PRCs in CA that provide "critical services to vulnerable pregnant women in need, including free ultrasounds, free pregnancy tests, parenting and prenatal education classes, and material assistance." The L.A. Office of Life, Justice, & Peace recently encouraged all California Catholics to fight this bill by contacting their representatives in the California Legislature.
