FROM OUR FATHER
NICOLAUS
THAI

The fifty days of the Easter season, from Easter Sunday (its full title is "Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord") to Pentecost, especially the first eight days of this liturgical time (which are called "Easter Octave"), invite Catholics, once again, through the readings at Mass, to take the roles of the remaining disciples of Jesus in the experience of the objective, earth-shattering, once-in-history reality of Jesus' Resurrection from the Dead, His victory over death and sins, His Ascension, (all these events are called "Paschal Mystery") and the Holy Spirit's arrival onto the first Christian community, and the hopeful implications of all these history-changing events in history of mankind. (My apology for a very long sentence.) Christ's Paschal Mystery truly introduces a new reality into mankind's history, i.e., not only there are more to this life on earth but also there are more specific possibilities to the existence after human death. Therefore, sequential followed-up efforts in the practice of spiritual life, not just on Easter Sunday, and especially in the life of communal worship, can open to and provide many opportunities leading to deeper understanding of these historical events and their implications. It also then expands our vision of living our lives and reminds us of the need to let this vision affect positively and hopefully how and why we continue our endeavor to be His disciples. Christ is risen! Truly He is risen!

Question:

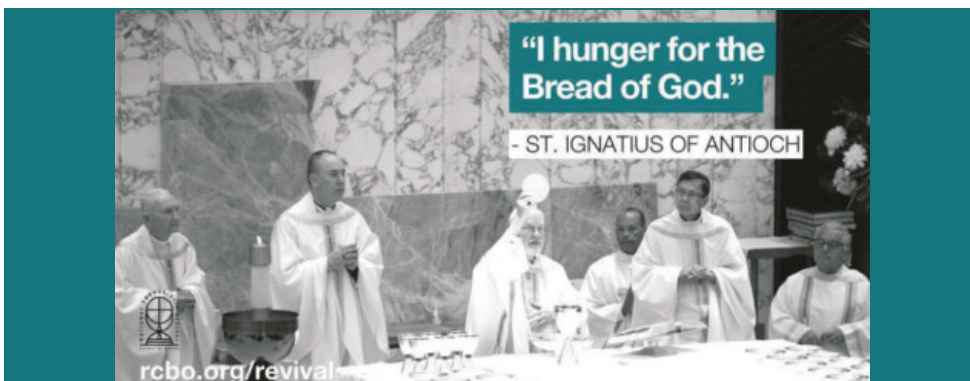

Do children need to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation before their First Communion?

Answer:

For centuries the Catholic Church has taught that a person needs to be in a state of grace (free from mortal sins) in order to worthily receive the Eucharist. To that end, Catholics should make an effort to celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation any time they recognize the need for the sacrament (and in keeping with the precept of the Church that asks that we celebrate this sacrament at least once each year).

In the case of children preparing for their First Communion, the Code of Canon Law is very clear that they should also celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation before receiving the Eucharist for the first time: "It is the responsibility, in the first place, of parents and those who take the place of parents as well as of the pastor to see that children who have reached the use of reason are correctly prepared and are nourished by the divine food as early as possible, preceded by sacramental confession" (Canon 914).

While some might question the significance of the Sacrament of Reconciliation — especially in the case of children who might not fully understand the reality of sin or the meaning of the sacrament itself — a child's "First Confession" can be a wonderful time for families to reflect together on the quality of their relationships, how they put their faith into practice, and, when it is possible, to celebrate the sacrament as a family. In the end, the celebration of these two sacraments marks important moments in the spiritual journeys of children and we hope their "First Confession" and "First Communion" help instill in them a love of the sacraments of the Church. ©LPi

RESET

Easter is associated with new life, rebirth, and renewal. Let these invigorate us to assume personal responsibility for the human activities that affect the state of the environment. Let Easter be a spiritual and cultural transformation. Let it be a shift of consciousness and then a change to some habits (like keeping plastic bags/ wraps, drink pouches, and pizza boxes out of our recycle bins).

NEWS FROM RESPECT LIFE

At this Easter time we celebrate the 321 pre-born babies confirmed to have been saved during the 2023, 40 Days for Life (40DFL) world-wide spring campaign (Feb. 22 - April 2). Since the first campaign in 2007, 40DFL vigils have expanded to 64 nations, 1000 cities, 20,000 churches, 1,000,000 volunteers and 9,207 local campaigns. According to their website (40daysforlife.com), since 2007, there have been 22,855 confirmed lives saved, 247 abortion workers quit, and 136 abortion centers closed. Parents of these "saved" babies have remarkable stories about how the encounter with and/or seeing vigil participants praying outside the abortion centers gave them hope and helped convert their hearts away from abortion.

In 2011, a woman named Rosa made a pre-natal visit to her doctor. She was told that her baby was severely handicapped and that with her recent diabetes diagnosis, it would be risky for her to carry this baby to term. This same doctor said abortion would be the best choice for her. Another medical expert described her baby as a "monster" (Day 41 publication of 40DFL Fall 2017). In addition, she and her husband had several children and were currently facing financial difficulties. Reluctantly, she finally made an appointment at the Planned Parenthood on Tustin Ave. in Orange. As she approached the facility, she prayed for some sign that she should cancel the appointment. Then she saw vigil participants praying on the sidewalk. One of them, Alejandra, motioned to her and she stopped and talked to her. Alejandra offered to take her to a pro-life doctor and to continue supporting her throughout her pregnancy. Rosa's baby girl was born without legs and had a cleft palate that required multiple surgeries. She and her husband named their baby: "Milagro" (Spanish for "miracle").

In 2017, Milagro's story was featured in the spring campaign bus tour across the U.S. with her image featured on the side of the bus. She and her family were special guests at the West Coast Gala in Marina del Rey, California. When Milagro was introduced to attendees, she displayed her beautiful smile and was applauded with a "thunderous ovation." She is now 12 years old, attends a local school and continues to bring joy to those around her. She is a reminder of how important our prayerful, peaceful presence is in saving precious lives around us.
