FROM OUR PASTOR MSGR. STEPHEN DOKTORCZYK

Dear Friends in Christ,

July 25 marks the 55th anniversary of Pope Paul VI's encyclical (official letter directed to the entire body of Christ) Humanae vitae (on human life). It reaffirmed the Church's constant teaching on the regulation of births and is likely the most misunderstood and controversial papal document of the twentieth century. The pope had appointed a commission to study the issue of whether the Church should change its teaching on the regulation of births (specifically, by the use of contraception) and the encyclical came to be after the commission provided its conclusions, which didn't mirror entirely what is found in the encyclical. Much dissent spawned confusion among even active Catholics, and, though he would spend another ten years as Successor to Peter, he did not pen another encyclical during that time. With the passage of time, Humanae vitae has proven to be prophetic, teaching the truth. In presenting the encyclical, the pope cautioned against four main problems that would arise if Church teaching on the regulation of births was ignored. The pope warned:

1. that widespread use of contraception would lead to "conjugal infidelity and the general lowering of morality." This has happened.
2. that some or many men would lose respect for women and "no longer care for her physical and psychological equilibrium" to the point that he would consider her "as a mere instrument of selfish enjoyment, and no longer as his respected and beloved companion."
3. that widespread use of contraception would place a "dangerous weapon in the hands of those public authorities who take no heed of moral exigencies." We can see that population control policies have been an accepted part of many foreign aid discussions.
4. that it would mislead human beings into thinking that they had unlimited dominion over their own bodies, while turning the human person into the object of his or her own intrusive power.

St. Martin de Porres parish has benefited from having a couple, Greg and Peggy Leger, available to teach Natural Family Planning, which offers couples a means of regulating family size. It is not contraception, but a method of fertility awareness and appreciation. It is an entirely different approach to regulating birth, as it does not attack fertility, does not withhold the gift of oneself from one's spouse, and does not block the procreative nature of intercourse. It permits couples to be faithful to their marriage covenant, which requires that each act of intercourse be fully an act of self-giving and therefore open to the possibility of new life.

But when, for a good reason or reasons, a husband and wife limit their intercourse to the wife's natural periods of infertility during a month, they are: simply observing a cycle which God Himself created in the woman. They are not subverting it; they are living within the law of God's love.

There are many wonderful benefits to the practice of NFP. The wife preserves herself from intrusive chemicals or devices and remains true to her natural cycle. The husband shares in the planning and responsibility for NFP. Both learn a greater degree of self-mastery and a deeper respect for each other.

It's true that NFP involves abstinence. But any Christian life involves sacrifice, married, single, or ordained. Periodic abstinence in fact helps keep the relationship: balanced, healthy, and focused – and helps the couple reflect upon whether they are being attentive to the needs of his/her spouse.

The experience of tens and tens of thousands of couples has shown that NFP deepens and enriches marriage and results in greater intimacy – and greater joy. The Couple to Couple League offers online classes and a self-paced course, which makes learning NFP convenient. See <https://ccli.org/> to learn more. The Legers are also happy to answer questions and assist couples. They may be reached at greg.peg33@gmail.com or (719) 291-3426.

Wishing you all a blessed Summer,

Monsignor Stephen Doktorczyk

FAREWELL MESSAGE FROM FAUSTINA TRAN

Thirteen years ago, my family moved to the Land of the Gracious living for a better life. My family and I started to get involved in different ministries like Skid Row, Fish Fry Deliveries, Game Booth Captains at Oktoberfest, Childcare & Sunday School and much more. As a teen I would often help at childcare with my family, Sunday School, and Children Liturgy of the Word not knowing that a couple years later I would be managing all of these Sunday Programs myself.

I am so blessed to have worked as a staff member at St. Martin de Porres as your Sunday School and Childcare Coordinator. Last summer, I started seriously discerning whether I've been called to the religious life. I made a commitment to attend daily Mass, go to Adoration, pray the rosary, and many other good spiritual habits.

With great sadness and joy, I am resigning from my position because God is calling me to the religious life to become a nun. Next Sunday, I will be entering the Lovers of the Holy Cross of Los Angeles Convent in Whittier. So, today is officially my last day as a staff member. There was this running joke within the CFF office that I would only quit my job if God calls me to become a religious sister. That dream became a reality when I went on a Come & See Retreat with the Lovers of the Holy Cross Sisters some weeks ago. On the third day (of the retreat), Jesus proposed to me. And with the courage from the Holy Spirit, I said yes.

You may be wondering if I am ready to let go of everything? Of course, it will be difficult and lots of sacrifices, but I have put my trust in Jesus to care for everything and everyone. I was shocked that everything was happening so fast, and I don't want to let go of my beloved parish. But it is in all in God's perfect time when He calls me to become a bride of Christ. And the time is now.

I'm going to miss St. Martin de Porres, my home parish so dearly and all the wonderful Holy people I have met and who have helped me discern my vocation and grow in my faith.

I hope this message will touch the hearts of the young people that religious life is a calling from God and one of the paths to holiness. And that it may give you the courage to say yes to God's dream as I did on that retreat.

Please pray for me and my family as I will always keep you all in my prayers. And if I don't see you soon, I hope and pray that I will see you all in Heaven.

Jesus, I Trust in You,
Faustina Tran
