24TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Peter approached Jesus and asked him, "Lord, if my brother sins against me, how often must I forgive? As many as seven times?" Jesus answered, "I say to you, not seven times but seventy-seven times." - Mt 18:21-22

FROM OUR DEACON NICK SHERG

My wife, Lisa, and I have been married for a little over 37 years. As you can imagine, there have been many times (way more than 77!) that I have had to humble myself and ask her forgiveness in most areas of our married life. I know that there have been many times that I have hurt her and know that it's only through the grace that God, who shows her mercy, that she is able, in turn, to show mercy to me.

The same can be said in my relationship with God. How many times have I gone to confession (more than 77 times?) seeking forgiveness from my Father who I trust will have incredible mercy on me? Jesus' answer to Peter in today's Gospel is that we cannot set limits on mercy or forgiveness, and that we must forgive without limit. In fact, Jesus' last act on earth was that of praying for forgiveness of those who were crucifying Him (Luke 23:34) – that is without limit.

Next month, we have an opportunity to know that limitless mercy and forgiving love through an amazing event being sponsored by the Diocese called "I AM." This encounter invites us all to gather in anticipation of the nearness of God in an amazing way – to deepen our relationship with Him through powerful speakers, transformative prayer, and Sacramental celebrations and to be able to meet Him in the reality of His Presence. His presence in our life is what strengthens us to pray for the grace to forgive others and, even more so, seek His forgiveness in our own life. More information is available on our website. I hope to see you there!

God Bless
Deacon Nick
