FROM OUR DEACON DENIS ZAUN

Dear Friends,

We have all been invited to attend big, beautiful weddings and lavish wedding receptions, and enjoyed seeing wonderful young couples make the ultimate commitment to each other and enjoyed good food and the company of good friends. Today's gospel reading from Matthew presents a wedding fit for a king. However, in this parable, the grand wedding banquet illustrates the Kingdom of God.

The king sends out invitations to the feast symbolizing God's invitation to all people to enter His kingdom. God first invites the Jewish people: in salvation history God addresses Himself first to the Israelites and then to the Gentiles. However, some guests ignore or mistreat the invitation, reflecting those who reject God's salvation. The king invites others, including the Gentiles, both the good and the bad, emphasizing the kingdom is open to all who accept the invitation with sincere hearts.

The wedding garment signifies the disposition a person needs for entering the Kingdom of Heaven. Even though one belongs to the Church, if he or she does not have the proper disposition, they will be condemned on the day of God's judgement.

The parable concludes with a reminder that, "For many are called, few are chosen", highlighting the importance of responding to God's invitation with faith and righteousness.

These final words of this gospel do not conflict with God's will that all should be saved. In His love for men and women, Christ patiently seeks the conversion of every single soul, going so far as to die on the cross for us.

In His love,
Deacon Denis

Reredos Artwork for October

St. Therese of Lisieux

Feast Day—October 1

St. Therese of Lisieux, also called St. Therese of the Child Jesus or The Little Flower. Original name, Marie Francois Therese Martin. Therese was the youngest of nine children, five of whom survived childhood. All four of her elder sister became nuns and at the age of 15, she entered the Carmelite convent at Lisieux, having been refused admission a year earlier. St. Therese contracted tuberculosis and during her confinement to the infirmary at Carmel she spent her time writing out her life story at the request of the Prioress. The manuscript eventually became part of the book, "Story of a Soul." She died at the age of 24, believing that her life was really just beginning for God, promising to spend her heaven doing good on earth. Her promised "Shower of Roses" began at her death and has become a torrent in the church ever since.

She was canonized by Pope Pius XI on May 17, 1925 and was declared a Doctor of the Church on October 19, 1997 by St. John Paul II. St. Therese, Pray for us!

St. Pope John Paul II

Feast Day—October 22

Pope John Paul II, born Karol Josef Wojtyla and was the head of the Catholic Church & Sovereign of the Vatican City State from 1978 until his death in 2005. Born in Poland, he was the first non-Italian pope (in 455 years), since Adrian VI in the 16th century and the second longest serving Pope in modern history after Pius IX. His papacy was marked by his firm and unwavering opposition to communism, as well as abortion, contraception, capital punishment & homosexual sex. He actively promoted the devotion to Divine Mercy and officially designated the second Sunday of Easter as Divine Mercy Sunday. He died April 2, 2005 on the vigil of Divine Mercy Sunday, and was beatified on May 1, 2011, Divine Mercy Sunday, by Pope Benedict XVI. He was canonized together with Pope John XXIII on April 27, 2014, (again on Divine Mercy Sunday), by Pope Francis. His motto was Totus Tuus ('Totally Yours'). Pope Saint John Paul II, pray for us!

GOSPEL OF JOHN PRESENTATION

Please join us on Wednesday night, October 25, from 7:15 pm to 9 in the Parish Hall for an evening with three Gospel of John presentations from Deacon Candidates Jim Carter, Bob Martin, and George Haddad.

- Explore the hidden meaning of the 7 signs, the wedding at Cana, and the encounter with the woman at the well.
- Delve into the profound and difficult words of the Bread of Life discourse, examining Jesus' words on consuming his flesh and blood.
- Reflect on the powerful build-up and meaning of "The hour has come," deepening our understanding of Christ's passion, death, and resurrection.

Dear St. Martin de Porres Community:

Another Oktoberfest is behind us. It would be quite difficult for me to adequately express my profound gratitude to all of those who were involved. Most everyone sees his or her involvement as a labor of love, a way to build community and share each one's talents for the betterment of all. Not a few sacrifices were made by the core team, chair persons and captains. Many others worked very hard—those covering the food booths and grills, selling tickets, working the beer garden and game booths. Moreover, there was little to no drama witnessed on campus. Praise God! Thanks also to those who attended and those who permitted themselves to be inconvenienced due to a reduction of available parking. I've said on numerous occasions that it would take a parish at least two to three decades to be able to offer a parish fiesta that brings the community together so well and raises funds for other parish activities. What St. Martin's is able to offer is very impressive and reflective of the dedication and good will of so many parishioners and others who enthusiastically volunteer. Please accept my gratitude for a job well done!

Pastor
