FROM OUR DEACON MARK MURPHY

Six years ago, on October 29, 2017, I had the honor of preaching my first homily on today's three readings. Our diaconate class was supposed to be ordained two weeks earlier and preach on the young man getting thrown out of the wedding feast for not having the right garment, "where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth." Tough way to start a preaching career. When our ordination was delayed two weeks due to a conflict in Bishop Vann's calendar, the new readings were today's: Love God and Love one another. Whew, I thought – Thank you Lord!

I remember wondering initially what exactly Jesus meant when He said, "the whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments?" When Moses "lays down the law," do we hear God as stern or controlling? When the prophets urge "repentance," is that a sign of God's frustration with us? How do these depend on love?

Consider an example. Out of my ineffable affection for my grandchildren, I might lay down the law that they are to play in the yard and "shalt not" go into the street. And Grammy may play the role of prophet, reminding them of this law. But neither the law nor the prophet would be necessary in the absence of love. The law and the prophets exist to hold God's affection for us, like the envelope for His love letter.

In a world that fiercely glorifies individualism, we often find ourselves resistant to boundaries. Guidance with reminders can feel restrictive. However, as followers of Christ, we recognize that these boundaries are drawn for our sake. Every word, every directive from God emerges from His immeasurable love for us; a love so profound, it withholds nothing, as the crucifix reveals.

One of my great joys of being God's Deacon at St. Martin's for the last six years is encouraging you to receive that love completely, to experience it deeply, and to reciprocate it with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind, so that it may overflow to others, who desperately need it.

In Christ,

Deacon Mark

"Therefore a man shall leave his father and his mother and hold fast to his wife, and they shall become one flesh." ..

- Genesis 2:24

Dear parishioners,

Annually, parishes in the Diocese of Orange provide a financial report so that parishioners are made aware of the health of their parish. In this regard, I am happy to report that St. Martin de Porres Catholic Church is solvent, thanks in large part to your generosity throughout the years. We are all blessed that St. Martin's is able to offer: seventeen scheduled Masses each week, several hours of confessions per week, sixty-one functioning ministries, significant help to the poor, solid religious education of youth and adults, a thriving Us In The Son camp, Oktoberfest, a clean and safe campus and other ministries.

I invite you to look at this report, which I am confident reflects the financial state of the parish year ending June 30, 2023. Our Sunday Collections (offertory) continue to be strong as parishioners convert from traditional giving to electronic giving. As you review the report, you will notice that the yearly Pastoral Services Appeal (PSA) income is lower but there is still time for you to contribute to this program. Your continued generosity has enabled us to complete several facility improvements.

I humbly ask you to continue your generous support with your time, talent and treasure so that the parish continues to thrive and offer each parishioner support for their individual faith journey this year and, in the decades to come.

I take this opportunity to thank the parishioners and parish staff for their continued support and generosity. May God richly bless all parishioners and their families.

Monsignor Stephen S. Doktorczyk
Pastor

CONSIDER ONLINE GIVING

"You shall remember the LORD your God, for it is he who gives you power to get wealth." (Deuteronomy 8:18)

God gives us the blessing of being able to work, earn, save, spend, and accumulate wealth. We do this for our children. We do this for our community. We do this for ourselves. However, we also do it to honor God as faithful stewards and we joyfully worship God each Sunday by giving back to Him from what we have earned, so that the church can do meaningful work for God's kingdom in the world.

NEWS FROM RESPECT LIFE

(Part 2 of a two-part article) (See October 22, 2023 bulletin for Part 1)

The Abortion Pill Reversal (APR) was developed by Knights of Columbus Sir Knight, George Delgado, MD from San Diego. He partnered with Heartbeat International to inform women about a safe medical procedure that can reverse the effects of the first pill (medical abortions require 2 pills). Heartbeat International established a 24/7 hotline and a network of over 2,000 medical clinics who have doctors who can administer the reversal medication. These women are then referred to Pregnancy Resource Centers for follow-up care and support.

At no time does California Attorney General Rob Bonta express concern for the pre-born, or for women seeking pregnancy care. He does not report on the women who have used the abortion pills alone for "at home abortions" and ended up hemorrhaging to death.

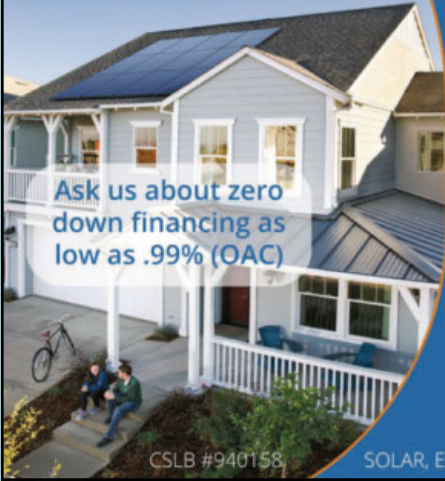

Prayer, fasting, and vigils in front of abortion centers across the world have proven very effective in changing hearts and minds of not only those seeking abortions, but also of those immersed in the Abortion Industry. 40 Days for Life campaigns (40daysforlife.com) across the globe are leading in this effort.

Heartbeat International, Pregnancy Resource Centers, the American Association of Pro-life OBGYNs (APPLOG), and the Abortion Pill Reversal Initiative, are all partners that provide life-saving support for both mothers and babies. Numerous parishioners from St. Martins' Parish are involved in the 40 Days Fall campaign. As a Parish, St. Martins has provided support for Pregnancy Resource Centers such as Life Center of Santa Ana and for shelters such as Casa Teresa. Parishioners are involved monthly, praying the Rosary in front of the Planned Parenthood in Orange. All these efforts are helping to change hearts and minds in our "pro-abortion state" and helping to save lives one baby at a time.
