4TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In their synagogue was a man with an unclean spirit; he cried out, "What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God!" Jesus rebuked him and said, "Quiet! Come out of him!" - Mk 1:23-25

OUR PARISH MISSION & VISION

St. Martin de Porres is a Stewardship and Hospitality parish. As Catholic Christians guided by the Holy Spirit, we are Christ's disciples dedicated to faith formation, worship, community life, and service. All are welcome as we use our unique gifts to serve the world as a visible sign of God's love.

FROM OUR DEACON DENIS ZAUN

In our world today, we are distracted by so many things, many of them heartbreaking and unfortunate. We are distracted by high crime rates, high cost of living, disappointment in our government, active shooting, wars, unchecked immigration, and rampant abortion. It is difficult to stay focused on what's really important for our salvation. We get caught in the daily grind and find it hard to see the big picture.

In our Old Testament reading today, Moses promises a prophet like himself to guide his people, and this promise is fulfilled in Jesus Christ, the ultimate prophet. Jesus, as prophet speaks to us not only with words, but also through His very life.

In the gospel from Mark, we see Jesus' teaching in the synagogue with unprecedented authority, not like conventional Jewish leadership. His teaching carries the power of God's Word, and we are called to recognize and embrace the authority of God's Word in our own lives.

In our New Testament reading, St. Paul encourages us to live lives devoted entirely to the Lord. We must work to rise above the struggles and trials of our world and deepen our relationship with Him.

We must not let the distractions in our lives drown out the voice of God, and we need to cultivate a space in our lives for silence and reflection. I find my time before the Blessed Sacrament in Adoration the perfect place to do that. I find I can push aside the chaos of the world for an hour (or less than an hour some days) and really communicate with Our Lord. I pray we are all successful in focusing at least some of our earthly time each day on things of holiness and peace.

Blessings to you and your family.

NATIONAL NEEDS CAMPAIGN

The National Needs Collection consolidates several charities of importance to the US Catholic Conference, including the Catholic University of America, Catholic Home Missions, and the Catholic Communication Campaign. Each year, parishioners across the country are asked to support these interests. Next weekend, our parish will contribute a portion of our weekly collection to this cause. Your generosity in next weekend's general collection is appreciated.
