MISSION STATEMENT

We are the Roman Catholic community of St. Albert the Great. We are dedicated to growing in the love of Christ and to serving his people in the Austin area and beyond. We come together to share and spread the good news of His love. We are committed to His teaching and following the Holy Spirit.

We are united under the leadership of our pastor, with the Bishop of Austin, and with the Roman Catholic Church.

Message from Fr. Matt

Dear parish family,

This week, the Church is calling attention to what we believe in: one God, but three persons. It is the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. The Nicene Creed we pray at Mass is a Profession of Faith in the Blessed Trinity: God, The Father; God the Son; and God the Holy Spirit. The Apostles' Creed is also another prayer that professes belief in the Holy Trinity.

The Blessed Trinity is a mystery, and God is a mystery. The next time you make the Sign of the Cross, be aware that you are professing your faith in the Blessed Trinity.

MEMORIAL DAY WEEKEND

On this Memorial Day weekend, we remember in prayer the men and women who died in service to the United States of America. The United States military is all over the world protecting freedom and democracy, and in many cases preventing genocide from being inflicted on people by brutal regimes. Please pray for those who paid the ultimate price serving in the Armed Forces.

Have a blessed week.

Your brother,
Fr. Matt

Mensaje del Padre Mateo

Querida familia parroquial,

Esta semana, la Iglesia llama la atención al hecho de lo que creemos; en un Dios en tres personas. Esta es la solemnidad de la Santísima Trinidad. El Credo Niceno que rezamos en misa es nuestra Profesión de Fe en la Santísima Trinidad, Dios Padre, Dios Hijo, y Dios Espíritu Santo. El Credo de los Apóstoles es otra oración en la cual profesamos nuestra creencia en la Santísima Trinidad.

La Santísima Trinidad es un misterio, y Dios es un misterio. La próxima vez que se persignen con la Señal de la Cruz, tengan presente que al hacerlo están profesando su fe en la Santísima Trinidad.

Fin de Semana del Día de los Caídos

Es este fin de semana del Día de los Caídos, recordamos en oración a los hombres y mujeres que dieron sus vidas en servicio para proteger a los Estados Unidos de América. La milicia de los Estados Unidos está presente alrededor del mundo protegiendo la libertad y la democracia y en muchos casos previniendo el genocidio que podría causar la muerte de muchos en las manos de regímenes brutales. Por favor recen por aquellos que han pagado el precio de dar sus vidas en las Fuerzas Armadas.

Que tengan una semana bendita.

Su hermano,
Padre Mateo

Diocesan Missionary Cooperative Plan; Seminario Diocesano de Morelia
 The Diocesan Seminary of Morelia is an educational community where priests are trained for the Diocese of Morelia in Michoacán, Mexico. It was founded 248 years ago, and throughout history it has been a source of vocations, as well as great men who have made notable contributions to Mexico and abroad. Several Bishops have graduated from Morelia. Currently, more than 250 seminarians are studying at the Seminary. It is a blessing from God to have such a large number of vocations, but it is also a challenge to have the resources that are required to be able to train them and maintain the houses. Thank you for your Generosity!

Reflecting on the Mystery of the Most Holy Trinity

The Catechism of the Catholic Church states; "There is only one God, the almighty Father, his only Son and the Holy Spirit: the Most Holy Trinity."

"The mystery of the Most Holy Trinity is the central mystery of Christian faith and life. It is the mystery of God in himself. It is therefore the source of all the other mysteries of faith, the light that enlightens them. It is the most fundamental and essential teaching in the 'hierarchy of the truths of faith'. The whole history of salvation is identical with the history of the way and the means by which the one true God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, reveals himself to men 'and reconciles and unites with himself those who turn away from sin'." CCC 233-234

The central mystery of the Trinity may be difficult to understand and a challenge to find its application to our life.

It may help to reflect on the Trinity as:

God is "beyond us." We can never fully understand who God is, but we know that He is far beyond our limited human nature or anything we can come to know in that human experience. God is the ultimate mystery, the question that we never fully answer. This is God the Father, the creator, the one who is beyond all understanding.

God is also "among us." We come to know God in the person of Jesus. God takes on our human nature and becomes "one of us." Catholics believe that this human experience of God continues in the sacrament of the Eucharist. God the Son is with us always.

God is also "within us." God is the "divine spark" that awakens us to the fact that we are alive. God gives us our creativity, our gifts and talents, and our limitations as well. As we come to know ourselves as people, we also come to know God, who knows us better than we know ourselves. This is the experience of God the Holy Spirit.

God is all these things and more. We don't know all that God is, but this is how God has been revealed to us throughout the course of our history, how we have come to best express God.
