GOSPEL REFLECTION: Jesus consoles the disciples as he informs them that He will be departing soon to be with the Father. They fail to understand the meaning of his revelation that He is one with the Father. Is this a lack of faith on the part of the disciples, or an unwillingness to let Him depart from them once again? Jesus reassures the disciples that He goes to prepare a place for them in His Father's house. He also reveals that He is the Son of the Father, "the way and the truth and the life." He also states that "whoever believes in me will do the works that I do". Thus, the work of the disciples is revealed, for them to go forth and lead Christians in word and deed.

ENVIRONMENTAL STEWARDSHIP:

for the May 3 Bulletin

Caring for our human family and for the earth community are interconnected. For example, any action that protects the quality of water from contaminants benefits all life that depends on it. Consider an action you do to be a good steward of God's creation and reflect on how it affects not only the earth but us.

See Laudato Si on the Diocese of Ogdensburg website
