Vocabulary

cooperate rule

I'm going to draw a chart. At the top, I will write the words home, school, and community. Let's think of a rule or law you follow in each place. For example, you share toys at home and at school. Let's write that rule under "home" and "school." We cooperate when we follow a rule. Can you think of another rule?

My Words to Know

High-Frequency Word: to

I will write the word to in the shaving cream. Can you write the word to? Great job!

Now let's make-up sentences using the word to. Each time I say the word to, write the word in the shaving cream. Are you ready?

I like to swim. I want to read a book. I like to hug you!

Category Words: action words

play swing jump

Let's think of rules and laws we follow at home, at school, and in the community. As we think of a rule, let's act it out. Are you ready?

We buckle our seat belts in a car.

We take turns when we play on the swings.

We raise our hands when we want to talk in class.

We pick up toys so no one trips on them.

Phonics: i Let's think of words with the letter i in them, and I will write them down. I want you to underline the letter i in each word: ink, pin, inch, if, sit, hid, and in. Nice work!
