THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT

WHY I CELEBRATE MASS

Greg R. Meyer

I go to Mass to get to heaven and obtain eternal life. God came down and asked Moses to keep holy the Lords Day. With all God has given me, I can give him at least one hour of my week. When I go for my final interview with God, I won't say that I did him a favor by attending Mass, but loved to spend time with him on Sundays.

Prayer for the Third Week of Advent

Come, long-expected Jesus. Excite in me a wonder at the wisdom and power of Your Father and ours. Receive my prayer as part of my service of the Lord who enlists me in God's own work for justice.

Come, long-expected Jesus. Excite in me a hunger for peace: peace in the world, peace in my home, peace in myself.

Come, long-expected Jesus. Excite in me a joy responsive to the Father's joy. I seek His will so I can serve with gladness, singing and love.

Come, long-expected Jesus. Excite in me the joy and love and peace it is right to bring to the manger of my Lord. Raise in me, too, sober reverence for the God who acted there, hearty gratitude for the life begun there, and spirited resolution to serve the Father and Son.

I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, whose advent I hail. Amen.

MISSALS FOR 2015: The St. Joseph Sunday Missals have arrived. They are available at the Welcome Table with a suggested donation of $5.

JOB WELL DONE!! The Good Shepherd float that was in the Christmas Parade last weekend, received the "Reason for the Season Award" this year. Many thanks to Ben Horn and the Good Shepherd Youth Group for representing the parish in such a wonderful way!

ADVENT WREATH

An Advent wreath symbolizes our longing for the coming of Christ. The wreath is a circle of evergreen branches into which are set four candles. Traditionally, three candles are violet, and one is rose; but four violets or four white candles may also be used.

The wreath symbolizes many things. Evergreens signify God's enduring promise of redemption, evident like green branches in the midst of snow. The circle signifies our hope for the return of Christ, whose kingdom will have no end. The colors of the candles match the traditional colors of the vesture for the four Sundays Advent. Violet garments signify our penitent hope for salvation. The rose color, which may be worn on Advent's Third Sunday signals that the season is nearly over – joy is at hand!

The wreath's most luminous symbol is its growing light. One candle is lit on the First Sunday of Advent, two on the Second, three on the Third and all four on the Fourth. In the northern hemisphere, Advent comes at a time when the days decrease to their shortest length. As the hours of darkness increase, we light more candles on the wreath. The wreath, which symbolizes the coming of Christ, grows in intensity as the anniversary of Jesus' birth draws near.

The Advent wreath may be used at home or at church. It should be blessed on the First Sunday of Advent after the homily at Mass, at evening prayer Saturday night, or during a prayer service including biblical readings and Advent songs. At home, the wreath could be blessed by a family member and lit during the evening meal, to remind everyone of the true meaning of this holy Season.
