MOVIE AND DISCUSSION : Do you Struggle to Understand Catholic Teaching on Homosexuality? If so, this film and discussion event is for you, scheduled for Tuesday, January 27, 2015 from 7pm-9:15pm at the Catholic Center (1310 West Main St. in Lexington).. Produced by Courage International, "Desire of the Everlasting Hills" is a film that honestly, tenderly, and poignantly shares the story of three Catholics, two men and one woman, who left behind the culture's definition of "sexual freedom" to find authentic liberty in the virtue and vision of chastity. Following the one-hour film, discussion will center on how Catholics can more effectively minister with both grace and truth to those who experience same-sex attraction. For more info or to RSVP, see www.cdlex.org/courage

NATIONAL WEEK OF PRAYER FOR CHRISTIAN UNITY

January 18-25, 2015

Jesus said to her: "Give me to drink" (Jn 4:7)

INTERDENOMINATIONAL UNITY PRAYER SERVICE

Sunday, January 25, 2015

Pax Christi Catholic Church

7:00PM-8:30PM

From January 18-25, 2015, Christian churches throughout the world will join in prayer asking the Lord to restore oneness to the Christian community. This year's theme, "Jesus said to her: 'Give me to drink'", comes from the Gospel of John (4:7). Christians that encounter and exchange experiences with each other, even with other religious traditions, can be changed by reaching into the depths of the "well". God often meets our needs through others. Approaching strangers with the desire to drink from their well, opens to us the "wonders of God". We both benefit by meeting this most basic of human needs.

Pax Christi Catholic Church will close the week with a special inter-denominational unity prayer service on Sunday, January 25, 2015 from 7:00PM-8:30PM followed by a reception. Bishops of all the major Christian faiths are invited as well as the members of the local congregations. For more information contact Fr Nick Pagano at (859)273-9999 or npagano@cdlex.org.

PLEASE PRAY THIS PRAYER OF UNITY THROUGHOUT THE WEEK OF JANUARY 18-25:

*God of life, who cares for all creation, and calls us to justice and peace, may our security not come from arms, but from respect.
May our force not be of violence, but of love.
May our wealth not be in money, but in sharing.
May our path not be of ambition, but of justice.
May our victory not be from vengeance, but in forgiveness.
May our unity not be in the quest of power,
but in vulnerable witness to do your will.
Open and confident, may we defend the dignity of all creation, sharing today and forever, the bread of solidarity, justice and peace.
This we ask in the name of Jesus, your Holy Son, our brother, who, as victim of our violence, even from the heights of the cross, gave forgiveness to us all. Amen.*

BAPTISM OF THE LORD

Christmas Time comes to its close when we celebrate the Baptism of the Lord, an event recorded in all four Gospels. To begin his public ministry, Jesus presented himself to be baptized by John the Baptist, and God manifested Jesus as the divine Son.

Because we associate baptism with the forgiveness of sins, the idea that the sinless Jesus would undergo baptism seems out of place. The evangelists must have thought the same, as a whole, they downplay the incident. But the baptism of Jesus had nothing to do with forgiveness; it had everything to do with manifestation. It was a new beginning because it publicly revealed Jesus' identity, and that testimony came not from just any witness but from God.

Three incidents in the Bible are traditionally called the "epiphany" events or the "manifestations" of Jesus, newly arrived on the biblical scene: the visit of the magi, the baptism, and the miracle at the wedding of Cana. Prior to 1969 we heard all three of these Scriptures in successive weeks: January 6th, January 13th, and on the following Sunday. All three stories form a unit because they progressively reveal the identity, the authority, and the power of Jesus.

In today's calendar, the Sunday readings spread over a three-year cycle. On the Baptism of the Lord, we hear a different evangelist's account each year. Only in year C does the following Sunday feature the Gospel of the wedding at Cana to unify the three celebration.

In the United States we celebrate Epiphany on a Sunday. But in countries where the Epiphany is a holy day of obligation, it is celebrated on January 6th. In the United States, the Baptism of the Lord is usually the Sunday after the Epiphany, but if Epiphany comes late, falling on January 6th or 7th, the Baptism of the Lord goes to the next day, January 7th or 8th, a Monday, in order to make room for the weeks of ordinary time.
