Letter from Bishop-elect John Stowe to the Diocese of Lexington - Re-printed from CrossRoads, April 2015

Dear Faithful of the Diocese of Lexington,

I know that you are gathered in prayer, asking God's blessings upon this beautiful diocese and upon me as I prepare to take on the enormous responsibility of shepherding you. It is a great source of spiritual strength for me to know of your prayers, especially in this celebration.

In my brief, too brief, visit to Lexington last week I was truly overwhelmed by the welcomes and above all the enthusiasm that was so evident wherever I went. From the Cathedral parish and school, the College of Consultors, the staff of the Catholic Center, students and staff of Holy Spirit Parish at UK, and the flood of e-mails and other greetings I have received from around the diocese—so many expressions of prayer and good will that I am even more eager to return and see more of you and the places and ministries of the diocese.

Know that you are all in my prayers as well. May God who has blessed us all so abundantly continue to prompt us to share our gifts and build up his reign.

See you soon! Peace and all good,

Father John Stowe, OFM Conv., Bishop-elect

Lord, let your face shine on us. Psalm 4:7

DOCUMENTARY ON ST. JOHN PAUL II --- A new K of C-produced documentary on St. John Paul II and his relationship with North and South America will screen soon on national television networks.

John Paul II in America: Uniting a Continent explores how the papacy of St. John Paul II left an indelible mark on the American continent. Driven by his singular conviction of a “United American Continent” under the patronage of Our Lady of Guadalupe, John Paul II’s papal travels from Argentina to Alaska generated massive crowds, shaped an entire generation and ultimately changed the course of history.

Narrated by actor Andy Garcia, the film features rare archival footage and insightful analysis from leading figures, including Cardinal Seán P. O’Malley of Boston, Supreme Knight Carl A. Anderson, John Paul II biographer George Weigel and former Vatican spokesman Joaquín Navarro-Valls. Viewers will be both intrigued and moved by the documentary’s unprecedented framework for understanding one of the giant figures of our times.

This documentary will be shown on EWTN, CHANNEL 94, Frankfort - April 29, 10:00 p.m., April 30, 10:00 a.m., and May 2 at 4:00 p.m.

“SILENT GIVERS AT MASS”: The Offertory is the part of the Mass that allows all of us to join our offerings with the Perfect Offering of Jesus Christ. In order to allow for a fuller participation in the offertory by everyone in the congregation, the Stewardship Council would like to introduce a new practice for the “silent givers” of the parish. If you give by electronic funds transfer, online banking or by using the donate button on our website, you are a “silent giver”. Starting April 19-20, we will have small, gold plastic tokens on the host tables. We would like to invite all the “silent givers”, if they so choose, to pick up a token to place in the offertory basket. It is our hope that these tokens will remind the silent givers of the sacrifice they have made within the context of the Mass, as well as serving as witness that we are a community of givers.

ECUMENISM APPRECIATION: continues to meet on Sunday mornings in Room 2 of the PLC (downstairs) from 9:15-10:15. Speaker for April 26 will be Geoff Whiseman, a member of the Greek Orthodox Church who will speak on the Incarnational tradition. Come join us! You are welcome at any time.

SENIOR SHEPHERDS: Will meet Tuesday, April 21st, in the Parish Life Center at 11:30 AM. Bring your favorite dish and a friend and come fellowship with us. Age is not a prerequisite. If you are retired or don't have to work that day, join us. Meat and drinks will be provided.
