ASCENSION OF THE LORD – GLORIOUS MYSTERY

There are really two sides to the mystery of the Ascension. The first is the glorious return of the risen Jesus to his place in heaven. In his Incarnation, “he emptied himself” as St. Paul puts it, of the glory due him as Divine and became like us in every way but sin. Having endured rejection, terrible physical sufferings and death, Jesus returns to his Father. But, as the Preface for the Ascension reminds us, he did so “not to abandon us, but to give us hope” – that we, too, are destined to share his glory.

The second side of the mystery: Jesus gives the apostles – and all who will come to believe – a mission: to make known his person and his wonderful teaching to all the nations of the world. Jesus assures us that we will not be alone. We are called to make Jesus Christ known because, we, too, have been blessed in baptism and have received the gifts of the Holy Spirit.

PRAYER INTENTIONS FOR THE MONTH OF MAY

 For all mothers, whose care and loving tenderness serves as a shining example for us all to follow. As a mother gives life to her children, may we all help give life to our church and let our faith and love shine forth.

For a successful Convocation of Bishop John and all priests in the Lexington Diocese. May their coming together in work and prayer serve to advance the mission of our Diocese and to better meet the needs of the faithful in this Year of Mercy.

 For the upcoming ordination and priests and deacons in our diocese. May they help shepherd the church and be inspired servants of the Gospel and our Lord.

 For the success of the parish "Reduce, Renew and Reach Out" Capital Campaign.

For generosity toward meeting our parish goal for the Diocesan Annual Appeal.

THE ASCENSION OF CHRIST

The Ascension of Christ, which traditionally falls on a Thursday, may be celebrated on a Sunday in certain parts of the world. The Ascension originated as a Thursday celebration because of the story of the event from the opening of the Acts of the Apostles. There, Luke says that Jesus rose from the dead, appeared to believers for 40 days and then ascended to the heavens. Even though the accounts of the ascension in the Gospels suggest it took place after a short-er period of time, the liturgy of the church has honored the chronology from Acts by celebrating the Ascension on Thursday of the sixth week of Easter.

The Solemnity of the Ascension is one of 10 days that may be a holy day of obligation. Not all countries have the same holy days. In those countries where the Ascension is not a holy day, the solemnity is transferred to the following Sunday. The United States is so large and its needs so varied that Rome has granted it permission to decide by region on the date of this one solemnity. It is possible within the United States for Ascension to be on a Thursday in one state and on a Sunday in another. Travelers are expected to honor the custom of the place where they are that week.

Those celebrating Ascension on Sunday will miss the Mass texts off the Seventh Sunday off Easter, filled with anticipation for the Spirit of Pentecost. The second reading and the Gospel of the Seventh Sunday of Easter may replace those usually heard on the Sixth. Those attending weekday Masses may notice that the responsorial psalm on Friday and Saturday of the Sixth Week of Easter is a seasonal psalm for the Ascension, even if their community will not celebrate the solemnity until Sunday.
