Gospel Reading: Matthew 3:13-17

The Spirit of God comes upon Jesus as he is baptized by John.

Family Connection

At Jesus' baptism, God affirms his Son's mission for salvation. God announces his pleasure with Jesus and, in Matthew's Gospel, announces to all that, "This is my beloved Son" (Matthew 3:17). With this affirmation, Jesus is able to resist the temptations described next in Matthew's Gospel and to begin his public ministry. As family members, we can support one another in our Christian living by affirming the importance of each person in our eyes and in God's. Confident that through our Baptism we too were made children of God, we can resist temptation and share in Christ's mission.

Gather as a family to read today's Gospel, Matthew 3:13-17. Recall that God's message about Jesus was meant for us, "This is my beloved Son." It was also an affirmation for Jesus about his role in God's plan.

Place each family member's name on a slip of paper and put the names in a bowl. Invite each person in the family to choose another family member's name and to prepare a message for that person, affirming their importance in God's eyes and in your family life. Pray together that your family will continue to support one another in your baptismal promises to be disciples of Jesus and then invite each person to read aloud the message they prepared. Conclude by praying together the Lord's Prayer.

Each year, January 22nd is designated by the US Council of Catholic Bishops as a day of Prayer for the Protection of Unborn children. This year at Good Shepherd we will have Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament beginning at 8:00 a.m. until Benediction at 5:15, followed by 5:30 p.m. Mass. Plan now to come and pray. We are also encouraged to make that a day of penance: by fasting and sacrifice, as well as prayer.

We are meeting around lunch time or dinner time in homes, to share a meal and discuss the book. Interest in starting more groups has been expressed. Groups will meet once a month through 2020, covering about 60 pages of the book each month. We will eat, fellowship, and discuss questions, thoughts, and prayers that emerge from the reading. All are welcome. Would you like to join a group? Contact Mary Ortwein at 859-806-4484 or mary@skillswork.org
