How is the Domestic Church's Mission Accomplished?

From the Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1657 – It is here that the father of the family, the mother, children, and all members of the family exercise the priesthood of the baptized in a privileged way "by the reception of the sacraments, prayer and thanksgiving, the witness of a holy life, and self-denial and active charity." Thus the home is the first school of Christian life and "a school for human enrichment." Here one learns endurance and the joy of work, fraternal love, generous - even repeated - forgiveness, and above all divine worship in prayer and the offering of one's life.

Share with us! We want to see pictures of the sacred spaces in your home—prayer corners, altars, maybe an outdoor garden space, the space where your family prays together!

Send your pictures to Stephanie at SSims@gssfrankfort.org, and be sure to let her know if you want your family's name posted with the picture. Stephanie can post them on the parish & school's social media sites, as well as our parish website.

And don't forget to challenge your friends to share their Domestic Church sacred spaces!
