Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time | August 1, 2021

THE TRANSFIGURATION OF THE LORD - AUGUST 6

In Year B, the reading for the Transfiguration comes from Mark's gospel. In Mark, Jesus takes Peter, James, and John up a high mountain, apart from the other apostles and disciples. There, he is transfigured and appears in dazzling white clothes. Elijah, the great prophet, and Moses, through whom the Israelites were given the law, appear with Jesus. A cloud appears, overshadowing them, and a voice states, "This is my beloved Son. Listen to him." Jesus charges the three to not share with anyone what they had seen "except when the Son of Man had risen from the dead." They keep their experience to themselves, pondering what Jesus meant. © 2021, USCCB, Washington, DC. All rights reserved.

NIGHT TO ADORE

Join Corpus Christi Young Catholic Adults and Corpus Christi Right to Life for a "Night to Adore" at the Cole Park Amphitheater on Tue., August 3rd, from 7 to 9 pm. Adoration and Reconciliation will be available.

SAINT CAJETAN - AUG. 7

Born in Vicenza, Italy, Cajetan earned a doctorate in civil and canon law at the University of Padua. He took an ecclesiastical office in Rome under Pope Julius II and was ordained in 1516, joining a local oratory. In Rome and other northern Italian cities, he focused on helping the sick. With three other Italians, one a bishop who later became pope, he founded in 1523 the first order of clerks regular, the Theatines, which took its name from the bishop's see. The priests of this reform congregation aided the Catholic Reformation, taking vows and living communally but also doing pastoral work. They served the sick, preached and studied the Bible. Cajetan died in Naples; he is patron of the Theatines and domestic animals. © 2021, USCCB, Washington, DC. All rights reserved.
