May 31, 2020 • Pentecost Sunday

Before there was water, there was fire. Once in a while, a volcano hints at the sizzling magma upon which the whole human enterprise floats. Over eons, the surface cooled off a bit, and rain sizzled down for thousands of centuries, filling the oceans and sculpting the earth. We Christians can catch God's glory in a shimmering pool of water, but we can also capture God's burning desire to fan the tiny flames of our baptismal candles into something that will make a difference. In Sicily to this day, there is a custom of scattering rose petals down from the ceiling of church on the heads of the faithful, an effective reminder of the "tongues of flame" descending on the apostles, and a sign that the Holy Spirit still is poured out on the baptized. It is not merely a quaint custom, but a fairly potent sign of what baptism does. An interesting sidebar: if you have traced the Epiphany blessing on your doorway in chalk, Pentecost is the day to erase it. From now on, no need to rely on the "wise men"—you are alive in the Spirit!

Mass with a Congregation Began on May 1, 2020

(Please read the following restrictions)

- People over the age of 65 are encouraged to continue participating from home.
- People with chronic lung disease, moderate to severe asthma, chronic heart disease, severe obesity, diabetes, chronic kidney disease undergoing dialysis, liver disease, or weakened immune system or who have other underlying at-risk conditions, are encouraged to continue participating from home. All Masses will continue to be live-streamed on Facebook.
- Dispensation from the Sunday obligation to attend Mass in person is extended through the entire month of May, especially with respect to people who may be considered physically well to attend, yet believe it best to stay at home.
- Parishioners should take their temperatures before coming to Mass and should not attend if exhibiting any signs of sickness.
- Only 25% of the church's capacity will be allowed to enter the church. The Church Hall (Basement) will be set up for overflow.
- Parishioners attending Mass are asked to wear a face mask, bandana, scarf, or other covering for the mouth and nose while on church grounds.
- At this point, there will be NO Hospitality Ministers, Altar Servers, Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, and Lectors.
- There will be a basket at the entrance of the church to place your offertory contribution when you enter or exit the building. A one time use handout with the music and readings for Mass will also be available.
- Certain pews will be marked as unavailable to sit in. Please sit towards the ends of the available pews and leave at least 6 feet of space in-between people of different households.
- The priest will distribute Holy Communion to the congregation who will remain in the pews. It is encouraged that Holy Communion be received in the hand. If you would like to receive Holy Communion on the tongue, please contact Fr. Kristopher 573-4328 as soon as possible to make arrangements for this to happen.
- If you are not able to come to Mass, you may make arrangements with Fr. Kristopher to receive Holy Communion at another time. Please call him at 573-4328.

Please follow all civil orders: www.VictoriaTXOEM.org

For sacramental needs (especially confession, anointing of the sick and viaticum), please contact St. Mary's parish office at 361-573-4328 to speak with a priest.

Questions of the Week

Do I rely on the Holy Spirit for guidance?

When I search my heart, what stubbornness do I find that could use honest examination?

We continue to live stream all the weekend and daily Masses, as well as other devotionals. In order to authentically participate in these liturgies, please view them live, while they are happening. Watching them at later times can be helpful for further reflection or if your situation makes it impossible to view live. All Masses and services can be watched live by going to www.lourdesvictoria.org. Please visit the church website for instructions and updates.

The 2:00 pm Mass next Sunday (June 7) is specifically for the First Holy Communicants and their families.

PENTECOST

Unless the eye catch fire,
God will not be seen.
Unless the ear catch fire,
God will not be heard.
Unless the tongue catch fire,
God will not be named.
Unless the heart catch fire,
God will not be loved.
Unless the mind catch fire,
God will not be known.
—William Blake

OFFICIAL ANNOUNCEMENT FROM THE OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2020:

The Rev. Christopher Kwame Korang is appointed parochial vicar of Sts. Cyril & Methodius in Shiner, Texas, and is relieved of his duties as parochial vicar of Our Lady of Lourdes and St. Mary's Catholic Church in Victoria, Texas.

We are thankful that we have the opportunity to have Fr. Christopher lead us in our liturgies at Our Lady of Lourdes Parish. He is a blessing to all of us. We thank Fr. Christopher for his priestly commitment and ministering to us and wish him only the best in his future endeavors. Thank you, Fr. Christopher!

"We fly to your protection, O Holy Mother of God. In the present tragic situation, when the whole world is prey to suffering and anxiety, we fly to you, Mother of God and our Mother, and seek refuge under your protection.

Mary, Consolation of the afflicted, embrace all your children in distress and pray that God will stretch out his all-powerful hand and free us from this terrible pandemic, so that life can serenely resume its normal course".

(Quote from Pope Francis letter for the month of May 2020).

Summer Activities for Youth

There will be no diocesan sponsored events for youth effective immediately through June 30, 2020. A decision regarding diocesan sponsored events scheduled through July 31, 2020, will be made and announced by May 31, 2020.

Pastors may decide at a parish level if any events for youth may be allowed onsite or off-site through the summer of 2020. If any events are scheduled to take place, all guidelines from local, state, and federal officials should be followed, including proper social distancing and hygiene guidelines. Virtual events are encouraged to continue ministry. Please consult the Office of Communications for policies and guidelines regarding social media and technology releases.

If you would like help or more information, please do not hesitate to contact the Office of Youth and Young Adult Ministry at (361) 573-0828.
