St. Patrick Mission Statement

A Welcoming Faith community called to be witnesses of God's Love in the Roman Catholic Tradition, through Discipleship, Celebration of His Word and Sacraments, Evangelization and Service In the Hope of Eternal Salvation

Dear Friends in Christ,

I hope you are enjoying the teaching on the Sacraments that is being provided in this space each week. Over the last few weeks we have offered an overview of the Sacraments and details on the Sacrament of Baptism. This weekend we begin a detailed explanation the Sacrament of Confirmation. If you've missed any of these articles, you can find copies of the weekly bulletin on our parish website at www.stpatrickmchenry.org.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Godwin

The Sacraments - Confirmation (Part 1)

As noted a few weeks ago, Baptism, the Eucharist and the sacrament of Confirmation together constitute the "sacraments of Christian initiation," whose unity must be safeguarded. The reception of the sacrament of Confirmation is necessary for the completion of baptismal grace. While Confirmation is a distinct and complete sacrament in its own right, its purpose is to perfect in us what was begun at Baptism. One might say - in a sense - we are baptized in order to be confirmed.

Roots of Confirmation: While we don't know from the Gospels, specifically when, during His public life, Jesus instituted the sacrament of Confirmation, we know that the Bible does tell us about Confirmation. Not under that name, of course. Aside from Baptism, our present names for the sacraments were developed by early theologians of the Church. "Laying on of hands" was the earliest name for Confirmation. This is the name that is used in the following passage taken from the Acts of the Apostles: "Now when the Apostles in Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent, to them Peter and John. On their arrival they prayed for them, that they might receive the Holy Spirit; for as yet He had not yet come upon any of them, but they had only been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. Then they laid their hands on them and they received the Holy Spirit..." (Act 8:14-19).

This passage confirms what we know about Confirmation, that while it is a compliment to Baptism, it is a sacrament distinct from Baptism:

- The Samaritans already had been baptized yet it was still necessary for them to receive the "laying on of hands."
- The passage also tells us the way in which Confirmation was to be given: by the placing of the hand of the one who confirms, upon the head of the one to be confirmed, with a prayer that he/she may receive the Holy Spirit.

History and Development of the Sacrament: Very early, to better signify the gift of the Holy Spirit, an anointing with perfumed oil (chrism) was added to the laying on of hands. This anointing highlights the name "Christian," which means "anointed" and derives from that of Christ himself whom God "anointed with the Holy Spirit." This rite of anointing has continued ever since, in both the East and the West. For this reason, the Eastern Churches call this sacrament Chrismation, anointing with chrism or Myron which means "chrism." In the Western Churches, the term Confirmation suggests that this sacrament both confirms baptism and strengthens baptismal grace.

Two traditions: East and West: In the first centuries, Confirmation generally comprised one single celebration with Baptism, forming with it a "double sacrament," according to St. Cyprian. Among other reasons, the multiplication of infant baptisms, all through the year, the increase of rural parishes, and the growth of dioceses often prevented the bishop from being present at all baptismal celebrations. In the West, the desire to reserve the completion of Baptism to the Bishop has caused the temporal separation of the two sacraments. The East has kept them united, so that Confirmation is conferred by the priest who baptizes. But he can do so only with the "myron" consecrated by the bishop.

A custom of the Roman Church facilitated the development of the Western practice: a double anointing with sacred chrism after Baptism. The first anointing after Baptism was performed by the priest; it was completed by a second anointing on the forehead of the newly baptized by the bishop. The first anointing has remained attached to the baptismal rite. If Baptism is conferred on an adult, there is only one post-baptismal anointing, that of Confirmation.

The practice of the Eastern Churches give greater emphasis to the unity of Christian initiation. That of the Latin Church more clearly expresses the communion of the new Christian with the bishop as guarantor and servant of the unity, catholicity and apostolicity of his Church, and hence the connection with the apostolic origins of Christ's Church.

Who May be Confirmed? Any baptized Christian who is in a state of grace (free from mortal sin) can be confirmed.

- When adults (Catechetical age of 7 or older) are received into the Catholic Church, they received the Sacraments of Initiation in the traditional order: Baptism, Confirmation and the Holy Eucharist.
- The practice of the Western Church (Latin Rite/Roman Catholic) is to baptize children (under the age of 7) as infants, to allow them to receive the Holy Eucharist for the first time at age 7 and to allow them to be confirmed between the ages of 12-17.
- In the Eastern Churches, infants receive Confirmation and Holy Eucharist along with their Baptism in order to preserve the traditional order of the Sacrament of Initiation.
- In danger of death, children of any age should be confirmed (unless they are not baptized), in which case they should be baptized and then immediately confirmed.

Vocation Corner: The Point of Vacation

Leading up to summer break at the end of my first year in seminary, one of the priests told us something important: "There is no VACATION from a VOCATION." In other words he was highlighting the fact the even during time off, it's still important to strive to live the life that God is calling us too. Immediately after saying this however, he got a smile on his face and he said: "Equally important is that there is also no VOCATION with a VACATION!"

I love both sides of this coin because it gives us important truths to live by. If we want to follow God's will (and be truly happy – which I think is the longed for goal of any vocation) than we can't take a vacation away from prayer or especially from the Mass! We need to be true to who God calls us to be at all times! So if you've been taking a summers rest from your usual spiritual practices – it's time to come home! That being said, God wants us to enjoy life with Him so make sure that you have a chance to get rejuvenated and refreshed so that you can come back and serve Him all the better. So take your vacation (even if it's just a trip to church) but don't forget your vocation!

For families who rely on free school lunches during the school year, summer can stress food budgets that are already stretched to their limits. For a local family of five children, this struggle was compounded by lack of transportation to get to FISH and the community dinner. St. Vincent de Paul was able to provide this family with bags of food, and Aldi's and a Salvation Army gift certificate as well as McRide coupons to reach these stores and pantries. Your generous support of SVdP helped this family ~ and several more in the same situation ~ feed their children this summer. Matthew 7:12 "So whatever you wish that others would do to you, do also to them, for this is the Law and the Prophets."

O God, who desired the Virgin
 St. Kateri Tekakwitha to flower among Native Americans in a life of innocence, grant,
 through her intercession,
 that when all are gathered into your Church from every nation, tribe and tongue, they may magnify you in a single canticle of praise. Through our Lord Jesus Christ,
 your Son, who lives and reigns
 with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
 one God, for ever and ever. Amen

St. Patrick
Compassionate Care Ministry

If you or your loved one are homebound and unable to attend Weekend Mass, but would like to have prayers and receive the Blessed Sacrament, please contact the Compassionate Care Ministry through the parish office at parishoffice@stpatrickmchenry.org. or 815-385-0025. A member of the ministry will make contact with you or your loved one to setup a time for a weekly Sunday visit.

Welcome

If you are new to the area or visiting from another parish, welcome to our faith community! Please visit our website www.stpatrickmchenry.org to find out more about St. Patrick parish. We invite you to become a member of our parish. If you'd like a registration form, please contact the St. Patrick parish office at 815-385-0025, email us at parishoffice@stpatrickmchenry.org or you may print a form from the parish website.

You are a stranger here, but once.

St. Patrick
Two by Two Ministry

The Two by Two Ministry reaches out to our homebound parishioners by visiting them in their homes, sending them cards and letting them know that our parish community is thinking of them and praying for them. Each visit lasts about 30-40 minutes and occurs about every 4-6 weeks. This visit would not include reception of the Eucharist. Should you or a loved one like to be visited by a volunteer from this ministry, please contact the parish office at 815-386-0025 or parishoffice@stpatrickmchenry.org and your contact information will be forwarded to Phyllis Schimming (Ministry Chair) who will arrange the initial visit.
