Fifteenth
Sunday in Ordinary
Time

A sower went out to sow.
Some seed fell on the path . . . some fell on rocky ground.
. . . Some seed fell among thorns.

St. Patrick Mission Statement

A welcoming parish called in FAITH to know, LOVE and serve God and neighbor in the HOPE of heaven.

Dear Friends in Christ,

As indicated a few weekend's ago, now that we are operating on a summer schedule, the space for this weekly column will be used for brief moments of Church/Faith teachings. This year we are exploring Catholic Social Teaching.

In Christ,

Fr. Godwin

Catholic Social Teaching A Central and Essential Element of our Faith

Principle 3: Rights and Responsibilities

The Catholic tradition teaches that human dignity can be protected and a healthy community can be achieved only if human rights are protected and responsibilities are met. Therefore, every person has a fundamental right to life and a right to those things required for human decency. Corresponding to these rights are duties and responsibilities--to one another, to our families, and to the larger society.

Scripture passages: Rights and Responsibilities

- * Leviticus 25:3: When someone is reduced to poverty, we have an obligation to help.
- * Ruth 2:2-23: Boaz cares for Ruth, a widow and a foreigner, giving her far more than the law requires.
- * Tobit 4:5-11: Give from what you have received and do not turn away from the poor.
- * Proverbs 31: Open your mouth to speak on behalf of those in need.
- * Isaiah 1:16-8-9 17: Seek justice, rescue the oppressed, defend the orphan, plead for the widow.
- * Jeremiah 22:13-16: A legitimate government upholds the rights of the poor and vulnerable.
- * Jeremiah 29:4-7: Seek the welfare of the city, for in its welfare you will find your welfare.
- * Matthew 25: 31-46: Just as you did it to the least of these, you did it to me.
- * Luke 16:19-31: The rich man has a responsibility to care for Lazarus.
- * Acts 4:32-35: There was not a needy person among them.
- * 2 Corinthians 9:6-15: God's gifts are given to be shared.
- * James 2:14-18: Faith without works is dead

Teachings from our Tradition

Underlying the principle of the common good is respect for the human person as such, endowed with basic and inalienable rights ordered to his or her integral development. It has also to do with the overall welfare of society and the development of a variety of intermediate groups, applying the principle of subsidiarity. Outstanding among those groups is the family, as the basic cell of society. Finally, the common good calls for social peace, the stability and security provided by a certain order which cannot be achieved without particular concern for distributive justice; whenever this is violated, violence always ensues. Society as a whole, and the state in particular, are obliged to defend and promote the common good. (Pope Francis, On Care for Our Common Home [Laudato Si' . . . ], no. 157)

Many of the poor live in areas particularly affected by phenomena related to warming, and their means of subsistence are largely dependent on natural reserves and ecosystemic services such as agriculture, fishing and forestry. They have no other financial activities or resources which can enable them to adapt to climate change or to face natural disasters, and their access to social services and protection is very limited. For example, changes in climate, to which animals and plants cannot adapt, lead them to migrate; this in turn affects the livelihood of the poor, who are then forced to leave their homes, with great uncertainty for their future and that of their children. There has been a tragic rise in the number of migrants seeking to flee from the growing poverty caused by environmental degradation. . . . Our lack of response to these tragedies involving our brothers and sisters points to the loss of that sense of responsibility for our fellow men and women upon which all civil society is founded. (Pope Francis, On Care for Our Common Home [Laudato Si' . . . ], no. 25)

A link has often been noted between claims to a "right to excess", and even to transgression and vice, within affluent societies, and the lack of food, drinkable water, basic instruction and elementary health care in areas of the underdeveloped world and on the outskirts of large metropolitan centers. The link consists in this: individual rights, when detached from a framework of duties which grants them their full meaning, can run wild, leading to an escalation of demands which is effectively unlimited and indiscriminate. (Pope Benedict XVI, Charity in Truth, [Caritas in Veritate . . . ], no. 43)

The inviolability of the person which is a reflection of the absolute inviolability of God, finds its primary and fundamental expression in the inviolability of human life. Above all, the common outcry, which is justly made on behalf of human rights—for example, the right to health, to home, to work, to family, to culture—is false and illusory if the right to life, the most basic and fundamental right and the condition for all other personal rights, is not defended with maximum determination. (St. John Paul II, On the Vocation and Mission of the Lay Faithful [Christifideles Laici . . . ], no. 38)

Principle 3: Rights and Responsibilities

We must speak of man's rights. Man has the right to live. He has the right to bodily integrity and to the means necessary for the proper development of life, particularly food, clothing, shelter, medical care, rest, and, finally, the necessary social services. In consequence, he has the right to be looked after in the event of ill health; disability stemming from his work; widowhood; old age; enforced unemployment; or whenever through no fault of his own he is deprived of the means of livelihood. (St. John XXIII, Peace on Earth [Pacem in Terris. . . ], no. 11)

In human society one man's natural right gives rise to a corresponding duty in other men; the duty, that is, of recognizing and respecting that right. Every basic human right draws its authoritative force from the natural law, which confers it and attaches to it its respective duty. Hence, to claim one's rights and ignore one's duties, or only half fulfill them, is like building a house with one hand and tearing it down with the other. (St. John XXIII, Peace on Earth [Pacem in Terris. . . ], no. 30)

As for the State . . . It has also the duty to protect the rights of all its people, and particularly of its weaker members, the workers, women and children. It can never be right for the State to shirk its obligation of working actively for the betterment of the condition of the working-man. (St. John XXIII, Christianity and Social Progress (Mater et Magistra. . . ), no. 20)

Actions to live this principle

- * Practice Stewardship of sharing your time, talent and treasure
- * Vote in every election, exercising your responsibility for participation in decisions that affect the quality of life together
- * Advocate for and support local education and training for good jobs; join with others who are working to ensure a quality education in the local schools.
- * Pray for our legislators, our judges and court system as they deal with issues of rights and responsibilities.

GOD'S WORDS

Each day we are bombarded with thousands of words. From the moment our clock radios click on in the morning, until the last moment of the day when the television is turned off or someone bids us "good-night," our life is filled with words. Some words that we hear bring news that leaves us feeling low. Some words lift our spirits. Many of the words we hear are trying to get us to buy something. Some words are hurtful. Today the Church focuses our attention on hearing the word of God. Are God's words just more of the same—part of the endless stream of words that flow into our ears each day? The challenge today is to allow God's word to inspire us in new ways so that our outlook and attitudes align themselves more closely with the heart and mind of Christ Jesus.

2020 DIOCESAN APPEAL DIOCESE OF ROCKFORD

THANK YOU
to the 133 Parish Families
who have already pledged to the 2020
Diocesan Appeal raising $40,550.00

We are very grateful to all who responded to our bishop's appeal and brought back their pledge cards to Mass on Pledge Weekend. We also thank the 70 families who couldn't come but submitted their pledges in advance.

Our Parish Goal this Year is $66,035.00

What we give in support to the Diocesan Appeal comes back to help us in many ways! Our parish itself receives support from many diocesan ministries. The annual Appeal is very important to us and our diocese. Please be a part of the efforts by our local Catholic Church and donate now.

Bishop Malloy's annual video encouraging us to support this year's Appeal was played during Masses on Pledge Weekend. However the message wasn't heard clearly by those attending Mass virtually. If you missed it, or would like to watch it again on You Tube: Simply scan his QR code with your cell phone, or find it anytime at www.stpatrickmchenry.org

These are difficult times, but it is through your sacrificial gift to the 2020 Diocesan Appeal that the diocese can make a difference in the lives of so many. Please kindly participate placing your pledge in the collection basket during Mass. If writing a check, please make it out to St. Patrick Church - DA. You may spread your total pledge into convenient monthly or quarterly payments. Thank you very much. Other ways you may also submit your 2020 pledge:

TWO ELECTRONIC OPTIONS

You may donate online with our safe GiveCentral at www.stpatrickmchenry.org or, You may also setup your DSA pledge in various electronic payments at www.rockforddiocese.org/donate.

Weekday Mass: There is an attendance sheet on the card table in the vestibule. Please sign-in with your full name and contact information.

You will need to enter the number of people attending. DO NOT register people that are a maybe or you are guessing they will attend; we don't want to turn people away only to have spots available. If your plans change, please update your registration. Please be sure that if there are two adults in the household only one of you makes the reservation.

If you are aware of parishioners who do not have access to e-mail, we ask that you pass this information onto them and have them call the parish office at 815-385-0025 ext. 211 and we will enter their information.

Bishop Malloy's general dispensation remains in effect for those who are in the vulnerable age category (65+), any health compromised individual and anyone who does not yet feel comfortable attending Mass.

Sacraments

Baptism of Infants or children under 7 years of age:

To schedule a Baptism, please begin by calling the parish office. Baptism is celebrated on the 2nd and 4th Sunday of each month immediately after the 11AM Mass. Please consider scheduling your child's Baptism before your child is born to ensure an opening in the month of your choice. In addition, a Baptismal preparation class is required for the parents. This is a one session class that is held on the 1st Sunday of each month after the 9AM Mass. Sign-up is required and you may take the class before your child is born. You must be a registered parishioner of St. Patrick prior to scheduling a Baptism.

Sacrament of Marriage:

At St. Patrick, couples planning to marry need to meet with the Pastor before a wedding date can be set. Please contact the parish office to setup an initial meeting at least 6 months prior to any requested marriage date. This initial meeting will give you an overview of the requirements for marriage and the preparation required. At least one of the couple, or their parents, must be registered parishioners for at least 6 months and be active participating members of St. Patrick Church in order to be married at the church. Both individuals must be at least 19 years of age.

If you or someone you know needs a previous marriage investigated for its validity or invalidity (the annulment process) so that you may fully participate in your Catholic faith or become Catholic please call the Tribunal Office at 815-399-4300.
