JUST THOUGHTS FROM SOCIAL ACTION COMMISSION

"Migrants are persons... They are the symbol of all those rejected by today's globalized society... The weakest and most vulnerable must be helped... This is a tremendous responsibility, from which no one is exempt if we wish to fulfill the mission of salvation and liberation, in which the Lord himself has called us to cooperate." – Pope Francis. The Social Action Commission will be holding a special Sunday meeting in September to welcome those who may not be available for weeknight meetings. Please join us on Sunday, September 1st in the Eymard room after the 10:00 a.m. Mass (with donuts!) If you would like to receive our emails, please email spbsocialaction@gmail.com.

20th Sunday in Ordinary Time: In our country's current political climate we can see that Jesus' words in the Gospel today have come true. How many of your families are divided by Christ's Gospel values and our political leaders who do not share Christian ways? We see this every day with neither of the major political parties sharing our Gospel life. This makes it quite difficult when we vote or even have regular family reunion meals. Even church life divides families and others from staying away from the church. It's a shame we can let discourse and personal opinions cause some division and even hatred in the Body of Christ. We were given the special warning by Christ, but our other readings, namely, the psalm and the letter to the Hebrews remind us that the LORD will come to our aid and help us. The cloud of witnesses that have gone before us in faith have reminded us that we can carry on, with joy in the cross, with endurance, patience and trust. Let us "not grow weary and lose heart." But let us recognize that together, through mutual respect and dialog, we can grow together in Christ's ways and ignite our earth with the blaze of the Holy Spirit.

Parish, SSS NEWS: In case you missed column in the summer and last two weeks I'll briefly repeat a few things. Due to the health needs of Deacon Joe and Father Bob Chabot, their healthcare professionals have urged that they live and now minister at Regina Health Center in Richfield. The religious orders of the Diocese of Cleveland, with the SSS being one of them, created this facility in 1993 with three levels of health care for religious, the religious' family members and then, if room, for the general public. There is a beautiful chapel (with Mass every day at 11:00 a.m.) that is the focal point of this facility. We will express our gratitude to them for their tremendous service to SPB on September 8 at the 10:00 a.m. Mass, with a reception to follow.

You may visit, write or call our SSS men there, for now we have four (Bro. Eugene Blee and Fr. Bob Pittman as well): Regina Health Center, 5232 Broadview Road, Richfield OH 44286-9608, (330-659-4161).

- Our 6th pastor has returned to northeast Ohio in retirement. Fr. Tony Schueller became the pastor (as well as maintaining his role and Provincial Superior) of our SSS parish, Saint Joseph, in the heart of downtown San Antonio. Fr. Mario has returned here to take up the schedule that was Fr. Tony's, assisting at neighboring convents and parishes. From time to time, you will see Fr. Mario greeting you at the door of the church. Welcome back, Fr. Mario!
- The Blessed Sacrament Community announces Fr. John Christman, SSS, is the new Emmanuel editor, replacing Fr. Anthony Schueller, SSS. (Fr. Tony, as many of you know, has moved to be pastor in San Antonio, while still being Provincial Superior of our Province. Fr. Tony will have a new role with the magazine as Senior Editor). We are sad to have Fr. John's term come to an end, but so grateful for his wonderful service to SPB for the last 6 years.
- Beginning Monday, October 1, 2019, Fr. Mike Arkins, SSS will be SPB's new Senior Parochial Vicar, after the completion of Fr. John's term as Parochial Vicar. Fr. Mike was the 7th pastor of SPB, and we are very happy to welcome him back in this new role. Welcome back, Fr. Mike!

- We have been asking your advice prior to a formal survey to every parishioner about our Mass times. As folks have been giving me feedback, first through the formal meetings of the Pastoral Council, Liturgy Commission and Pastoral Staff, and now through reading the bulletin and submitting a comment either in person, by phone, email or the little coupon below, I have received feedback specifically about the Sunday evening Mass. Is 7:00 p.m. too late? I've recently had requests, especially from families, to have the Mass at 5:00 or 6:00 p.m. We are revisiting our Mass times due to the demographic changes, and the needs of our liturgical ministers. We are blessed with plenty of priests, unlike many parishes that change their Mass times due to the lack of ordained. However, we are not the same parish we once were – and when we have Holy Days of Obligation (like the Assumption or Christmas) we are so scattered and divided in the pews. We notice how important our unified participation should be as one Body. So, I'll ask the question a little more broadly this week before we send out a survey: What Mass time would work best for you/your family? Name the time!

This Mass time works best :                      Saturday: _____
    Sunday: _____

Pilgrimage Petitions & Meeting: Our parish pilgrimage to Italy is coming soon. We will be having an orientation meeting for those going, Wednesday, August 21, 7:00 p.m. in the Saint Julie Billiart Room. We realize not everyone is able to go – but we want you to be with us! Please fill out the box below with a prayer request. We will pray for your intention at the many shrines and Masses we visit.

PRAYER REQUEST

Please pray for:

Living Liturgy – Part 8: “Saying Amen – Loud and Clear” The communion ministers and I were joking recently that we thought we are becoming deaf, since we are not hearing quite so clearly anymore the “Amen” when we make the faith statement and distribute the Body & Blood of Christ. When we say, “The Body of Christ,” and/or “The Blood of Christ,” we are speaking quite profoundly, and making a faith statement. We respond in kind with a resounding, “Amen.” This word unites all faiths, all languages and cultures. We do not say any other phrase – for this word, from the Hebrew, sums it all up in two syllables. We say this powerful word regularly through the Mass to give assent to our beliefs, to acknowledge prayers, and to participate in the unity of the Body of Christ. Say it proudly and loudly, proclaiming to the world what people have been martyred for over the centuries and even now: We ARE the Body of Christ – we believe and say it is so!

Special Thanks for the Saint Ann Triduum: What a wonderful Triduum this year with the great participation from folks come from across the nation to celebrate with us the patron of children, healing and heart, Good Saint Ann! I thank the great volunteers who helped Saint Ann Shrine Staff and me, for their dedication and nightly service to this special prayerful, retreat event: Roberta Modica, Ken DiSanto, Jerry Kazimir, Jimmy Kalina, George Zagar, Dick Kramer, Joan McHugh and Rosalie Lewis. We couldn't have done it without your leadership and care! Lastly, we thank our servers, but especially our leader Kathryn Mailer for organizing them in the midst of their busy summer lives.

Preparing for A (Green) Knight to Remember: Your help is needed in getting donations, wonderful items to bid on such as get-a-away trips, tickets to shows and sites around NE Ohio, tours, wineries, you name it! Our committee is starting to work hard planning another wonderful gala to support our school. This year we are pleased to announce that we will honor two very special Green Knights of SPB: Deacon Joe Bourgeois, SSS and Mike Rossi. We hope you will purchase a table to honor and support these great Green Knights of SPB and support our school. These fundraisers benefit our children – our noble Green Knights – who love learning and get so ready and prepared for high school – to provide the best education in NE Ohio. With our superb faculty, and supportive folks like Deacon Joe and Mike and you – we create a wonderful place to enrich minds and nourish souls! Is FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 6:30 p.m. at LaVera Party Center on your calendar? For more info, please contact our Advancement Office director, Kelly Ericsson, at extension 112 or kelly@saintpaschal.com

The Week Ahead: Classes begin this week at award-winning school! We pray for another successful year with the theme of our capital campaign: Forward in Faith, Hope and Love. Let us continue to pray for each other!

Let's continue to pray for each other – and thanks for all you do for SPB, being such a great steward of God's many blessings and gifts that you offer so well!

In Christ our Eucharist,

Reverend John Thomas Lane, SSS, '79
Pastor – Tweet with me: @jtlanesss
