Prayer in the Presence of the Blessed Sacrament

Our Community at Prayer continues the tradition of keeping vigil until the LORD returns by visiting the Blessed Sacrament. Our prayer extends the blessings of the Mass, especially promoting Saint Peter Julian Eymard's methodology of the "four ends": adoration, forgiveness, thanksgiving and petition. The church and chapel are open for prayer from 7:00am to 7:00pm daily. The liturgical rite of the Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament occurs with special prayer events, such as Taizé Eucharist Holy Hours, the Saint Ann Triduum and the Saint Peter Julian Eymard Triduum.

A LETTER FROM FATHER LANE

13th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME: We continue our focus on the demands of discipleship – both on the instruction and the rewards of discipleship. The demands are quite radical; the rewards are quite remarkable. Jesus offers three examples of the costs of discipleship: two of them reflect the family setting and the third is taken from the context of Roman execution. In all three cases, Jesus insists that if the disciples are not willing or able to measure up to the demands He makes, they are not worthy of becoming His disciples.

The first example challenges the ties of kinship that are marked by natural love or affection. Jesus insists these bonds must take second place to commitment to Him. Such a demand not only causes suffering and a sense of loss, it could also alienate disciples from their loved ones.

Jesus references the carrying of the cross, what He will do for His disciples and what we are to do for the fellow disciples, too. Jesus plays with the idea of finding and losing – to find one's life means to live only on one's own terms and in one's own self-centered framework. This can give only temporary satisfaction; it cannot guarantee a life of ultimate fulfillment – as we know.

Jesus does share the benefits of discipleship, showing us first, the link between the disciples and Jesus. Since Jesus was the agent of God sent into the world to accomplish God's plan, and since the disciples are agents of Jesus sent into the world to continue that mission, those who are open to the disciples are also open to Jesus and to God. It is clear that the disciples are in a privileged position in the society, and one of the rewards of faithfulness to God is being blessed. We see this from the first reading today from the second Book of Kings. The Shunemite woman is blessed with a son – God rewards this woman for her kindness and faithfulness to the prophet. We know all too well how God has blessed us and given us more than we even knew possible because of our faithfulness to God – at many costs to ourselves – but for the glory of God.

The letter to the Romans reminds us of our Baptism and our entering into the paschal mystery of discipleship. At Baptism, we received death and life. Through Baptism, we entered into Christ's death, and we died to life of selfishness and sin. Through our Baptism, we rose with Christ to a new life freed from everything that previously held us down. As glorious as this new life in Christ might be, it means at times dying to our ways and allowing for God's difficult ways to be realized. It is not easy to put the needs of others before our own, especially when everything around us encourages us to think first of "Number One." However, this is the very cost of discipleship we are asked to reflect on again this Sunday.

It is not easy to put the needs of others before our own, especially when everything around us encourages us to think first of "Number One." However, this is the very cost of discipleship we are asked to reflect on again this Sunday.

OUR COLUMN PICTURES: We remember the fabulous Mass with Bishop Michael Woost on June 11, the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ with the picture of the procession. The music was out of this world, bishop's homily amazing, the participation from our 2nd graders and their families remarkable, and the representation from our various ministries was precious. There was such a great spirit this day – building the Body of Christ! Thank you to all liturgical ministers and parishioners who participated. Special thanks to George Peko and the evangelization folks for organizing the free pizza party after the 4:30 PM Mass on June 17. We invited everyone to come, and you can see in the picture our friends who did enjoy. Remember, we are all invited to ask others to join in our faith and become Catholic. Who have you asked lately to be a disciple in our church?

SPECIAL THANKS TO THE LEMONADE STAND:

We are so grateful to the Verdone family and those who purchased lemonade both in the Highland Woods subdivision and in our own horseshoe parking lot for the parish school. We raised $580.00 to the cause. The thoughtfulness of our youth for wanting to support their school is so special.

PROJECTS AT WORK: Thanks for the anonymous gift in conjunction with many of your generous gifts to the maintenance fund (that first of the month second collection). We are not only able to pay off our loan, but do some much-needed improvements which you are seeing in and around campus. The original steps to Father O'Brien Hall needed to be replaced for an emergency exit access and the Early Childhood Wing of our Catholic school (also original steps from 1955) were deteriorating and needed replacement and improvement! We are now accessible for this important entrance. Beginning tomorrow, your #weGIVECATHOLIC funds will be used to paint the entire hallways of the school, too. We are also improving the area outside of the Eymard Room for additional usage of space with plans for a patio for outside gatherings. One other project to be completed through the summer, too, is the moving of the preschool playground next to the preschool. Again, thanks for your generous donations to this special line item of capital improvements of our campus (and not the regular operational funds which that first collection supports each week).

BIBLE CAMP: This column is being written on June 20, but I know we will have just completed Bible Camp, and we will be hearing the theme song at our 10:30 AM Mass today. Thank you, Evamarie, and the many adult and youth volunteers who support this great summer ministry. Summer is never dull here at SPB! Reminders regarding two important summer events each year:

- BRING THE CHILDREN! We have our annual Triduum for Saint Ann, the patron saint of the SSS in the USA and the grandmother of Jesus, mother of Mary. This will begin the weekend of July 22/23 and continue the nights of July 24, 25 and 26 at 6:30 PM.

Fr. Paul Bernier, SSS, will be our special preacher and the schedule is in our parish calendar section for you to bring the children for a blessing, the sick for the anointing and all of us to join in a special candlelight procession.

• GETTING READY FOR THE EUCHARISTIC CONGRESS HERE:

Here's a kind reminder in our busy world to sign up for the Eucharistic Congress that we are hosting here at SPB. Sign up and attend: AUGUST 4-6. Look at blessedsacrament.com or the insert registration brochure to register. Give yourself a retreat, "Renewing Your Eucharistic Spirituality," the theme of the congress.

ALSO, THIS WEEK: I leave Tuesday for my vacation that was planned for 2020 and is now possible with enough accrued airplane miles. I will be visiting recently retired friends on the south shore of Portugal for a week, as well as my Dominican buddies in Ireland. See you back on July 20. Thanks for your prayers during this break, and I hope you'll be taking some time for yourself during summer, too. Let's all continue to pray for each other.

In Christ our Eucharist,

Very Reverend John Thomas Lane, SSS, '79
8th Pastor & 14th Provincial Superior

The Catholic Community Foundation can help our parishioners remember our parish in their estate plan:
"It's Time to Create or Update Your Will"

As the summer daylight hours lengthen, many of us pack more into our days. Be sure to block off 20 minutes of time to create or update your will. Head over to www.catholiccommunity.org/freewill to use the FREE online will-maker platform offered to our parishioners, compliments of the Catholic Community Foundation of our diocese.

CREATE YOUR CATHOLIC LEGACY: When you make plans to leave a gift to our church, you demonstrate your gratitude to God for all the gifts with which God has blessed you. You also give witness to family and friends as to the importance of your faith, and at the same time, blessing the lives of those who will benefit from your generosity. Whether you make a gift to continue a ministry at your parish to help sustain the good works of Catholic Charities, to provide a Catholic education to students, to ensure the formation of priests, or to help another ministry of the Diocese of Cleveland, or the Blessed Sacrament Community, you are passing along the tradition of our Catholic faith. Your gift is part of your legacy and builds on the faith of so many and the facilities we enjoy because of them. Questions? CENTER for PASTORAL LEADERSHIP

THE FEST: Everything You Love About Summer! The highlight of the summer is one month away! Join us for The FEST on Sunday, August 6 at the Center for Pastoral Leadership for all the things you love most about summer. Live music (Chris Tomlin, Jeremy Camp, Big Daddy Weave, Katy Nichole), great food, free giveaways, activities for the whole family, an incredible fireworks display and so much more – all for FREE! Be sure to invite your family and friends to join you for the perfect summer day on August 6! Details at www.theFEST.us.

BECOMING FIRE: This annual event draws more than 200 Catholic young adults together from the 8-County Diocese of Cleveland for an evening of food, fun, inspiring messages, and an opportunity to personally encounter Jesus Christ in Mass and Eucharistic Adoration. Their hope for this event is that young adults feel enabled to share their faith and engage in community with other Catholic peers – leaving with a newfound conviction and excitement to go out to their parishes, workplaces and the greater community to share the love and mission of Jesus Christ. Audience: Young Adults! When: Saturday, August 12th, 2023 from 4:00 PM till 10:30 PM Where: Center for Pastoral Leadership (28700 Euclid Avenue, Wickliffe, OH 44092). If you cannot attend, you can also support the event by being a sponsor. For both options, you can register/sponsor by going to <https://www.becomingfirecle.com/sponsor>.

On this Independence Day I am reminded of all those who have sacrificed for my freedom, following the example of your Son, Jesus Christ. Let me not take my freedom, both physical and spiritual, for granted. May I always remember that my freedom was purchased with a very high price. My freedom cost others their very lives.

Lord, today, bless those who have served and continue to give their lives for my freedom. With favor and bounty meet their needs and watch over their families.

Help me to live my life in a way that glorifies you, Lord. Give me the strength to be a blessing in someone else's life today, and grant me the opportunity to lead others into the freedom that can be found in knowing Christ.

Amen.
