A LETTER FROM FATHER LANE

14th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY

TIME: I am always grateful to Fr. Mike who offers reflections on the Sunday scriptures when I am away on vacation. Elsewhere in the bulletin, you will enjoy this gift of his. Fr. Mike has always been a great “yoke” to me for his support! Besides Christ, as we will hear in the Gospel, thank God for the other people today who are that great support, who keep us steady.

OUR COLUMN PICTURES: Children’s Liturgy of the Word is one of our highlights in our parish at the 10:30 AM Mass each Sunday. Please consider offering your gifts and talents to this ministry: see George Peko or call him at extension 108 or email him at psr@saintpaschal.com. This is one way we share our faith with our youth; we are so grateful for the team that has been serving in this ministry — some for 14 years! The other picture for the column is the Saint Ann Triduum procession with the Blessed Sacrament in 2022, where we still wore masks. See below for more details.

SAINTS THIS WEEK: On Tuesday, we will enjoy Saint Benedict, and he reminds us of our need to have a balanced life between work and prayer: ora et labora. This phrase has guided many a person in developing in their spirituality. Thursday, we have Henry and his wife Cunegunda who helped the poor and were oblates (like a third order of the Benedictines). His leadership truly guided a generation. Friday, we focus on Kateri Tekakwitha, who is buried near Montreal and is the first Native American saint. Reading her heroic story and attending the Native American National Museum in Washington, D.C. helps remind us why our baseball team needed to reform its name – and we pray for those still who have a challenge with change for the betterment of others. We end the week, Saturday, with Bonaventure, who makes us all want to be smarter and learn more as we age. Hopefully, these saints will mean something for our reflection this week in our call to holiness and growth.

CONTEST WITH OUR YOUTH: It’s not too late to remember to go to church each Sunday and save a bulletin for our contest to win a PlayStation 5. Our PSR and Day School students are requested to go to church, even if it is not here, while they are on vacation, and to save the bulletins to turn in for the first day of school – either school. Our day school returns on Wednesday, August 23 (with the first Mass the next day, Thursday, August 24), and our PSR starts on Monday, September 11 at 6:30 PM in church.

ENJOY OUR SUMMER RELIGIOUS PRACTICES AND SPIRITUALITY:

I am grateful for Mona for helping us restart our Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament on Thursdays, praying from after the Morning Mass until into the evening. Remember, you are welcome to come for Mass every day at 9:00 AM in church or 11:30 AM in Saint Ann Shrine. We also have the bookends or hinges of liturgical prayer, in our parish on weekdays, with Morning Prayer at 8:00 AM and Evening Prayer (in the church’s chapel) at 4:45 PM. We have books and friends to support and teach you. We also have our annual events:

- BRING THE CHILDREN! We have our annual Triduum for Saint Ann, the patron saint of the SSS in the USA, and the grandmother of Jesus, mother of Mary. This will begin the weekend of July 22/23 and continue the nights of July 24, 25 & 26 at 6:30 PM. Fr. Paul Bernier, SSS, will be our special preacher and the schedule is in our parish calendar section for you to bring the children for a blessing, the sick for the anointing and all of us to join in a special candlelight process.
- GETTING READY FOR THE EUCHARISTIC CONGRESS HERE: Here’s a kind reminder in our busy world to sign up for the Eucharistic Congress that we are hosting here at SPB. Sign up and attend: AUGUST 4-6. Look at blessedsacrament.com or the insert registration brochure to register. Give yourself a retreat, “Renewing Your Eucharistic Spirituality,” the theme of the congress.

PRAYERS FOR TRAVELS: As mentioned above, Father Paul will be preaching our Saint Ann Triduum; his family has him on vacation right now, and I am on my vacation with friends who have graciously taken me in on the south shore of Portugal for a week, and my Dominican buddies will be vacationing with me in Ireland. See you back on July 20. Thanks for your prayers for this break, and I hope you’ll be taking some time for yourself during this summer, too. Let’s continue to pray for each other.

In Christ our Eucharist,

Very Reverend John Thomas Lane, SSS, ‘79
Pastor & Provincial Superior

FR. MIKE’S SCRIPTURE REFLECTION

In this weekend’s Scriptures, especially in the Gospel passage from Matthew, we are given an insight into our discipleship. We heard Jesus talking (praying) to the Father. He humbles Himself and acknowledges the Father’s role in His life and His mission. He encourages His first disciples to imitate Him and go to God frequently in prayer: thanking God for what He is doing in their lives and asking for the help they need. Sometimes, I think we are “too adult.” We tend to try and take care of everything ourselves. Only when we are about to be “crushed” do we think about going to God. Jesus said, “learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart.” To go to God or anyone requires humility. Think of the “little ones,” children who go to their parents with everything, whether it is important or not. Jesus promised His first disciples, and us, that He will help us whether it is important or not. Paul, in writing to the community of Rome, reminded them about their Baptisms and how in that ritual the Spirit was given to them and dwells in them. That Spirit gives them life – not just the promise of eternal life, but new life right now. In the passage from Zechariah, the prophet told the Jewish believers that they would experience peace, and that the one who would lead them to this peace would be “meek riding on an ass,” not a strong and powerful warrior as many of them thought.

The nightly news emphasizes the need for God’s peace in our world. Peace between warring factions, the violence on our city streets, even the violence in families. Maybe we have not been touched personally by these incidents, but as Christ’s disciples in our world today, are we not called to be concerned? How often do we think about bringing these issues to God?

Each Eucharist offers us the opportunity to bring our joys, our concerns, and ourselves to God. Do we take advantage of this opportunity?

Held at the Center for Pastoral Leadership in Wickliffe, Ohio

BECOMING FIRE: This annual event draws more than 200 Catholic young adults together from the 8-County Diocese of Cleveland for an evening of food, fun, inspiring messages, and an opportunity to personally encounter Jesus Christ in Mass and Eucharistic Adoration. Their hope for this event is that young adults feel enabled to share their faith and engage in community with other Catholic peers – leaving with a newfound conviction and excitement to go out to their parishes, workplaces and the greater community to share the love and mission of Jesus Christ. Audience: Young Adults! When: Saturday, August 12th, 2023 from 4:00 PM until 10:30 PM Where: Center for Pastoral Leadership (28700 Euclid Avenue, Wickliffe, OH 44092). If you cannot attend, you can also support the event by being a sponsor. For both options, you can register/sponsor by going to <https://www.becomingfirecle.com/sponsor>.

READINGS: Gather 1131 - Cycle A

Mass of Spirit and Grace by Ricky Manalo, CSPChoir Song for Quiet Prayer and Call to Worship: In the Arms of God*Text/Tune: Tony E. Alonso @ 2009, GIA.*Gathering: By Our Love*By our love, by our love, they will know we are Christians by our love.Not by words, but how we live, yes, they'll know we are Christians by our love, by our love.*

1. When we feed the hungry, they will know by our love, lifting up the lowly, by our love, by our love.
We are one in the Spirit, we are one in the LORD, and we pray that all unity may one day be restored.
2. Welcome to the stranger, they will know by our love, shelter for the homeless, by our love, by our love.
We will walk with each other, we will walk hand in hand, and together we'll spread the news that God is in our land.
3. Freedom to the captive, they will know by our love,
comfort to the broken, by our love, by our love,
We will work with each other, we will work side by side, and we'll guard each one's dignity and guard each one's pride,.

1. As we proclaim your death, as we recall your life, we remember your promise to return again.
2. The bread we break and share was scattered once as grain: just as now it is gathered, make your people one.
3. We eat this living bread, we drink this saving cup: sign of hope in our broken world, source of lasting love.
4. Hold us in unity, in love for all to see; that the world may believe in you, God of all who live.
5. You are the bread of peace, you are the wine of joy, broken now for your people, poured in endless love.
