The church and chapel are open for prayer from 7:00am to 7:00pm daily. The liturgical rite of the Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament occurs with special prayer events, such as Taizé Eucharist Holy Hours, the Saint Ann Triduum and the Saint Peter Julian Eymard Triduum.

A LETTER FROM FATHER LANE

16th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME & OUR COLUMN PICTURES: This week's pictures remind us of the great aspects that make us the SPB community: our parish festival Spring Fling, our Masses and our special events (such as the Saint Ann Triduum and our Eucharistic Congress this year). Thank you for joining in these events to grow as a parish, and in your own spirituality and devotions.

This Sunday also holds a special new tradition that Pope Francis added to our liturgical calendar (due to the proximity of Saints Ann & Joachim). We wish our grandparents a very happy and special day, especially calling upon those of heaven to guide us still.

SAINTS THIS WEEK: A special feature this summer while I have written this column ahead of my vacation. I have been focusing on the great "summer" saints. The church gives them to us at this time of the year when we need them. During the Saint Ann Triduum, we have four great saints for our focus. First, we enjoy the Lebanese Sharbel Makhlef, who taught us the value of poverty, self-sacrifice and prayer. Tuesday, we focus on James who went to the "ends of the earth," (well, Spain at least as we call it now) to be struck down as the first apostle to be martyred. Wednesday, we celebrate the grandparents of Jesus, Joachim and Ann. Bring your grandparents to church this week for this special Triduum of grace. Bring the children and think of their needs by having them blessed on Monday, the sick who will be cared for on Tuesday and evangelizing with the Eucharist on Wednesday. Lastly, Saturday's saints have been added! We used to just remember Martha on this day, but in 2021, Pope Francis "upgraded" the celebrations to an obligatory memorial for both her sister and brother, Mary and Lazarus. Nice to remember the three siblings and their role in caring for Christ. May we do the same with our siblings as we give them special prayers on Saturday.

BECOMING CATHOLIC: A few days ago, we had our pizza party, in which everyone at the 4:30 PM Mass was invited to participate. As we remember Mary Magdalene on Saturday, it's a good chance for us to remember our role now as evangelists, sharing our faith, our church life and encourage folks to attend Mass, become Catholic or complete their sacraments in the Catholic church. Please contact the parish office to sign up for our Sunday morning sessions to learn about the faith and join in becoming a Catholic Christian.

ENJOY OUR SUMMER RELIGIOUS PRACTICES AND SPIRITUALITY: I am grateful for Mona for helping us restart our Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament on Thursdays, praying from after the Morning Mass until into the evening. Remember, you are welcome to come for Mass every day at 9:00 AM in church or 11:30 am in Saint Ann Shrine. We also have the bookends (or hinges of liturgical prayer) in our parish on weekdays, with Morning Prayer at 8:00 AM and Evening Prayer (in the church's chapel) at 4:45 PM. We have books and friends to support and teach you. We also have our annual events:

- REMINDER OF THE THREE HOLY NIGHTS: Fr. Paul Bernier, SSS will be our special preacher MONDAY-WEDNESDAY, and the schedule is in our parish calendar section for you to bring the children for a blessing, the sick for the anointing and all of us to join in a special candlelight process.
- EUCCHARISTIC CONGRESS IS IN TWO WEEKS: Here's a kind reminder in our busy world to sign up for the Eucharistic Congress that we are hosting here at SPB. Sign up and attend: AUGUST 4-6. Look at blessedsacrament.com or the insert registration brochure to register. Give yourself a retreat, "Renewing Your Eucharistic Spirituality," the theme of the congress.

I hope you have been having a great, spiritual summer! Let's continue to pray for each other.

In Christ our Eucharist,

John Thomas Lane

Very Reverend John Thomas Lane, SSS, '79
Pastor & Provincial Superior

P.S.: Next weekend, pray for Blessed Sacrament Father Mark del Rosario, SSS, who is our first non-American Blessed Sacrament priest to become a pastor in our San Antonio Riverwalk parish. I'll be there to present him to the bishop in my role as provincial. This is a special event in the life of the Congregation of the Blessed Sacrament as the daughter province (the Philippines) is now helping/serving the mother province of Saint Ann (USA). Let us pray for vocations to serve the church around the world as associates, religious sisters, brothers, deacons and ordained priests in the Congregation of the Blessed Sacrament. Thank you for supporting our vocation here at SPB.

FR. MIKE'S SCRIPTURE REFLECTION

The Scriptures this weekend, especially the Gospel, invite us to reflect on our growth as disciples. The passage from Wisdom reminded us that God is just, yet patient and forgiving. He allows good and evil to co-exist, but He will take care of it.

In the Gospel passage from Matthew, Jesus told three parables about the kingdom, and all of them dealt with the concept of growth as disciples. The story about the weeds and the wheat acknowledges that the kingdom is not yet perfect. The story about the mustard seed reminds us that great things can come from the littlest seed. The story about yeast points out that things are not always as they appear. Yeast is relatively insignificant; yet, think about what it has the potential to do. The seed and the yeast of the kingdom have been implanted in each of us, and us as a parish community.

In the Gospel, the disciples approach Jesus and ask for an explanation of the parables, of what was happening. We, too, need to approach Jesus and ask for explanations. Sometimes, we are shy about doing this.

Paul, in writing to the Romans, told them (and us) not to be afraid, that the Spirit within us knows what to say and how to ask.

Reflecting on these parables reminds me of a poem by Archbishop Oscar Romero that I would like to share with you:

We accomplish in our lifetime only a tiny fraction of the magnificent enterprise that is God's work. Nothing we do is complete, which is a way of saying that the kingdom always lies beyond us.

This is what we are about. We plant the seed that one day will sprout. We water seeds already planted, knowing that they hold future promise.

We lay foundations that will need further development. We provide yeast that produces far beyond our capabilities.

We cannot do everything, and there is a sense of liberation in realizing that. This enables us to do something, and to do it very well. It may be incomplete, but it is a beginning, a step along the way, an opportunity for the Lord's grace to enter and do the rest.

We may never see the end results, but that is the difference between the master builder and the worker. We are workers, not master builders, ministers, not messiahs. We are prophets of a future not our own. AMEN.

We are so appreciative, too, for those who give special attention to our second collections and fill out the special form in MyEoffering. Second collections are assigned by the USCCB, Diocese of Cleveland, and the requests from our parish groups. Here's a reminder for the month ahead:

- JULY 30 – OUR HELPING HANDS MINISTRY: Thanks for supporting our outreach ministry to those most in need. From our clothing, blanket and food collections, to our commitment in going to several venues to serve the homeless, your undying support keeps this special justice ministry working hard throughout the year – even on holidays! Thank you for your great support!
- AUGUST 6 – REPAYMENT OF LOAN & MAINTENANCE: Our regular debt reduction on the first Sunday of the month! We look forward to introducing them to you when they arrive (as soon as homeland security clears the last hurdle!).

- AUGUST 20 – FAITH & VALUES FOR CATHOLIC EDUCATION: This second collection, sponsored by our own diocese for all of our Catholic schools, provides scholarship funds that support hundreds of children, including about 40 for our own parish Catholic school. Thanks for your generosity!
- AUGUST 27 – OUR SUMMER MAINTENANCE PROJECTS: This collection supports our Catholic school and the improvements we make in the summer such as waxing the hallways. We are also adding new classroom signs.

Whether you make a gift to continue a ministry at your parish to help sustain the good works of Catholic Charities, to provide a Catholic education to students, to ensure the formation of priests, or to help another ministry of the Diocese of Cleveland, or the Blessed Sacrament Community, you are passing along the tradition of our Catholic faith.  who leads all to the golden gate, we pray that you will intercede and hear our prayers.

(pause in silence and pray your intention)We join this intention with all the saints to dedicate our lives to the glory of God's service and care.

Through Christ our LORD. Amen.
