COME, SHARE THE MASTER'S [JOY].

Saint of the Week

Saint Henry was born in 972 to Henry, Duke of Bavaria, Germany, and his wife Gisela of Burgundy. Saint Henry's early life was permeated with Christianity, among those who guided his education was Bishop Wolfgang of Ratisbon, who became a saint himself. In 995, Saint Henry succeeded his father as Duke of Bavaria, and in 1002, upon the death of his cousin, Otho III, he was elected emperor. In 1014, Saint Henry undertook the long journey from Germany to Rome to be crowned Holy Roman Emperor by Pope Benedict XIII.

In 1022 Saint Henry assisted Pope Benedict VIII in holding the Council of Pavia, which promoted clerical celibacy and sought to end simony (the buying and selling of ecclesiastical goods and offices). During his reign, Saint Henry used his wealth and position for the Church. He confirmed Benedict's authority over Rome, was a patron of churches and monasteries, supported the Cluniac Reforms, restored episcopal sees, and founded the Diocese of Bamberg where he built a cathedral. Saint Henry was married to Cunigunde of Luxembourg, to whom he was incredibly devoted. Although disputed by some historians, some stories of the couple's marriage report they took vows of chastity because their union was childless. Saint Henry died in July of 1024 and was canonized in 1146 by Pope Eugene III.

40 for 40: Diving Into The Mystery of the Eucharist in the Life of the Church

Day 1: The Beginning of Faith

From the Document: On March 27, 2020, at an early point in the global pandemic, Pope Francis walked alone in the rain across an empty St. Peter's Square to offer prayer for the world in a time of crisis. "Faith," he said, "begins when we realize we are in need of salvation. We are not self-sufficient; by ourselves we founder: We need the Lord, like ancient navigators needed the stars." Recalling when Jesus was asleep in the boat as a tempest was raging (Mk. 4:35-41), the Holy Father said, "The Lord awakens so as to reawaken and revive our Easter faith."

On that day, Pope Francis presided over the rite of Eucharistic Exposition and Benediction in order to focus our attention on the presence of Christ in the Blessed Sacrament. The Pope was reminding us that even in a time of turbulence and crisis, Jesus is present among us, as present as He was long ago in the boat on the Sea of Galilee.

--United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, The Mystery of the Eucharist in the Life of the Church, no. 1.

Reflect: The storms and turbulence of our daily lives, further complicated by societal strife and the pandemic, continually remind us that we need a Savior, that we need the Lord Jesus. The Holy Father reminds us that the Lord is here with us during the storm.

Jesus is here with us in many ways, including in our hearts, in Sacred Scripture, and in the midst of two or three of us gathered in His name (cf. Mt. 18:20). But in a singularly remarkable way, He is truly present in the Most Holy Eucharist, which gives life to the world (cf. Jn. 6:51).

At this critical moment in history, the Church is calling for a Eucharistic revival, so that we may more fully recognize and avail ourselves of this precious gift the Lord has bequeathed to His Church. Thank you for beginning this journey with us, as over the next 40 days we ponder this profound mystery with the eyes of faith.

Ponder: Do I realize that I need a Savior? If so, what do I need to be saved from? Am I open to what the Church teaches regarding the Eucharist? What do I hope to gain from this "40-for-40"?

I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world.

JOHN 6:51
