FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

At both of our parishes the people who help during the liturgies, especially those who read (lectors) and distribute the Body and Blood of Jesus (extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion) find themselves serving at almost every weekend Mass they attend. We're very grateful for their generosity, but we can certainly use the assistance of more ministers.

While these are important tasks, they are not difficult. Any Catholic capable of clearly reading aloud can serve as a lector. Any confirmed Catholic who is able to receive Communion (is not living in an objectively immoral situation) can serve as an extraordinary minister of Holy Communion.

In Berthold, we can use more of both ministers for Sunday Mass. In Stanley, we are in particular need of people able and willing to assist in both ways at Saturday Masses, and as lectors on Sundays. I especially urge our high school and younger adults to volunteer. If you are willing to offer your voice as a lector or your time as an extraordinary minister of Holy Communion, please contact me or let Sally or Troy know. Training is provided. Please, be generous to Jesus!

-Fr. Jason Signalness
