FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

As a priest, I offer the Mass every single day, even on Mondays when I may not be at the parishes. Mass is what a priest is made for! It is what our churches are built for! Mass should be the center of our lives as Catholics. That's why I'm saddened to see so few of our parishioners join me at the altar during weekday Masses. If you look at the schedule to the left, Mass is offered in Stanley six days a week. But often, lately, there has been only one or two people present besides myself, the Lord, and his angels. The reason I have decided to offer Mass at 7:15 a.m. is that those who work or live in town might be able to start their day with Mass before work. Daily Mass is a great help to me now, for sure. But I still recall when I was a layman with a regular job. I began attending Mass on my way to work and it helped to sanctify my whole day. It led me closer to the Lord and helped me discern the Lord's will for my life and to have the courage to follow him. In short, if you can, I encourage Stanley parishioners to drop in for Mass during the week now and then. And while you're there, if you're able, we can use more weekday lectors to help proclaim the Scriptures at those Masses. Often, I end up doing that myself.

-Fr. Jason Signalness

ALL CATHOLICS SHOULD KNOW...

17. The two types of indulgences.

To understand indulgences we must remember that sin results in both guilt and punishment. Guilt of sin is forgiven by Confession or, for venial sins, by an act of contrition. But we must still make reparation for forgiven sins by suffering punishment now or in Purgatory. Those punishments are called "temporal" because they will end, unlike the eternal suffering of Hell.

Indulgences do not forgive the guilt of sin. They don't remit eternal punishment in Hell. But they do lessen the temporal punishment we are due for our sins. They help someone already in a state of grace be purified of their imperfections and move toward Heaven.

The official Catechism defines "indulgence" as "The remission before God of the temporal punishment due to sin whose guilt has already been forgiven. A properly disposed member of the Christian faithful can obtain an indulgence under prescribed conditions through the help of the Church which, as the minister of redemption, dispenses and applies with authority the treasury of the satisfactions of Christ and the saints. An indulgence is partial if it removes part of the temporal punishment due to sin, or plenary if it removes all punishment."

Thus, the two types of indulgences are partial and plenary. A partial indulgence helps a soul with some of their Purgatory. A plenary indulgence, if obtained, helps a soul with all of their Purgatory, moving them straight to Heaven.

SAINTS ON THE HOLY MASS

When you look at the crucifix, you understand how much Jesus loved you. When you look at the Sacred Host, you understand how much Jesus loves you now.

St. Teresa of Calcutta

When the Eucharist is being celebrated, the sanctuary is filled with countless angels who adore the divine victim immolated on the altar.

St. John Chrysostom

If we really understood the Mass, we would die of joy.

St. Jean Vianney

The celebration of Holy Mass is as valuable as the death of Jesus on the cross.

St. Thomas Aquinas

Once, St. Teresa was overwhelmed with God's Goodness and asked Our Lord "How can I thank you?" Our Lord replied, "Attend one Mass."

When we receive Holy Communion, we experience something extraordinary – a joy, a fragrance, a well-being that thrills the whole body and causes it to exalt.

St. Jean Vianney

There is nothing so great as the Eucharist. If God had something more precious, He would have given it to us.

St. Jean Vianney

It would be easier for the world to survive without the sun than to do without Holy Mass.

St. Pio of Pietrelcina
