NEWS & EVENTS

Changes on Tuesday this week: Fr. Jason and the parish trustees will be attending a meeting in Williston. As a result, the Tuesday Mass for this week will take place in Stanley at 7:15 a.m. Adoration will take place as usual from 12:30 to 3:00 p.m.

Adoration Change: Unfortunately, due to our inability to find another person to commit to be present from 3-4 p.m. on Tuesdays, we will no longer offer Eucharistic adoration during that time. Going forward, Tuesday adoration will conclude immediately after the Chaplet of Divine Mercy is prayed at 3 p.m.

World Mission Sunday is next weekend: Pope Francis invites the entire Church to support mission dioceses in Africa, Asia, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe, where priests, religious and lay leaders serve the world's most vulnerable

Thirst Eucharistic Conference 2021: A free, one-day Eucharistic Conference is set for Saturday, Oct. 30 at the Bismarck Event Center. The general conference for adults will include various inspiring speakers including Dr. Ben Akers, Matt Fradd and Dr. Ray Guarendi (see Thirst 2021 Poster, in fellowship hall for speaker bios). The conference will also include a special Vacation Bible School (VBS) for youth ages 3 through grade 5 and the Diocesan Youth Conference (DYC) for youth grades 6-12.

For more information and to register visit bismarckdiocese.com/thirst.

ALL CATHOLICS SHOULD KNOW...

18. The four Cardinal Virtues.

A virtue is a “habitual and firm disposition to do the good.” If we have virtue, we easily do what is right and live truly happy lives. Virtues are categorized as either “theological” or “human.” The three theological virtues, infused by God, are faith, hope, and love. Rooted in these are the human virtues, which we acquire and strengthen by practice. Human virtues are defined as “firm attitudes, stable dispositions, habitual perfections of intellect and will that govern our actions, order our passions, and guide our conduct according to reason and faith. They make possible ease, self-mastery, and joy in leading a morally good life. The virtuous man is he who freely practices the good.”

The human virtues all “hinge upon,” are grouped around, the four “cardinal virtues.” They are so-called because the word “cardinal” is related to the word “hinge.” The four cardinal virtues are:

1. Prudence disposes the practical reason to discern, in every circumstance, our true good and to choose the right means for achieving it.
2. Justice consists in the firm and constant will to give God and neighbor their due.
3. Fortitude ensures firmness in difficulties and constancy in the pursuit of the good.
4. Temperance moderates the attraction of the pleasures of the senses and provides balance in the use of created goods.

With the help of God’s grace, we should all practice these virtues in our daily lives.

St. Joseph

Faithful Protector of Mother and Child

The infant Christ “came into our world in a state of great vulnerability. He needed to be defended, protected, cared for and raised by Joseph” (PC 5). The humble and often hidden carpenter of Nazareth accompanied Mary in her pregnancy, assisted at the birth of the Messiah in a stable, presented Jesus in the Temple, fled with his family far from their homeland to protect them, and lovingly raised Jesus as his own son in the years to come.

While the angel of the Lord appeared to Mary to announce that she would bring forth the Savior of the world, it was revealed to Joseph in a series of dreams how God’s plans would be brought to fulfillment. As Pope Francis highlights, “God trusted Joseph, as did Mary, who found in him someone who would not only save her life, but would always provide for her and her child” (PC 5).

Dear St. Joseph,
help us to imitate your faithful trust and courage.

Like every other human family, the Holy Family had to confront real and concrete challenges. Yet, “in every situation, Joseph declared his own ‘fiat’” (PC 3). His “yes” to the Lord meant that regardless of the hardship and personal sacrifice to himself, he consistently chose to put the needs of Mary and Jesus before his own. Joseph’s devotion helps reveal to us our own call to show special care for the lives of those whom God has entrusted to us.

During this Year of St. Joseph, each of us can find in him “an intercessor, a support and a guide in times of trouble” (PC, Intro). Joseph shows us how to say “yes” to life, despite our own fears, frailties, and weaknesses. For it is Joseph who was “chosen by God to guide the beginnings of the history of redemption. He was the true ‘miracle’ by which God saves the child and his mother” (PC 5).

May we, too, be miracles in the lives of those who are most in need, especially at the beginning and end of life. Dear St. Joseph, you who were “able to turn a problem into a possibility by trusting always in divine providence” (PC 5), help us to imitate your faithful trust and courage.

RPR Banquet with Dr. Stacy Trasancos:

The Real Presence Radio Network is looking for parishioners in our area to host tables at the annual fundraising banquet to be held at Williston State College on Tuesday, November 9th, 2021, beginning at 5:30 p.m. The featured speaker at the banquet is Dr. Stacy Trasancos. Dr. Trasancos is a scientist and theologian, has a doctorate in chemistry, a master's in dogmatic theology, and is a wife, mother of seven, and a grandmother. She worked as a chemist for DuPont before converting to Catholicism and radically restructuring her life. Leaving her career to say home with her kids, she went on to become a writer and educator. She is a nationally-recognized speaker on the intersection of theology and science and the author of three books on the topic. She has written numerous articles for Catholic journals and magazines, and has appeared across the nation on Catholic radio and television. Sponsor the event, host a table of eight, or join us as a guest! For more information about the event, or to become a table host, event sponsor, or register to attend as a guest, please call (877) 795-0122 or email jessica@realpresenceradio.com

The Knights of Columbus in Stanley will be having their annual Turkey Bingo on November 18th at 6:30PM. Coffee and bars will be served. See you there!
