

Sing one, two,
or three verses

Or

Sing all the verses

Parishioners were asked the question: How many verses in Mass do you like to sing?
Below are the responses.

Anonymous: During Easter and Christmas, I would like to sing all verses to all the hymns at Mass, other than that, just two verses!

Anonymous: I think we should sing all the verses. When we don't sing the last verse or two, it is like not finishing a prayer.

Anonymous: It depends! Entrance/Exit - one or two, offertory and Communion - sing until finished. I also think we should sing while people receive Communion. With that said, I am not offering my musical talent like Betty and Elonda, so they should choose! Musicians choice!

Anonymous: I like to sing all of them. All the verses are written for a reason.

Beautiful Eucharist

Father Jason held book discussions on Sundays in March. The book, Beautiful Eucharist, focuses on the real presence of Jesus in the Eucharist. Below are some comments from a few of the participants.

Betty Leith: What I like most about the book study is the time spent with people who genuinely want to grow in their faith. I was also inspired by the stories in "Beautiful Eucharist". I hope I will grow deeper in my love for receiving Jesus in Holy Communion.

Tamara Martens: The book is easy to read, has a different author for each chapter and good meaningful stories. I love where the discussions take us each week.

Jessica Wolter: It's wonderful to meet with my brothers and sisters in Christ to discuss the Eucharist. The fellowship is wonderful and the stories are relatable and inspiring!

THE KIDS CORNER

Why is Moses considered the biggest rebel in the Bible?
He broke all Ten Commandments at once.

The Rock

Some of our older students spent the evening at "The Rock" at Bishop Ryan. Father Steven Vetter spoke to the students about vocations and how to determine what your purpose is. Following Father's talk, we spent time in Adoration and were able to go to Confession. We ended the night with pizza and fellowship. A big thanks to Bishop Ryan for allowing us to attend, Father Jason for supporting the youth in these activities, Becky Goettle for always being willing to chaperone, and to Wyatt Nichols for driving the bus to Minot.
