A Note From Fr. Scott • Una Nota del Padre Scott

My Dear People,

The gospel for today causes us to think about how we hear the Word of God proclaimed to us. Do we really listen to what is said and do we act upon it? Is seed falling on good soil? We want to receive God's word in the rich soil of our understanding hearts, nurture it by Gospel living, and rejoice in the abundance of life that God offers to us.

In June several members of the Pastoral Council completed their terms. I am grateful to Tish Galu, Jeff Caiola and Kelly Browne for their faithful service as members of this council. I am happy to welcome Tom Driscoll to the Council from the Service Portfolio and Dr. Maihan Vu, the new Chair of the School Advisory Board. The Council will be choosing a new Secretary from among the membership to pick up where Kelly left off.

We continue our collection of toiletries for migrant workers in our area. Our donations have been so large for the last few years that Catholic Charities has coordinated pickup directly from us, and they are then distributed through a clinic in Moncure. Thanks to the Outreach Committee and JADES for collaboration in this effort, and to all of you who are helping local field workers with your donations. You can bring toiletries (shampoo, soap, toothpaste, etc) to the baskets in the narthex until August 17.

St. Thomas More Catholic School is currently accepting applications for the new staff position of "Safety Coordinator." Please see the advertisement in this bulletin for more information about this position.

This Friday will be leaving for a week's vacation with two of my classmates from the seminary. I look forward to this annual week away with my brother priests. Fr. Michael Antonacci, OSB, who is in residence in the parish will celebrate the 7:30 and 9:15 masses. Fr. Michael will be celebrating masses on a regular basis in the future at St. Thomas More. Fr. Michael Lasky, OFM., Conv., Associate Director of Catholic Campus Ministry at Duke, will celebrate the 1:30 mass.

In His Love,

Fr. Scott

Queridos Todos,

El evangelio de hoy nos lleva a pensar en la forma en que escuchamos la Palabra de Dios. ¿Realmente escuchamos lo que se dice y actuamos sobre ello? ¿Es semilla que cae en tierra buena? Queremos recibir la palabra de Dios en la tierra fértil de nuestros corazones comprensivos, nutrirla viviendo el Evangelio, y gloriándonos en la abundancia de la vida que Dios nos ofrece.

En junio varios miembros del Consejo Pastoral completaron sus términos. Agradezco a Tish Galu, Jeff Caiola y Kelly Browne por su fiel servicio como miembros de este consejo. Estoy feliz de dar la bienvenida a Tom Driscoll al Consejo representando la cartera de servicios y al Dr. Maihan Vu, el nuevo Presidente del Consejo Asesor de la Escuela. El Consejo elegirá un nuevo Secretario de entre sus miembros para continuar el trabajo que Kelly comenzó.

Continuamos con nuestra colección de artículos de higiene personal para los trabajadores migrantes de nuestra zona. Nuestras donaciones han sido tan grandes en los últimos años que Caridades Católicas ha coordinado la recogida directamente con nosotros, y están distribuidos a través de una clínica en Moncure. Gracias al Comité de Divulgación y al grupo JADES por la colaboración en este esfuerzo, y a todos ustedes que están ayudando a los trabajadores de campo locales con sus donaciones. Usted puede traer artículos de higiene personal (champú, jabón, pasta de dientes, etc) para las canastas en el nártex hasta el 17 de agosto.

La Escuela Católica de St. Thomas More está aceptando solicitudes para el nuevo puesto de "coordinador de seguridad." Por favor, vean el anuncio en este boletín para obtener más información acerca de esta posición.

Este viernes me iré de vacaciones por una semana con dos de mis compañeros de clase del seminario. Espero ansiosamente esta semana anual de vacaciones con mis hermanos sacerdotes. Fr. Michael Antonacci, OSB, quien se encuentra de residencia en la parroquia celebrará las misas de 07:30 y 09:15. Fr. Michael estará celebrando misas en forma regular en el futuro en St. Thomas More. Fr. Michael Lasky, OFM., Director Asociado del Catholic Campus Ministry en Duke, celebrará la misa de 1:30.

En Su Amor, Padre Scott

Readings for the Week of July 13 • Lecturas para la Semana del 13 de julio

"The seed sown among thorns is the one who hears the word, but then worldly anxiety and the lure of riches choke the word and it bears no fruit. But the seed sown on rich soil is the one who hears the word and understands it, who indeed bears fruit and yields a hundred or sixty or thirtyfold."

Mt 13:22-23

"Lo sembrado entre los espinos representa a aquel que oye la palabra, pero las preocupaciones de la vida y la seducción de las riquezas la sofocan y queda sin fruto. En cambio, lo sembrado en tierra buena representa a quienes oyen la palabra, la entienden y dan fruto: unos, el ciento por uno; otros, el sesenta; y otros, el treinta".

Stewardship Profile • Perfil de Corresponsabilidad

The Stewardship Profile appears in English one week, followed by the same profile in Spanish the following week.
El perfil de corresponsabilidad aparece en ingles una semana, seguido por el mismo perfil en español la semana siguiente.

Betty Beckerman

Betty graciously agreed to be the subject of the very first stewardship profile in May 2000, and told this story on herself.

Stewardship Profile #1
Betty Beckerman

A Ph.D. in communications from Ohio State, skill with electronic equipment, and experience as a concert singer didn't prepare Betty for her first time as a lector. "I changed the Mass. I went straight to the second reading." The Pastor, Fr. Paul Byron, with a gentle smile, told the congregation that though Betty tried to shorten the Mass, he thought they better go back and read all the parts she left out.

In 2000, space in the bulletin for a stewardship profile was limited to eight lines but Betty's obituary last week in the Chapel Hill News had space to do her justice:

After earning a Ph.D. in communications from Ohio State University (1968), she was employed by Shaw University (Raleigh, NC) to build and supervise the Radio-Television Department as well as radio station WSHA-FM (the third black educational radio station in the country) until 1972. She served as an associate professor of communications at the University of Kansas in Lawrence (1972-1975) before accepting a faculty position at University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill (1975-1983). At UNC-CH, she was the first woman to hold the position of Assistant Dean of Arts and Sciences; she received the Tanner Teaching Award for distinguished undergraduate teaching in 1983 just prior to retirement. She was a frequent speaker at national broadcasting conventions, served on many boards, including the Broadcast Education Council of the National Association of Educational Broadcasters, and was president of the North Carolina Chapter of Women in Communications (1981-1983).

At St. Thomas More, Betty trained the lectors. Jean Gilles remembered, "She was a professional – she knew what she was talking about. In a low-key way she made everyone better. She never told people what they were doing wrong but instead how to do it right. She taught us the mechanisms of speech - how to breathe from the diaphragm." Mike Komives said. "Betty illustrated breathing by telling us to lie on our backs with a book on our stomachs. If the book moved up and down about one inch, we were breathing correctly. She also suggested we find a good cadence and make sure we enunciate - each word is important. She would say, "We're just vessels, all we have to focus on is reading good copy."

The Chapel Hill News obituary said: "Dr. Beckerman was a devout member of the St. Thomas More Catholic Church." Betty concluded the first stewardship profile saying; "I get my strength and peace and energy from the people at St. Thomas More."

Stewardship Reflections • Reflexiones de Corresponsabilidad

May our stewardship of time, talent, and treasure show us to be among those who have heard the message of Christ and taken it in, yielding a hundred — or sixty — or thirty-fold!

¡Que nuestra administración de tiempo, talento y tesoro, nos muestre que estamos entre aquellos quines han escuchado el mensaje de Cristo y lo han aceptado, produciendo cien —sesenta — o treinta veces!

15TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Becoming Catholic • Haciéndose Catolico

Samuel heard God's voice in early youth; the good thief did not discover Jesus until hanging on a cross beside Him. No matter where we are in life, Jesus never ceases to invite each of us to know Him more intimately. He may be calling you in many ways. Perhaps Catholic family or friends have prompted you to explore our faith. Or maybe an experience of our worship, history, or morality has sparked your interest in learning more about Catholicism. Whatever your reason for seeking, Jesus Christ invites you to pursue it towards greater communion with Him. All who would like to explore the Catholic Church are invited to attend our weekly inquiry meetings on Wednesdays at 7 p.m. in the parish library. Bring any level of questioning or curiosity; no commitment is required. For more information, please contact our Director of Catechumenate, Aaron Sanders, at asanders@st-thomasmore.org.

Samuel escuchó la voz de Dios temprano en su juventud, el buen ladrón no descubrió a Jesús hasta que fue colgado en una cruz al lado de él. No importa dónde estemos en la vida, Jesús no cesa de invitar a cada uno de nosotros a conocerlo más íntimamente. Él te llama de muchas maneras. Tal vez la familia católica o amigos te han llevado a explorar nuestra fe. O tal vez una experiencia de nuestra adoración, la historia o la moralidad han despertado tu interés en aprender más sobre el catolicismo. Sea cual sea el motivo de tu búsqueda, Jesucristo te invita a seguirlo hacia una mayor comunión con El. Todos los que quieran explorar la Iglesia Católica están invitados a asistir a las reuniones de consulta semanales los miércoles a las 7 pm en la biblioteca de la parroquia. Traiga cualquier nivel de cuestionamiento o de curiosidad, no se requiere ningún compromiso. Para obtener más información, comuníquese con nuestro Director de Catecumenado, Aaron Sanders, en asanders@st-thomasmore.org.

Weekly Prayer for Peace – Every Wednesday from 11:45am-12:15pm in the church in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament, there will be a silent time for the parish to pray for peace in our world, communities, families and hearts. Each month there will be a different aspect of peace and non-violence as a suggested focus. For July, we begin in solidarity with the Fortnight for Freedom praying for freedom to serve and an end to religious persecution. Sponsored by the Non-violence and Peace Task Force.

Oración por la Paz Semanal - Todos los miércoles de 11:45 am-12: 15pm en la iglesia en presencia del Santísimo Sacramento, habrá un tiempo de silencio para que la parroquia para rece por la paz en nuestro mundo, las comunidades, las familias y los corazones. Cada mes habrá un aspecto diferente de la paz y la no violencia como un enfoque sugerido. Para julio, comenzamos en solidaridad con la Quincena por la Libertad de orar por la libertad de servir y el fin de la persecución religiosa. Patrocinado por el Task Force de la No-Violencia y la Paz.

Our respect for Creation should include both wonder and action. Can we reduce consumption? Can we reuse and recycle rather than discard? This is the early reminder that we'll be collecting recyclables on the weekend of the 4th Sunday of July, July 26/27. You've brought more than 350 lbs of batteries in 2014! Let's build on these small habits. Recycle your small batteries, eye-glasses, natural corks, and cell phones. They will either be re-used or recycled.

Nuestro respeto por la Creación debe incluir tanto asombro como acción. ¿Podemos reducir el consumo? ¿Podemos reutilizar y reciclar en lugar de descartar? Se trata de principios del recordatorio de que estaremos recolectando materiales reciclables en el fin de semana del cuarto domingo de julio, 26 de julio / 27. Han traído más de 350 libras de baterías en el 2014! Vamos a construir sobre estos pequeños hábitos. Recicle sus baterías pequeñas, gafas, tapones de corcho natural, y teléfonos celulares. Serán reutilizados o reciclados.

"Growing thru Grief," a grief care, grief support group, open to all who have lost a loved one, will continue through the summer, meeting every Tuesday at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, 1200 W. Cornwallis Road, Durham, NC. The program begins at 4:30 with a brief lecture followed by small group discussions. Come at 4:00 for registration, refreshments, and fellowship. For more information email growingthrugrief@gmail.com.

Next week our diocese will take up the Peter's Pence Collection, which provides the Holy Father with the funds he needs to carry out his charitable works around the world. The proceeds benefit the most disadvantaged: victims of war, oppression, and disasters. Join our Holy Father as a witness of charity to those who are suffering.

La próxima semana nuestra diócesis realizará la Colecta Peter's Pence, la cual le proporciona al Santo Padre los fondos necesarios para realizar sus obras de caridad en todo el mundo. Lo recaudado en la Colecta beneficia a los más desfavorecidos: a las víctimas de la guerra, de la opresión y de desastres. Únase a nuestro Santo Padre como un testigo de la caridad para los que sufren.

Eucharistic Ministers to the Sick – there will be an opportunity to prayerfully reflect on your ministry on Sunday July 13 from 3-4:30pm in the St. Anthony room. If you are able to attend, please contact Mary Ellen McGuire at 942-6230. Hope to see you there!

We urge you to read Archbishop Wenski's letter. It reflects the integration of the life issues of health and care for creation that have been central in many of Pope Francis' statements: http://bit.ly/1hFdXKh
On May 29, Miami Archbishop Thomas Wenski, Chairman of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishop's (USCCB) Committee on Domestic Justice and Human Development, wrote to EPA Administrator Gina McCarthy urging that the new carbon pollution rules on existing power plants should "protect the health and welfare of all people, especially children, the elderly, as well as poor and vulnerable communities from harmful pollution emitted from power plants and from the impacts of climate change."

Catequesis para Adultos - Invitamos a todos los adultos hispanos que fueron bautizados de niños pero nunca recibieron primera comunión o confirmación a registrarse en las oficinas parroquiales o a la salida de las misas en Español para iniciar su curso de Preparación Sacramental en Julio 2014. Estas clases de catecismo para adultos serán los domingos a las 12:00 m en el salón San Martin del centro parroquial. Quienes completen el curso recibirán sus sacramentos a finales de Noviembre. Clases de Catecismo para Niños y Jovenes - A partir del 20 de Julio y hasta el 31 de Agosto estaremos registrando niños y jóvenes para las clases de Catecismo. Cuando los niños inician el primer año de Escuela, entonces es el momento de inscribirlos a la preparación de Primera Comunión y cuando los jóvenes inician Noveno, es tiempo de registrarlos para la Confirmación. La preparación para sacramentos dura dos años. Usted puede también registrar a sus niños a clases regulares de Catecismo en cualquier año escolar no solo para recibir sacramentos pero para aprender más de nuestra fe. Las registraciones las pueden hacer en las oficinas parroquiales de lunes a viernes entre 8:30 a.m. y 4:30 p.m. o los domingos 14 y 28 de Julio después de la misa de 1:30 p.m. en la mesa de atención.
