BIENVENIDOS AL RINCÓN DE LOS DIÁCONOS...

¿Dios todavía nos habla? Sin duda, así es y anhela que tengamos una gran charla con Él todos los días. Dios nos habla todo el tiempo. La pregunta es: ¿tratamos de escucharlo o ahogamos Su voz con nuestras propias voces? Dios siempre está activo en nuestras vidas. Podemos encontrarlo hablándonos en las Escrituras, en los sacramentos, en nuestras oraciones, en la celebración eucarística y en nuestras interacciones unos con otros: familiares, amigos y comunidad. Escuchamos su voz no a través de nuestros oídos, sino a través de nuestro corazón, abiertos y humillados para recibir no sólo sus palabras sino su presencia, presencia real. Él quiere saber de ti pero también quiere asegurarte que siempre está a tu lado y que no temas porque te tiene en la palma de su mano. Manténgase quieto, abra su corazón y escuche la voz de Dios, y sepa que nada puede interponerse entre usted y Su gran amor por usted. -Díacono Jonatán

Sabías...

Las lecturas individuales del Leccionario se llaman perícopas, de una palabra griega que significa "sección" o "corte". Debido a que las lecturas de la Misa son solo partes de un libro o capítulo, a menudo se agregan frases introductorias, llamadas Incipits, para comenzar la lectura del Leccionario, por ejemplo, "En aquellos días", "Jesús dijo a sus discípulos", etc.

WELCOME TO THE DEACON'S CORNER

Does God still talk to us? No doubt He does, and He longs for us to have a great chat with Him each day. God does talk to us all the time. The question is, do we try to listen to Him or do we drown out His voice with our own voices? God is always active in our lives. We can find him talking to us in the scriptures, in the sacraments, in our prayers, in the Eucharistic celebration and in our inter-actions with one another – family, friends and community. We hear his voice not through our ears, but through our hearts, opened and humbled to receive not only his words but his presence – real presence. He wants to hear from you but also, He wants to reassure you that He is always at your side and be not afraid as He has you in the palm of His hand. Keep still, open your heart and hear God's voice, and know that nothing can come between you and His great love for you. -Deacon Jonathan

Did you know...

Individual readings in the Lectionary are called Pericopes, from a Greek word meaning a "section" or "cutting." Because the Mass readings are only portions of a book or chapter, introductory phrases, called Incipits, are often added to begin the Lectionary reading, for example, "In those days," "Jesus said to his disciples," etc.
