4TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Jesus said: "My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish." - Jn 10:27-28a

A MESSAGE FROM FR. DEPALMA

May is traditionally called the Marian month, a month where Catholics honor Mary as the Mother of God. What drives all Marian devotions is the doctrine that Mary, being the mother of Jesus, is therefore the mother of God. Because Jesus, from the cross, gave her to John as his mother, He gave her to all of us as well. As our mother, she cares for us with a maternal love that is both eternal and heavenly. Canadian columnist, Father Ronald Rolheiser, made an interesting distinction between the Mary of Devotion and the Mary of Scripture. The Mary of Devotion is held fondly in the hearts of Catholics, and she is the one to whom we show love by reciting the rosary, putting up her statues in our churches and homes, and through the various novena devotions. She is the one who prays with us while we are still "mourning and weeping in the valley of tears", a phrase from the Holy Queen that many of us know very well.

It is also important to know that every time Mary appears to people, it is always to those who are meek, humble, and nobodies in society. To date, Mary has never appeared to a big-wig investment banker, a captain of industry, or a leader of a country. Her choice of who to appear to has often been children, many of whom were uneducated, at least theologically, and those who had difficulties conveying her messages to the authorities. Indeed, her choice is for the poor and the humble. However, our devotion to Mary cannot be reduced to mere sentimentality. Devotion to the Blessed Mother has strong theological foundations that Catholics must never forget. Sentimentality, on the other hand, risks reducing our devotion to a superstition that is feeling- or fear-based, and can cause Catholicism to resemble a cult instead of being a religion that is reasonable and rational. To get our perspective right, it is the Mary of Scripture we should seek, and the Gospel gives us good reason to maintain our healthy devotion to Mary. Through Scripture, she helps us become true and proper disciples of Jesus, and shows us that she is indeed the model disciple. To see how her great qualities of discipleship are revealed in the Gospel, we must be paying attention to how she truly is. When Jesus said, those who listen to God's word and obey it are his mother, brother and sister. Mary also did not take offense at these words, while any other mother might have easily done so.

Mary's stance at the foot of the cross shows great humility – she did not shake her fist to heaven and cry vengeance for her innocent son's death. Her agony at Calvary mirrored her son's, which opened heaven's gate for us. See her agony as the pain of labor, like a mother when she undergoes the incredible pain of childbirth. Calvary is humanity's labor ward, where Mary's pain resulted in her becoming the mother of all humanity.

It is this Mary that is honored in our May devotions, and it is the same Mary who is crowned Queen of Heaven and Earth. How blessed we are to be able to call her Mother!

May, the Month of Mary

St. Therese of Lisieux—Priests' Prayer

O Jesus, Eternal Priest, keep your priests within the shelter of your Sacred Heart, where none may touch them. Keep unstained their anointed hands, which daily touch your sacred body. Keep unsullied their lips, daily purpled with your precious blood. Keep pure and unearthly their hearts, sealed with the sublime mark of your priesthood. Let your holy love surround them, and shield them from the world's contagion. Bless their labors with abundant fruit, and may the souls to whom they minister be their joy and consolation here on earth, and in heaven, their everlasting crown. Mary, Mother of Priests, pray for priests & vocations to the priesthood.
