A MESSAGE FROM FR. DEPALMA

To start my final pastor's column before moving on to Our Lady of Fatima, I absolutely have to begin with a great deal of gratitude and thanksgiving. First of all, I am so grateful to God for having me be your pastor for the past 11 years. It has been quite the journey, but it's been a wonderful experience. I have to thank my incredible staff here, Joyce Lucero, Berenice Vazquez, Mathias Bowie, Valerie Trask and the great volunteers that I've had, Margie and Anthony Delgado, Patrick Martinez, Mary Jackson, Gloria Lujan, John and JoAnn Montoya, Alexis Hernandez, Pete and Veronica Duran, Christie and Terry and so many more. And of course I have to thank my brother Phillip for being such a joyful greeter at the 9:00 Mass! And I definitely have to thank all of the collegians over the years who helped make LoboCatholic such a great part of not only this parish but also of my life. You all have been such a blessing for this parish. I of course need to thank God for all of you, my parishioners. Thank you so much for your prayers and thoughts and for your support, especially for the birthdays and anniversaries and holidays. I have been so blessed to have known so many generous people. But mostly I would like to thank you all for your faithfulness. Your going to Mass, your coming to confession, your supporting the parish has been an amazing thing to see. But do keep in mind that with the changing of the guard so to speak, with a change in pastors there will always be three types of people. The first are those of you who travel quite a ways to come here to the Newman Center and with my leaving, you will be staying closer to home. And of course, some of you will be going to not only a different parish but to a different town and maybe even a different state, as job or family situations will be causing you to move on to a new adventure. Remember your time here well and always keep us in your prayers as I will with you. The second group of people are those of you who are going to stay here at Newman. Well, some people are just Newman people! And I will definitely always keep you in my prayers. But for those of you staying do keep this in mind: there is no going back. If there is one thing that I have taught all of you over the years it's that it's all about our Lord Jesus Christ, the focus is all about him. There was a lot of goofiness liturgically speaking when I first arrived here, and that has been eliminated and Fr. Adrian will keep the ball rolling in that aspect as well. But keep being that light of truth and of hospitality for all those here at the University. And the third group of people are those of you who will be coming with me to Fatima. I thank you for your support as many of you have been with me for years and we will head off to meet new friends and to continue to do the Lord's work as we will see what's in store in this next chapter of our lives. But for all of you, I do want to say that it's been an incredible experience and I can say with all sincerity from the depth of my heart that these past 11 years have been the best years of my life. May God bless you and keep you, may the Holy Spirit always be close to you with all that you will need, and may our Lord Jesus bless you this day and all the days of your lives.

St. Therese of Lisieux—Priests' Prayer

O Jesus, Eternal Priest, keep your priests within the shelter of your Sacred Heart, where none may touch them. Keep unstained their anointed hands, which daily touch your sacred body. Keep unsullied their lips, daily purpled with your precious blood. Keep pure and unearthly their hearts, sealed with the sublime mark of your priesthood. Let your holy love surround them, and shield them from the world's contagion. Bless their labors with abundant fruit, and may the souls to whom they minister be their joy and consolation here on earth, and in heaven, their everlasting crown. Mary, Mother of Priests, pray for priests & vocations to the priesthood.
