DEAR PARISHONERS,

As we prepare our hearts and homes for the joyous season of Christmas and the celebration of our Savior's birth, I am moved to pause and express my profound gratitude for this beautiful parish family.

This past year, like any other, has presented its share of trials and triumphs. Through it all, your unwavering faith, dedication, and generosity have shone brightly, making every difference to the health and vitality of our parish family.

I offer a special word of thanks to all who generously give their time, talent, and treasure to sustain our parish and its many essential ministries.

Furthermore, my heart overflows with appreciation for the genuine love and tireless effort you pour into the LoboCatholic students. Your support—from providing warm meals to hosting them at the coffee bar—creates a true sense of home for these young people as they navigate their faith journey.

Thank you for being the living hands of Christ in our world. May the peace and joy of the Newborn King fill your hearts this Advent and Christmas season.

In His Abundant Grace,
FR. ADRIAN
