Catholic Social Teaching Corner

14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's Gospel records that Jesus was not believed or welcomed and this lack of faith was so distressing that he could work no miracles there except for a few healings. We might wonder about the skepticism and doubt of those contemporaries of Jesus, but that attitude might keep us from recognizing that we can be just as close-minded and skeptical. We are invited this Sunday to humbly examine our own attitudes toward the poor, immigrants, and the unborn; toward church teaching on economic justice, the environment and family life. Have we hardened our hearts to God's voice and presence like those of old?

What the World Needs Now; Boundless Compassion:

July 25

The retreat, from 9:30 am-2:30pm will be based on the book by Sister Joyce Rupp, "Boundless Compassion." The Gospels tell us to be compassionate and the question is how? This retreat will invite and challenge us to look for ways in which we can develop and embrace Our Lord's stance towards all of life. Beverly Collin, assistant director of Cedarbrake, will present this day. For more information contact Cedarbrake at (254) 780-2436 or visit www.cedarbrake.org.

Assumption of Mary Day of Reflection: Aug. 15

Sharon Perkins, former director of Evangelization and Catechesis for the Diocese of Austin, will lead this retreat, which includes Mass, from 9am to 2:30 pm. For more information contact Cedarbrake at (254) 780-2436 or visit www.cedarbrake.org.

Praying With Icons: Aug. 24-26

Iconography can be a profound way to pray. Missionary Oblates of Mary Immaculate Father Clyde Rausch will give this retreat. He served 29 years in Sweden as a missionary, where he learned Iconography. Fr. Rausch currently resides at the Oblate Renewal Center in San Antonio. For more information contact Cedarbrake at (254) 780-2436 or visit www.cedarbrake.org.

Fundraiser News

Country Store

It is not too soon to start making items for the Country Store. The Enchilada Dinner will be here before you know it. It was successful last year, but we can do even better this year for St. Ann. Everyone can donate something homemade: jewelry, sewed items, crochet and knitting items, etc. Food items, such as salsa, jams and jellies, and pickles are very popular. Plants are good items, too. Men, you can make birdhouses or any wood project will be appreciated. Art projects of all kinds are good, too. Remember, anything homemade. If you are interested in helping to coordinate this booth, or if you have any questions or for more information contact the Fundraiser Chairman Del Orozco at 713-703-7614.

Monetary Donations

Monetary donations are always welcome and can be placed in an envelope and dropped in the collection basket at any Mass or mailed directly to the office. Please note on the envelope if you want your donation to be applied to the meal, raffle, or auction to help with the costs.

As plans continue to evolve, Parishioners and Volunteers should think about what they can do to help make this fundraiser a success. Watch the bulletin every week to find out what will be needed and when we will be asking for certain items. The next planning meeting will be Tuesday, August 14, 2018 at 6:00 p.m. in the Family Center. Everyone is welcome to attend. See you on Tuesday!
