16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The second reading for the Liturgy this weekend speaks of Christ who is our peace. The peace to which Paul refers is that peace we now have with God through Christ since our separation from God has been healed by Christ's death and resurrection. Rooted as we now are in God's love and peace, we can be peace for others by our lives and actions. This peace is manifested most fully when we show respect to others, even our enemies. With God's grace and love, we can, through our thoughts, words and actions show only good will and respect to all thus spreading peace to our broken world. How can you be a peacemaker this week?

What the World Needs Now; Boundless Compassion:

July 25

The retreat, from 9:30 am-2:30pm will be based on the book by Sister Joyce Rupp, "Boundless Compassion." The Gospels tell us to be compassionate and the question is how? This retreat will invite and challenge us to look for ways in which we can develop and embrace Our Lord's stance towards all of life. Beverly Collin, assistant director of Cedarbrake, will present this day. For more information contact Cedarbrake at (254) 780-2436 or visit www.cedarbrake.org.

Assumption of Mary Day of Reflection: Aug. 15

Sharon Perkins, former director of Evangelization and Catechesis for the Diocese of Austin, will lead this retreat, which includes Mass, from 9am to 2:30 pm. For more information contact Cedarbrake at (254) 780-2436 or visit www.cedarbrake.org.

Praying With Icons: Aug. 24-26

Iconography can be a profound way to pray. Missionary Oblates of Mary Immaculate Father Clyde Rausch will give this retreat. He served 29 years in Sweden as a missionary, where he learned Iconography. Fr. Rausch currently resides at the Oblate Renewal Center in San Antonio. For more information contact Cedarbrake at (254) 780-2436 or visit www.cedarbrake.org.

Country Store

It is not too soon to start making items for the Country Store. The Enchilada Dinner will be here before you know it. It was successful last year, but we can do even better this year for St. Ann. Everyone can donate something homemade: jewelry, sewed items, crochet and knitting items, etc. Food items, such as salsa, jams and jellies, and pickles are very popular. Plants are good items, too. Men, you can make birdhouses or any wood project will be appreciated. Art projects of all kinds are good, too. Remember, anything homemade. Thank you to Peggy Jablonski who has volunteered to chair this booth.

Monetary Donations

Monetary donations are always welcome and can be placed in an envelope and dropped in the collection basket at any Mass or mailed directly to the office. Please note on the envelope if you want your donation to be applied to the meal, raffle, or auction to help with the costs.

Live and Silent Auction News

It is time to start gathering items for the live and silent auction. A donation letter is available to give to potential donors. We are asking everyone to start gathering donation items from individuals or businesses. A volunteer or volunteers are needed to chair the live and/or silent auction booths. To volunteer or if you have any questions or for more information contact the Fundraiser Chairman Del Orozco at 713-703-7614.
