~ FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK ~

Today's Gospel ^{Lk 17:11-19} tells the story of ten lepers healed by Jesus; yet only one, a Samaritan, returns to give thanks. At first glance, it seems a lesson about gratitude. But look closer: even healed, the Samaritan was still considered unclean and excluded from Jewish society, yet he recognized God's mercy in an unexpected place.

The other nine likely assumed their healing came from following the law, missing the true source of their salvation. We, too, often forget that God is the source of mercy and salvation, and we mistakenly give credit to ourselves or our own efforts.

Pope Leo XIV reminds us in DILEXI TE: "Christian love breaks down every barrier. It spans chasms that are humanly impossible to bridge. A Church that sets no limits to love... is the Church that the world needs today."

The Samaritan leper experiences exactly this love: God reaches beyond boundaries, restores the marginalized, and invites all into the Kingdom.

Here in Las Vegas, amid the lights, noise, and busyness, God's mercy still reaches those on the margins, offering healing, restoration, and welcome.

Jesus affirms the Samaritan: "Your faith has saved you." Likewise, our faith in Christ restores us, reconnects us to community, and invites us to live as God's people: grateful, healed, renewed.

Fr. Serge
