~ FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK ~

Today we remember our dear deceased and give thanks to God for the gift of all our loved ones who have gone before us.

November is a special time to pray for the faithful departed, recalling the faces, names, and moments that shaped our lives. For some, this memory brings sadness; for others, it is a reminder that we still have "things to do and miles to go" before joining them.

Though their lives were not perfect, we honor them by building on the good they did and, when possible, correcting the errors left behind.

Jesus offers comfort: "Everything that the Father gives me will come to me, and I will not reject anyone who comes to me." He also reminds us: "I am going to prepare a place for you." Death is not the end, but the beginning of new life with God.

A story I recently read captures this mystery: "We had to attend a funeral very early in the morning. I said, 'He died, and we are alive.' Mike gently corrected me: 'He is alive. We are dying.'"

When we lose someone important, the world continues as if nothing has changed. Yet our hope is not lost. Our hope is Christ. Death has been conquered, life is renewed, and one day, we will be reunited with all those we love in the eternal joy of God's kingdom.

Let us pray for all the faithful departed, and in our prayers, let us also strengthen our hope, knowing that in Christ, the story does not end.

Fr. Serge
