~ FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK ~

Last Sunday, we reflected on Mary and Martha – two sisters, both disciples, both called to follow Jesus in different ways. Mary listened at Jesus' feet, while Martha served through diakonia – ministry.

Their story reminds us that discipleship takes many forms, but the call is one: to follow Christ.

Today's Gospel deepens that call as the disciples ask, "Lord, teach us to pray." Jesus responds not with a formula but with a relationship: "When you pray, say: Father..."

He teaches us that prayer begins with intimacy and trust – with recognizing God not as distant, but as close, caring, and loving.

Jesus also urges persistence in prayer – to keep asking, seeking, knocking – not because God is reluctant, but because prayer prepares our hearts to receive. God may not always change our circumstances, but He always gives us His Spirit – His strength, peace, and presence.

Like Mary, we are invited to listen.

Like Martha, we are called to serve.

Like the disciple, we must ask to be taught how to pray.

Because PRAYER doesn't change God, it CHANGES US.

Let us be faithful in prayer, rooted in trust, and open to the Spirit who is always given to those who ask.

– Fr. Serge

JUBILEE YEAR OF HOPE 2025

A JUBILEE YEAR is a special time in the Church's tradition, observed every 25 years, to encourage holiness through acts of reconciliation and communion with others. Holy Father has announced that 2025 will be a Jubilee Year, themed "Pilgrims of Hope".

JUBILEE PILGRIMAGE SITE

The Jubilee Year began on December 24, 2024, when Pope Francis opened the Holy Doors at St. Peter's Basilica. The doors will remain open until the end of the Jubilee Year on January 6, 2026. During this time, millions of pilgrims are expected to travel to Rome to walk through the Holy Doors.

Those who can't travel to Rome can participate in the Jubilee locally by making a pilgrimage to Guardian Angel Cathedral, the special pilgrimage site for our Archdiocese of Las Vegas.
