~ FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK ~

Family life is full of highs, lows, and ordinary moments. Even the Holy Family faced struggles. Yet through it all, Mary, Joseph, and Jesus stayed faithful, loved one another deeply. They show us that holiness is not about perfection, but about persistence and love in the midst of life's challenges.

That's what makes a family holy – not perfect, sentimental love, but real, selfless love that carries us through struggles, forgives, hopes, and endures. The Church doesn't ask us to act holy; it calls us to become holy. Christ meets us as we are, transforming us from the inside out. The Church is a hospital for the soul, where the weary, wounded, and searching find healing. It reminds us that God meets us in our weakness and that His love can transform even the hardest moments.

Every family can be holy when its members love and respect one another, share joys and burdens, forgive, and welcome others. Love starts at home. If we want to bring happiness into the world, we start with our families. Care for one another, support each other, and let God's love shine in your home—it's there that holiness grows and spreads into the world. And when we practice this love faithfully, our homes become a reflection of the Holy Family itself.

Fr. Serge
