~ FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK ~

In a city like Las Vegas, Jesus' call to mourning, poverty, meekness, and enduring persecution can sound almost like a provocation. Here, everything tells us: win, don't show weakness, success is everything, and a smile sells better than the truth.

Yet the Beatitudes are not a casino point system, nor a promise of rewards for simply surviving life. They point to a fulfilled life, but not by the world's standards. Las Vegas promises instant happiness, fast rewards, bright lights, and endless noise. And yet, many of you come here today – whether you live in the city or are visiting briefly – tired, searching, sometimes invisible to the world. To you, Jesus says: blessed are you.

The Gospel isn't merely an add-on to the Law. It is the story of Jesus Himself, who becomes the very content of what He teaches. The Beatitudes are an icon of Christ: He is poor, weeping over humanity, meek, hungering for justice, merciful, pure in heart, a bringer of peace and persecuted. And yet He is the Son of God.

The Beatitudes are not an ideal for saints in paintings; they are a portrait of Jesus' life, and an invitation for our lives to take on His shape. The Beatitudes, the Gospel, the commandment of love – they are a mirror of Christ.

Today's question is not Is this possible? but: Will we let Jesus, not the world, be the measure of our lives?

"In a city that teaches us how to win everything – Jesus teaches us how not to lose ourselves." FR. SERGE
