Fiesta Hispana

Pope Francis'
Guide to Holiness

Gaudete et Exsultate

Tuesday
September 25
7 p.m. in the Mulligan Room

With Father Tom,
Father Olvin
and Mary Pat

While Jesus is teaching his disciples about his suffering and death and that three days later he would rise, we hear in the Gospel today that the disciples were discussing among themselves who was the greatest. In response to this, Jesus clarifies that things will have to be different for those who choose to follow him. The greatest among them will be the one who chooses to be the servant of all. And then Jesus places a child in their midst and says: Whoever receives one child such as this in my name, receives me; and whoever receives me, receives the One who sent me. The child represents those with no power or status in society and those totally dependent on the goodness of others. To serve one of these is to serve Jesus himself. As disciples, we are called to remember that true greatness comes from being a servant of God. Who are we being called to serve in Christ's name?

This Tuesday, September 25, we invite you to join us at 7:00pm in the Mulligan Room for a presentation on Pope Francis' encyclical, Gaudete et Exsultate – Rejoice & be Glad! The presentation will be led by Mary Pat Storms, Fr. Olvin, and me. This is a great opportunity to reflect on the call to holiness and grow in your faith.

Thank you to those who contributed to our second collection last weekend for our sister community in San Rafael Cedros, El Salvador. We are grateful to those who contributed and make it possible for us to provide scholarships for a number of high school and college students in the community. As I mentioned last week, we will be hosting a delegation of four members from El Salvador in November. To make this important visit possible, we provide the airline tickets and cover other expenses during their stay. This is not part of our regular budget for our sister community. If you did not get a chance to contribute to the second collection last weekend, please consider helping us cover these additional expenses by making a contribution this week. You can contribute online by selecting El Salvador on the payment screen or you can place your check made payable to Presentation and clearly marked for El Salvador in the regular collection. We appreciate your support.

It has been about three weeks since all registered parishioners received the packet for our Celebrating our Faith-Continuing our Vision parish campaign. We are grateful to those who have already completed a pledge card and made a commitment to support the campaign. We have made great progress in this time, but we still have a long way to go. The success of this campaign depends on the willingness of all stewardship

Today's second reading warns that a heart consumed with avarice and envy leads to jealousy, strife, conflicts, and disputes. A giving heart, in contrast, can sing instead with the psalmist, "Freely will I offer you sacrifice; I will praise your name, O Lord, for its goodness."

CAPITAL CAMPAIGN NEWS

Virginia Corn Honorary Chair

My family has a long history with Our Lady of the Presentation Parish. My mother was baptized at St. Mary's in 1887, one of the earliest baptisms, and my own children attended Presentation School. I have many good memories of our parish through the years.

Presentation is a very welcoming parish. The way our parish is growing, we need to make improvements so that everyone who comes to Mass has a place to sit and be comfortable. It is an honor to be chosen to serve as an Honorary Chairperson of the Capital Campaign. It makes me feel special!

Summer Reading Celebration

At the end of each school year, the OLP library issues a challenge to students to keep them reading throughout the summer break. This summer, 190 OLP students met the challenge of reading 1,000 pages or more. Some of these students went far above and beyond this goal – the top three school winners all read over 25,000 pages each! All students who participated and reached the 1,000 page goal celebrated with a sundae party! A sweet treat for a job well done.

Vigésimo Quinto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Queridos hermanos y hermanas, a los discípulos de Jesús no les entraba en la cabeza el que su Maestro tuviera que pasar por el túnel del sufrimiento, que para ser el primero se tenga que ser el servidor de todos, que en las nuevas categorías del Reino de Cristo el niño ocupe un lugar primordial. No era fácil para ellos dejar la concepción en la que se habían educado desde su infancia. Pero para ser discípulos de Cristo tenían que cambiar. Debían aceptar que el sufrimiento es camino de redención para Jesucristo, y lo sigue siendo par los cristianos de hoy.

La cultura en la que vivimos y la mentalidad de nuestros contemporáneos está hecha al cambi. Se cambia más fácilmente que antes de trabaj, de computadora, de coche, de casa, de país... Se cambian también los modos de pensar y vivir, los valores de comportamiento, y hasta lamisma religió.

El cambio está a la orden del día, y quien no cambia, pronto pasa a formar parte de los retros. Pero, ¡claro!, no todo cambio es bueno para el hombre. Ni todo cambio indica progreso. El cambio al que la liturgia nos invita es el cambio desde Dios. Es decir, aquel cambio que Dios quiere y espera del hombre para que sea más hombre, para que viva mejor y más plenamente su dignidad humana. El cambio que Dios quiere es el de la injusticia a la justicia, del abuso al servicio de los demás, de la infidelidad a la fidelidad, del odio al amor, de la venganza al perdón, de la cultura de muerte a la cultura de la vida, del pecado a la gracia y a la santidad.
