Today is the Last Sunday in Ordinary Time which brings the liturgical year of the Church to a close. This celebration has become known as the Feast of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. As we hear in the Gospel, Jesus is the Servant King who calls us to recognize him in our service to one another. When we take care of the hungry, thirsty, stranger, naked, ill, or imprisoned, it is as if we are caring for Christ himself. These corporal works of mercy should define our lives and be practiced regularly. Here at Presentation we focus on ways we can care for those in need through our regular service projects throughout the year. Even in these challenging times in which we have been living, there has been an overwhelming response to our collection drives for our service partners. Jesus, our King, identifies himself with the powerless and needy and calls us to do the same. We are grateful for the example of so many in our faith community who put their faith into action by serving others. As we close another Church year and look forward with hope, may our lives reflect our belief in Christ, the true Servant King, and may we always serve him by serving others.

Thank you to everyone who participated in our annual Stewardship Renewal by returning your Commitment card this weekend. We are grateful for all those who share their gifts in so many ways with our parish. If you have not had a chance to return your card, please do so this week. If there is information you would like about any of our ministries or ways we can help you get connected, feel free to indicate this on your card or call the Parish Office. Also, a big thanks to those who brought coats to support our Winter Coat Drive for our service partner, Bishop Sullivan Center. These coats will help bring the gift of warmth to those in need this Christmas.

Happy Parish Feast Day! The Feast of the Presentation of Our Lady falls on November 21 each year, so we celebrate the gift of our parish community in a special way this weekend. Through the intercession of our Blessed Mother, may we dedicate ourselves to God, as Mary did, by being faithful servants.

This Thursday, November 26, is Thanksgiving Day. We have much to be grateful for in our lives, even amidst all the challenges we have been facing. Although gathering with family and friends may look a little different this year, let's be sure to take some time and truly give thanks for the gift of our faith and one another. We will have a special Thanksgiving Day Mass at 9:00 a.m. Sign-ups for the Mass are required, so please check our website to see if space is still available. All contributions in the Thanksgiving envelope will be used to help those in need during the holidays.

Next weekend we begin a new Church year with the First Sunday of Advent. This is a holy season when we .....stewardship.....

When the Son of Man comes in glory, may we be among those who have fed the hungry, welcomed the stranger, and clothed the naked. For Jesus tells us clearly that it is those who have demonstrated good stewardship by sharing their gifts with the less fortunate who will receive God's blessing and inherit the kingdom. - Stewardship by the Book

Hermanos que Cristo sea coronado como Rey de nuestras vidas a través de las obras de misericordia.

Hoy es el último domingo del año litúrgico y la Iglesia celebra la solemnidad de Jesucristo Rey del Universo. En la página del Evangelio de Mateo que leemos hoy se nos presenta la conocida escena del juicio final, con la cual Jesús concluye el discurso escatológico, que es el último de los cinco discursos que pronuncia en este Evangelio. Y precisamente se presenta el evento último de la historia: la venida del Hijo del hombre. La descripción de ese evento no se hace como mero hecho de crónica, sino de manera que determine toda nuestra vida presente.

Dice la escritura: "Serán congregadas delante de él todas las naciones". Y la escena adquiere dimensión universal. Para continuar, Jesús adopta una imagen que era familiar para sus oyentes: para trasladar el rebaño, el pastor debe separar ovejas y cabritos en piños diferentes. Así hará el Hijo del hombre: "Él separará a los unos de los otros, como el pastor separa a las ovejas de los cabritos. Pondrá las ovejas a su derecha y los cabritos a su izquierda". La destinación de unos y otros será radicalmente opuesta: "El Rey dirá a los de su derecha: 'Vengan, benditos de mi Padre, reciban en herencia el Reino preparado para ustedes desde la creación del mundo...'. Y dirá a los de su izquierda: 'Apártense de mí, malditos, al fuego eterno, preparado para el diablo y sus ángeles...'. No es una sentencia arbitraria, sino que se indica claramente el motivo. A los primeros les dice: "Porque tuve hambre, y me diste de comer; tuve sed, y me diste de beber...". Se completa el elenco de las llamadas obras corporales de misericordia. A los otros en cambio dice: "Porque tuve hambre, y no me diste de comer; tuve sed, y no me diste de beber...".

Todo nuestro amor a Dios se debe volcar en el amor al prójimo. En la parábola del juicio final Jesús presenta de manera imaginativa y muy eficaz, la misma enseñanza que expresa San Juan en forma sistemática en una sentencia universal: "Quien no ama a su hermano, a quien ve, no puede amar a Dios, a quien no ve" (1Jn 4,20). Sin el amor al prójimo no hay amor a Dios. El amor a Dios se expresa y se hace concreto solamente en el amor al prójimo. De esa manera amando a Dios y al prójimo podremos declarar que Jesús es nuestro Rey y Señor.

En cristo, Padre Emmanuel López.

NEWS FROM EL SALVADOR

A letter from University Student - Angelica

Hi! I am Angelica, it is a pleasure for me to return to you. Hoping in God that all is well and hoping that all this tragedy will end soon to see them again. Tell them that every day they are present in my prayers to all the people of the Our Lady of the Presentation parish I send them a warm hug that God and Our Lady fill them with many blessings and great strength in this situation. We appreciate them very much. Blessings!!

Celebrating our parish Feast Day!

In 1959, Bishop John Cody officially changed the name of our parish from St. Mary's to Our Lady of the Presentation following the merger of the Diocese of Kansas City and the Diocese of St. Joseph. The name was chosen in honor of the feast of the Presentation of the Virgin Mary, which is commemorated on the Church's calendar on November 21. The Votive Area in the church is devoted to the Presentation of Mary, our parish namesake. The central focus is the statue of St. Ann holding the young Blessed Virgin Mary. In 1985, Fr. Donald Powers, then pastor of Presentation, commissioned sculptor, Rudolph Torrini, to create a statue depicting the presentation of Mary for the church's dedication. The statue is often mistaken as that of Mary holding Jesus.

construction update

The north church entrance reconstruction is taking shape. Construction continues in the new kitchen area adjacent to the new Mulligan space. Bathrooms in the former K-2 school hallway have also been renovated.
