May the Blessings of CHRISTMAS continue to fill you!

Our celebration of Jesus' birth, God becoming one of us, is a reminder that Jesus changed forever the course of human history. And because he chose to dwell among us, we also take comfort in knowing Jesus shared life with a family. We recognize the gift of family in a special way this weekend as we celebrate the Feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph. As we hear in the Gospel today, Jesus was brought to the temple by his parents and revealed by Simeon as a light for revelation to the Gentiles, and glory for the people of Israel. After they leave the temple, the scriptures say: the child grew and became strong, filled with wisdom, and the favor of God was upon him. As we turn to the example of the Holy Family in our lives, and give thanks for our families, let us remember that the favor of God is also upon us as we seek to live the path of holiness and faith. May our families always reveal the light of Christ.

Although our Christmas Mass celebrations were a little different this year, we were able to welcome over 2000 people into church at our various Masses and many others who watched Mass virtually. In previous years, we have had attendance of 4500-5000, but we feel very blessed to have had so many join us during these times. A lot of extra work went into celebrating our 8 Masses, so a big thanks to all of our parishioner volunteers and staff who helped make it possible. A special thanks to our Mass Coordinators, Lectors, Communion Ministers, Greeters, Seating Ushers, Servers, Musicians, Cantors, Choir members, church decorators, and cleaning crew after each Mass. We are blessed by the generosity and service of so many.

Don't forget that we Christians celebrate Christmas for several weeks. Next weekend, January 2-3, we celebrate the brightness of Christmas with the Feast of the Epiphany. Even though the decorations may come down and the lights may be put away, you might consider leaving up some symbol of Christmas for the full season which lasts until the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord on January 9-10. Let's keep the light shining!

This week we usher in the new year and celebrate the Feast of Mary, the Holy Mother of God. We will have Masses for the holy day this Thursday, December 31, at 5:30 p.m. and Friday, January 1, at 10:00 a.m. I think we are all ready for something new in 2021, so start the year off in a good way as we ask for God's blessing and Mary's intercession. May 2021 be filled with daily reminders of God's abundant $25,000 Matching Gift in support of the Presentation Portico!

As we near completion of the projects funded through the Celebrating Our Faith – Continuing Our Vision Capital Campaign, it is evident these improvements will profoundly enhance our parish facilities. One additional improvement we would like to make that was not part of the original plan is a permanent portico to define and beautify our North Church Entrance. This would create a visible sign of Christ's welcome to all who enter and provide practical cover in times of inclement weather.

Approximate Portico Cost: $70,000

A parishioner has generously offered to match all donations to the Portico Project up to $25,000!

*Prayerfully consider a

"The visibility and beauty of the church's entrance reveals the importance of entering in communion with Christ and His members."

BeFriender: A Listening Ministry

As we navigate this year of a global pandemic, many people may be struggling with feelings of isolation, confusion, and fear in addition to life's daily challenges. BeFriender Ministers can provide a caring, nonjudgmental, listening presence for anyone experiencing grief, loss, crisis, or other life difficulties. A BeFriender Minister meets one-on-one and listens with complete confidentiality and empathy as a reminder of our caring faith community. If you, or someone you know, would appreciate someone to listen or walk with on a difficult journey, please contact the Pastoral Care office, 251-1102.

A Listening Presence

Becoming a BeFriender Minister

BeFrienders are trained volunteer ministers who provide a caring, listening presence to people in difficult and transitional situations, such as illness, loneliness, or loss of a loved one. The core concepts and skills learned enable a BeFriender to enter into any situation and provide a compassionate, empathetic ear.

BeFrienders accept people as they are, without telling them how they should be, listen without giving advice, and allow others to make their own decisions without trying to decide for them. By providing spiritual and emotional care, BeFrienders provide an opportunity for those they befriend to make choices and to grow. If you are interested in learning more about becoming a BeFriender Minister, contact Shelli Lange, 251-1102 to be invited to a Zoom information meeting on Thursday, January 7 at 6:30 p.m.

Que el niño Jesús, el hijo de José y María, nos regale la gracia de convertirnos en miembros santos de la gran familia de Dios.

Hermanos, la fe, comenta el catecismo de la Iglesia Católica, “es una adhesión personal del hombre a Dios que se revela. Comprende una adhesión de la inteligencia y de la voluntad a la Revelación que Dios ha hecho de sí mismo mediante sus obras y palabras” (Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica 176). De esta fe, la Iglesia al celebrar hoy la fiesta de la Sagrada familia, hace referencia a Abraham, el padre de todos los creyentes, precisamente por su capacidad de escucha atenta a Dios y por someterse libremente a la palabra escuchada.

Abraham, al ponerse en camino sin saber exactamente hacia dónde dirigirse y estar dispuesto a sacrificar a su hijo Isaac, prueba y garantía que el Señor le había dado de su compañía y bendición, da su asentimiento con todo su ser a Dios que se revela (cf Dei Verbum 5): su inteligencia, su voluntad y, sobre todo, su corazón, centro de su persona. La fe es un don de Dios, un obsequio libre de la razón, pero nunca contraria a la razón. Más aún, la fe ilumina la razón abriéndole horizontes más amplios y profundos de manera que ésta puede llegar ahí donde por sí sola no puede ni alcanza. (Cf. Fides et Ratio 16). Por eso cuando Dios llama a Abraham, le promete una descendencia numerosa como las estrellas, porque Dios sabe que el corazón del hombre es capaz de responder generosamente al llamado divino por con la fe.

También la familia de Nazaret vive con fe los planes divinos. Sin duda alguna no los comprenden del todo, pero los guardan dentro de su corazón sin evadirlos, viviendo en las tinieblas de la noche como ese primer peregrino que salió de su tierra sin saber qué rumbo había de tomar. Se adhieren al beneplácito de Dios dejando en un segundo plano los planes personales, los propios gustos, los propios criterios. Adhieren por completo sus vidas a Él aprendiendo a prescindir de sí mediante un acto pleno de abandono y confianza, fundados en Él que es la verdad misma que no puede ni engañarse ni engañarnos. Se adhieren a Dios por la fe acogiendo su palabra, cortando amarras de esperanzas amadas, seguridades e ilusiones, para mantenerse unido al hilo de la palabra del Señor a pesar de todos los obstáculos y pesares que su cumplimiento les fue presentando. Que Dios bendiga todas sus familias con una fe inquebrantable,

En Cristo, Padre Emmanuel Lopez.
